nation, and the weekly record of the ballots was printed and commented upon in the press all over the world. During the intervening years the discussion on Prohibition has been growing rather than diminishing. Public opinion has been solidifying. But in what way? A comparison of these three polls will tell the dramatic story.

People throughout the whole country have asked us to take another poll on Prohibition, an accurate sounding of the present sentiment of the country, in advance of the coming party conventions when Presidential candidates will be nominated and platforms adopted, as a public service. Doubtless these people had in mind the startling accuracy, the absolute impartiality and non-partizanship for which The Literary Digest referendums are famous; how, in 1928, the Digest nation-wide Presidential Poll predicted the overwhelming victory of Hoover, and his surprise capture of such "solid" Democratic States as Virginia, North Carolina, Florida and Texas; how, in 1924, this magazine foretold the election of Coolidge with over ninety-nine percent accuracy; how it forecast the Harding landslide in 1920; and all these prophecies were made weeks in advance of the election.

We believe that the results of this Prohibition poll will be a news sensation of the year. You, yourself, will surely want to know the outcome -- which side will win a majority vote. All of the returns will be published weekly, in a State-by-State analysis, in The Literary Digest. The Digest is always alive, human, interesting, but during this special poll it will be even more fascinating than ever.

The poll alone should induce you to join the millions of alert men and women who now have the Digest habit. But in order to insure and to hasten your decision we are going to offer you a 17 weeks' subscription for only $1.00. You will find your Acceptance Card attached to your ballot. Please mail each separately.

It is doubtless hardly necessary to tell you about The Literary Digest. You know how it mirrors the vital happenings of all the world; how it pithily interprets every outstanding event that occurs; how it has become acknowledged as an indispensable manual for those who know the need of keeping abreast of the times -- particularly now.

The coming 17 weeks will be crowded with important events of vital interest to you. The crisis in world affairs is fast approaching a climax. Political policies are now being shaped that will have a decided effect upon your welfare. Legislation to lighten or increase your burdens is now in the making. Intense developments are ahead. It will pay you in many ways to keep abreast of these activities. The Literary Digest keeps you posted regularly on all such events, telling you just what significance each has for you.

Also, the richly colored and fascinating drama being constantly enacted by the world's outstanding personalities will be accurately recorded for you. The adventure, romance, the achievement and fun from all over the globe will be unfolded for you week by week. All will be profusely illustrated, showing great momentous events pictorially just as they happen.

Politics and finance, sports and athletics, literature and art, social service and religion, the drama and the screen, wit and humor, aviation, intimate glimpses of the great personalities -- every department of human activity is combed for its outstanding story. You get it stripped of all flat details -- terse, lively, and entertaining.

Mark and mail your ballot now so that we may start counting the returns at once -- whether you subscribe for The Literary Digest or not.

At the same time mail your subscription card, so that you will be sure not to miss the many captivating happenings that will be recorded in The Literary Digest, in addition to the returns of the Prohibition Poll.

Yours very truly

These Four Valuable Handbooks
WILL HELP YOU TO BUSINESS AND SOCIAL SUCCESS
Protecting You From Annoying Mistakes Which Would Discredit You

"SLIPS OF SPEECH"
By FRANK H. VIZETELLY, Litt.D., LL.D.

This most attractive and lucid treatment of errors in diction actually makes mighty good reading, while at the same time imparting a valuable knowledge of how to avoid the inaccuracies and vulgarisms so common in our every-day speech.

With its aid you may always avoid the numerous slips of the tongue and pen which are often humiliating, and always indicative of lack of care and culture.

In one alphabetical order—readily accessible for ready reference—it presents and corrects many hundreds of common errors of pronunciation and grammar.

It deals with the great number of common instances of inelegant selection of, or misuse of words, downright slovenliness of language, and misconstruction of the exact meanings of certain words.

It is a practical, valuable little book, ever ready with the answer, and always ready with the correct answer to the little "puzzlers" which come up every day in matters of language.

"FAULTY DICTION"

A valuable and handy little book designed to aid in the correction of the many faults of speech and writing common among English-speaking people of some or even considerable education.

It treats of the many hundreds of little questions in our English language about which there is often uncertainty.

Gives examples in phrases or sentences in almost every instance. Shows how to spell, divide, and pronounce the words treated and denotes which are to be capitalized. Distinguishes between such words as bring and carry; by and bye; lay and lie; calculate and intend; claim, assert and maintain; should and would; shall and will; raise and bring up; scarcely and hardly; set and sit; same and similar, etc., etc. Shows how to form plurals and possessives. Classifies and defines errors in grammatical and rhetorical construction, and provides examples of each in sentences. Corrects slang and colloquial expressions. Every explanation is crystal clear, brief, and right to the point. A book you'll never want to be without if you wish to avoid discreditable diction and verbal disaster.

"BETTER SAY"
By JAMES C. FERNALD, L.H.D.

Clean-cut, correctly spoken English is not only a beautiful art, but a stepping-stone to social and commercial advancement.

This excellent volume not only gives correct and incorrect formations of sentences, but also the spelling of words, proper divisions into syllables, and shows the syllable emphasized.

