THE LADIES' PEARL For 1870.

None too poor to Subscribe!
 The Pearl for $1.50 a Year.

THE demand of this age is cheap literature. The following terms are so liberal, that no one can decline to subscribe who has the least desire for a pure Christian Literature.

Single Subscriptions	$1.50 each
From two to five Subscribers	2.50 each
From five to ten Subscribers	3.25 each
Ten Subscribers (at one office)	3.00 each
Fifteen Subscribers (at one office)	1.75 each
Twenty Subscribers (at one office)	1.50 each

A Club of 20 of our titles the year-up to an extra copy. These terms defy competition. We hope a spirit of rivalry will be aroused among the friends of "The Ladies' Pearl," and that, within twelve months, we may reduce the regular price to single subscribers to two dollars a year. We know five hundred Ministers who could get us twenty subscribers each during the next six months. We know two hundred and fifty more "what should we do in the same time, get ten subscribers each, and two hundred and fifty more who could, within the same time, send us five subscribers each. Besides these, the Pearl has now one thousand Lady friends, who could, within one day, send us one subscriber each.

Will our friends take hold of this enterprise, and push it forward? Don't wait till the first of January, but begin your canvass immediately, and let us hear from you.

Send 20 cents for specimen copy

CULBURN'S PATENT
REDJACKET AXE
 It is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons: First—It cuts deeper, Second—It does not stick in the wood, Third—It does not jar the hand, Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one third more work than with regular Axes. Red Jacket has nothing to do with the good quality of this axe. For all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

Daily Independent.

FRIDAY, JAN. 14, 1870.

The Mobilis Tribune has added Gen. James M. Withers to its corps editorial. It favors the formation of a "third party" in Alabama. The Register takes issue with the Tribune, and attempts to explain its own recent "change of front" on the "new movement" matter in the following frank, but highly unsatisfactory manner:

"The Register means nothing except that, in its support of the Walker party in Virginia, and the Dent party in Mississippi, it has got no wood for its shearing, and that it is glad that the time has come when all true men can stand together on the white ground of Democratic unity, with no side issues to distract them, and no temptations, under exigent circumstances, to try to fight moderate Republicans against Jacobin Republicans."

We never advised "fighting moderate Republicans against Jacobin Republicans," except under the banner and auspices of the Democratic party. In this sense, we predict that the Register will gladly return to its former opinions before the next general elections in the State.

The Old Movement.

The Montgomery Mail of the 12th inst., in reply to a late editorial of the INDEPENDENT, uses the following language:

"If, however, a new movement is contemplated, we would be glad to know of 'the servants of the new movement at Montgomery.' In what the new movement differs from the old movement."

It affords us pleasure to furnish our intelligent contemporary with the means of conclusively answering its own question; especially as we are enabled to do so by reference to its own columns. We extract the following from the files of the Mail of Thursday, Sept. 5, 1867, and respectfully submit the same, without comment, to the "sober second thought" of the Democratic party:

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 5, 1867.

The convention met pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Barnes of Chambers from committees on resolutions, reported as the platform of the convention, the following declaration of principles.

PLATFORM OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF ALABAMA.

The Conservative men of the State of Alabama, in convention assembled in the city of Montgomery, adopt as an expression of their views, the following resolutions of the Conservative men of the State of Pennsylvania, adopted at a recent convention in that State.

1st. The Constitution of the United States, being that frame of civil government established by the people of the Union, with such changes as have been subsequently made therein in the manner prescribed by its rightful government, binding upon every inhabitant of all ranks, sexes, colors, ages and condition, and it is the duty of each and every one, without exception, to inculcate and encourage as they have been by recent events, and by insidious counsel of bad men, we appeal to him by the common interests of a common country, to place his trust in those he knows to be honorable, and to deal cautiously with strangers who bear no evidence that they know.

Mr. Barnes, from the same committee, stated that the committee, (during the time allowed to prepare an address too short, requested to be discharged from the consideration of that portion of the resolution, and that a committee of three be appointed to draft an address, not only to the people of Alabama, but to the people of the United States.

