

POPE-SCRAGINS HOME
Huntsville, Ala.

This home was built in 1815 by Col. Leroy Pope, "The Father of Huntsville", and overlooks the city. Later it became the home of Leroy Pope Walker, who as Secretary of War for the CSA, gave the order to fire on Fort Sumter, which began the War Between the States.

Dear Mother

This was one of the homes I went thro and
was it ever beautiful.
There was a family of 4 children living in it
now and they have really kept it up in beautiful condition.

Wish you could of been
with me.