Don't say, "I have raised ten children." It may be untrue, and it is certainly bad English. So also are the expressions, "Had I have known it," "He fell in the pond," "I will lay down and rest," "Neither he nor his wife were there," "He hadn't ought to have done it," "The new building is as high or higher than Trinity Steeple," "He is now living at Paris." These are a few of the errors in speech that are pointed out and corrected by the eminent grammarian in his little book.

It will show you how to use graceful, correct, explicit language.

"MEND YOUR SPEECH"
By FRANK H. VIZETELLY, Litt.D., LL.D.

A thousand hints on the correct usage of many words and idioms commonly used. Good English is learned easily and rapidly by hearing it spoken and by reading it. It is the result of practise rather than precept.

We need to be reminded of, rather than chided for, our lapses in the use of good English, and every effort made that leads us away from the ill-kempt, sloppy, and tatterdemalion unloveliness of speech or writing is deserving of hearty support.

Slovenly speech is as clearly an indication of slovenly thought as profanity is of a degraded mind. Therefore, let us heed the advice Shakespeare has given us—"Mend your speech lest it may mar your fortune." With this convenient little book at hand you may build up a choice vocabulary of English words.

The Books Are 6 1/4 x 3 1/2 inches in Size, Bound in Flexocard Covers with Cloth Backs, and Are Made Thin for the Pocket
THESE FOUR BOOKS HAVE IN THEM THE COMBINED AUTHORITY OF MORE THAN 380 SPECIALISTS THROUGHOUT THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING WORLD

Dear Madam:

Thank you very much for your recent order and it has had our good attention.

We are entirely sold out on the Calla Lily-Godfrey and we are enclosing 25¢ in postage stamps to refund you on this item. On the l-Lilium Auratum we are booking this item for shipment upon arrival of our additional stock about April 10.

Concerning your order for nursery stock, we are booking at this time only the two Hydrangeaplants, as the Water Lilies that you order will not be ready before June. We did not know whether shipment at that date would be agreeable. Will you please advise us?

Concerning the Geranium plants, we are entirely sold out of the Apple Scented and are not booking the order for the Rose - until we hear from you as to just what we shall send you on the two geranium plants.

We are holding your remittance on the plants as stated above in abeyance until we hear from you and your advice by return mail will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

$ **** On _____

$ **** On _____

Note—No insurance attaches under any of the above items unless a certain amount is specified in blank space immediately preceding the item.

Total insurance permitted, warranted concurrent herewith, including this policy, as follows:

$ 500.00 on dwelling; $ **** on servants' house; $ **** on private garage; $ **** on barn; $ **** on _____; $ **** on _____

It is understood and agreed that no insurance is permitted in addition to this policy unless the total insurance, including this policy, is entered in paragraph above.

This insurance is effected subject to the following conditions, which are hereby made warranties by the insured and are accepted as a part of this contract:

Permission granted to make alterations, improvements and repairs to any building herein described and to complete same if under construction, and the insurance, if any hereunder, on such building is hereby extended and made to cover such alterations, improvements and repairs, and the building materials and supplies therefor or entering into the construction of such building, while contained therein or on the premises immediately adjacent thereto.

Permission granted for such use of the premises as is usual and incidental to the occupancy as described herein, and to keep and use all articles and materials usual and incidental to such occupancy in such quantities as the exigencies of the occupancy require.

Three-Fourths Value Clause—It is understood and agreed to be a condition of this insurance that, in the event of loss or damage by fire to the property insured under this policy, this Company shall not be liable for an amount greater than three-fourths of the actual cash value of each item of property insured by this policy (not exceeding the amount insured on each such item) at the time immediately preceding such loss or damage; and in the event of additional insurance—if any is permitted hereon—then this Company shall be liable for its proportion only of three-fourths of such cash value of each item insured at the time of the fire, not exceeding the amount insured on each such item.

Vacancy Clause—Permission is hereby granted for the within described dwelling to become and remain vacant or unoccupied for a period of not exceeding thirty (30) days (including the period of 10 days allowed in printed conditions of policy) at any one time. It is understood that, if the vacancy exceeds thirty days at any one time, permission for same must be specifically endorsed hereon.

It is made a condition of this insurance that the premises shall be kept properly closed and secured to prevent trespassing or the entrance of unauthorized persons during the term of vacancy or unoccupancy.

Loss Payable Form—Any loss that may be ascertained and proven to be due the assured under the building items of this policy shall be held payable to The Insured as interest may appear, subject, nevertheless, to all the terms and conditions of this policy.

Standard Time—Standard Time, as herein defined, at the beginning and ending of the term of insurance, refers to Standard Time at the place where the designating locality is located.

Lightning and Electrical Apparatus Clause—This policy covers any direct loss or damage caused by lightning (meaning thereby the commonly accepted use of the term "lightning," and in no case to include loss or damage by cyclone, tornado or windstorm), not exceeding the sum insured, nor the interest of the insured in the property, and subject in all other respects to the terms and conditions of this policy. It being a condition of this contract that if dynamos, exciters, lamps, motors, switches or other electrical appliances or devices are covered by this policy, this Company will not be liable for any electrical injury or disturbance, whether from artificial or natural causes, unless fire ensues, and then only for such loss or damage to them as may be caused by such ensuing fire. It is also a condition of this contract that, if there be any other insurance on said property, this Company will be liable only pro rata with such other insurance for any direct loss by lightning, whether such other insurance be against direct loss by lightning or not.