The committee was discharged, and the committee of three, so recommended, were authorized to be appointed.

Mr. Kennedy offered the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That the President of the convention be authorized to appoint an Executive Committee for the Conservative party of Alabama, to consist of one member from each Congressional District, with a chairman to reside at the capital.

Mr. Scott offered the following resolution: Resolved, That this convention recommend that a speaker be selected from each county in the State, to address the people upon the political issues that now involve the country, more especially to instruct the colored voters.

Mr. Kennedy offered the following as a substitute for Mr. Scott's resolution:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the State encourage local county organization, and that they request the early selection, in each county of a suitable person to canvass the county and address the citizens, and especially to instruct the colored citizens in regard to the purposes of the Conservative party.

The substitute was adopted.

Gen. Chanler offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved, That Joseph E. Williams and Benj. Holmes, of Tennessee, and Wade L. Potter, of Alabama, (all colored men) be requested to address the colored people of this State as generally as practicable.

Mr. Barnes offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Conservative people of the State of Alabama be respectfully requested by this Convention to aid and support the Conservative newspapers of the State, and see that they do not suffer by the interference of the military authorities with the laws of Alabama regulating the publication of official advertisements.

Mr. Mass moved that the President be authorized to appoint the committee of three suggested by the Committee on Resolutions, who are to draft an Address to the people of the United States.

Mr. Trotter moved that the President appoint two additional members to the Committee. The motion was adopted. The President announced Messrs. Taylor, Hodgeson, Barnes, Ashley and Stone said Committee.

Mr. Mass offered the following resolution which was adopted: Resolved, That this Convention of the Conservative Union men of Alabama is in favor of immigration of laborers, irrespective of nationality and the introduction of capital into the State, to aid in the development of her unsurpassed mineral, manufacturing and agricultural resources.

In a difficulty at Berryville, Virginia, on Friday of last week, between Mr. T. T. Ernsaw and Mr. Hardisty, the latter came out minus a nose. On the Tuesday following Mr. Ernsaw jumped from a second story window of the hotel and was killed.

An unfortunate individual named J. M. Bond, who hails from Fulton, Tennessee, was swindled out of five hundred and fifty dollars by a couple of confidence operators in Memphis, on Wednesday. Mr. Bond got a bag of bogus gold to hold as collateral.

Mr. Stowe's "Vindication" of Lady Byron is true. Lady Byron will have to be vindicated again. Mrs. Stowe leaves her at least a hundred per cent. worse than she found her.

DIED.
 On the 14th of January, after a protracted illness, Miss Mary Jane Wainwright, a child of rare value, and a heart full of peace and love, that made her gentle and lovely in life, patient and hopeful in the hour of death, the sweet daughter and sister, now crowned with immortality and life, awaits in heaven early's final cease. May the same faith which proved a firm rock when Jordan's chilly waters gathered around, sustain and comfort her surviving father.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
 Salvation for the Hair.
 CLEAR AS WATER!
 WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
 OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
 For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is light and sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing dirt, nor for stimulating the growth of the hair. These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Laxigator. This Vitalia is a harmless and unequalled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else.

The Pillow Tragedy.

We learn that the two Pillows, killed near Lagrange, were nephews, not sons of General Pillow. Our informant stated that they were killed for cruel and persistent maltreatment of the wife of one of them. They had been warned to cease the abuse of the woman, which enraged the husband, and his treatment of her became more violent, beating her over the head with a pistol, the brother standing by approving. The deed was done upon them at night, killing one in his bed, and the other being found next morning floating in a loge around his head.

We have the true cause of the lynch law. It is the lynch law, it is the lynch law, it is the lynch law, and deserving punishment adequate to the crime; but we do not must condemn the mob violence by which they were deprived of life. In such a case there need have been no fear that the wife-whippers would have met with stern justice from any jury.

