

OAKLAWN PLANTATION — one of the most beautiful ante-bellum homes in Huntsville, Alabama — was built around 1844 and served as a hospital during the Spanish-American War. The late Max Luther transformed the 175 acre estate into a stock farm. He also maintained a very fine stable for his noted five- and three-gaited saddle horses.

Ektachrome by Helen O'Brien

Pub. by Alabama Post Card Co., 111 Livingston Court, Bessemer, Alabama

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post Card