Wonderful.
 Before another year rolls around the world will be encircled with telegraph lines. Four links of extended telegraph cable connect England with India and the Isles of the sea below Further India, and now a fifth is to be laid from the Straits of Malacca to Hong Kong. The lines now laid are the Falmouth, Gibraltar and Malta; the Anglo-Mediterranean, the British Indian extension telegraph companies.
 From a station of the latter, a cable 1400 miles long will reach China, and so the world will be warily belted, and will be virtually so when Japan is reached. On this cable now proposed, of 1,000 miles in length, will be from Hong Kong to Shanghai, touching at the treaty ports. The Hong Kong section is to cost £200,000. The capital stock of the company is to be paid up by November, 1870, and the cable is to be fully laid by June, 1870.
 This is really wonderful.

Sixty or seventy of the principal citizens of Lynchburg, Virginia, have been appointed a delegation to

 on the Southside.

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.
THURSDAY, Sept. 3, 1867.

The convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Mr. Barnes of Chambers from committee on resolutions, reported as the platform of the convention, the following declaration of principles.

PLATFORM OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF ALABAMA.

The Conservative men of the State of Alabama, in convention assembled in the city of Montgomery, adopt as an expression of their views, the following resolutions of the Conservative men of the State of Pennsylvania, adopted at a recent convention in that State.

1st. The Constitution of the United States, being that frame of civil government established by the majority of the Union, and which changes have been subsequently made therein in the manner prescribed by its rightful government, binding upon every inhabitant of all ranks, sexes, colors, ages and condition, and it is the duty of each and every one, without exception, or modification under any circumstances, to adhere to, protect and defend the same.

2d. In all conflict of powers under that instrument the Supreme Judiciary power is the only arbiter, which is independent of, and in its province superior to each of the others, and which they are bound to obey.

3d. The Union of the States is decided by the vote, and accepted by the Southern people to be perpetual, and the authority of the Federal Government is supreme within its constitutional limits.

4th. Congress is not the Federal Government, nor is the President, nor the Supreme Court. The Federal Government is that frame of civil policy established by the Constitution, consisting of all three, each supreme in its own limits, and each entitled, equally with the others, to the loyal obedience of every inhabitant of all the States.

5th. By the Constitution and under the fundamental law of the Federal Government which is superior to Congress and of which Congress is the creature, "representatives in Congress, and the electoral Colleges is a right, fundamental and indestructible in its nature, and abiding in every State, being a duty as well as a right, pertaining to the people of every State, and the denial of which is the destruction of the Federal Government."

The Conservative men of Alabama adopt, as a further expression of the opinions and purposes, the following:

6th. Each State under the Constitution has the exclusive right to preserve the equalization of its own debts.

7th. Resolved, That it is our earnest aim and purpose to cultivate relations of friendship, harmony and peace between the two races—to deal justly with the black—to instruct, and aid in instructing them in proper understanding of all their duties to themselves, to society and to their country—and we denounce as treacherous and base all attempts by bad men to engender or foment antagonism between the two races.

8th. That secure, substantial and efficient protection of our rights and interests, and the preservation of our peace, and the maintenance of our rights in its own, social and political responsibilities.

9th. That while we have much charity for the colored man, and feel inclined to look indulgently and tolerantly on his prejudices of race, generally as practicable.

Mr. Barnes offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Conservative people of the State of Alabama be respectfully requested by this Convention to aid and support the Conservative newspapers of the State, and see that they do not suffer by the interference of the military authorities with the laws of Alabama regulating the publication of official advertisements.

A motion moved that the President be authorized to appoint the committee of three suggested by the Committee on Resolutions, who are to draft an Address to the people of the United States.

President appointed two additional members to the Committee. The motion was adopted.

The President announced Messrs Taylor, Hodgson, Barnes, Ashley and Stone said Committee.

Mr. Mass offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention of the Conservative Union men of Alabama is in favor of immigration of labor, irrespective of nationality and the introduction of capital into the State, to aid in the development of her unmineral, mineral, manufacturing and agricultural resources.

Gen. Clanton, on the part of the colored members, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention is in favor of the advancement of the education of all races and colors.

The President announced the names of Gen. Clanton and Messrs Kennedy, Sheffield, Hunter, Forsyth and Daniels as the Executive Committee of the Conservative Party of Alabama.

Mr. Erwin offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to her unparagoned, mineral, manufacturing and agricultural resources.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are tendered to S. B. Brewer and his assistants for the faithful discharge of their duties as clerks of the Convention, and to Patrick Duran as door-keeper of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Scott, the Convention adjourned sine die .

The Democrat of last evening acknowledges two of its many recent blunders, and publishes extracts from the Mail and the Register to that effect. The acknowledgment, however, is not graciously made. The surface effort of that AMBLE sheet is evidently vexed at the necessity for being so even this tardy justice. We advise him to keep better posted upon current political affairs and save himself the humiliation of similar corrections in the future.

Ex-Minister John P. Hale is coming home next July.

Professor Agassiz has recovered from his illness, and is ready to lecture again.

Gen. McClellan was presented with a $500 watch on Christmas day.

Mr. Beecher advised the members of his congregation not to put wine on their "New Year's tables."

Isaac Egton, aged ninety-five years, died on Christmas at his residence, near South Bend, Indiana. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and was at Washington when that city was captured by the British, parts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalis is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing dandruff, nor for stimulating the growth of the hair. These objects may be accomplished later the color has been fixed with the Vitalis, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Laxigator.

The Vitalis is a harmless and unequalled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Of the State Convention in Tennessee and its President, the Nashville Banner says:

The subject of the Convention of the progressive young statesmanship of Tennessee; first from this last mentioned school of the true representative men of our State and times was selected the President.
 The Hon. John C. Brown is, perhaps, the most popular citizen of commonwealth, and certainly one of its ablest and truest. Learned in the law and in literature, distinguished in the crucible of war and in
 the not less trying political situations of peace, cultivated by travel, familiar with the governmental and
 political institutions of his own and other countries, and with a devoted to his native State and its people, a fier protestant officer could hardly have been chosen. We congratulate
 the Convention on the selection.
 The President's speech, on taking the chair, was in admirable taste and spirit. Taken as a text for the programme of its deliberations, in future the law and literature, distinguished in the crucible of war and in
 the not less trying political situations of peace, cultivated by travel,
 familiar with the governmental and
 political institutions of his own and
 other countries, and with a devoted
 to his native State and its people, a
 fier protestant officer could hardly
 have been chosen. We congratulate
 the Convention on the selection.

The Convention opens its deliberations auspiciously. The prayers of good men and women will ascend for its well-being and well-doing, and we think we can safely say that it enjoys the implicit confidence of every citizen not blinded by partisan prejudice and malice, and not deaf to reason and justice. We predict that what it performs will be well done, and as briefly as possible without weakness or indecent procipitation.

Capitol Notes.
 The new Radical slate for State officers does not embrace a single carpet-bagger. Morse is to be Governor; Turner, negro, of Elmore, is to be Lieutenant Governor, and L. S.
 Berry, (negro) of Mobile, is to be Secretary of State. Cloum, M. D., being an "inconspicuous logroller," is to be sent up in a balloon, to report on the practicability of educating the people up among the stars.

A lively contest is going on between Carraway, negro member from Mobile, and Berry, negro Sergeant-at arms of the House. Both are aspirants for the Radical nomination for Secretary of State. Carraway charges Berry with neglect of duty, as Sergeant-at-arms, and spending his time in electioneering for bills pending before the House, and ought to be discharged.
 Carraway thinks by dismissing and disgracing Berry, he (Carraway) shall have, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all individuals of the body, or to prevent any person on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude from serving as a juror or participating equally in the school fund or school privileges provided for in said Constitution; Provided, that any alteration by said Constitution be equally applicable to all the voters of said State, and may be made with respect to the time and manner of the election of said juror.

3. That all persons who shall at the time when said Constitution shall take effect, hold or exercise functions of any executive, administrative or judicial office in said State, by appointment or authority of the District Commander, shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices until their successors or those upon whom such duties shall, under said Constitution devolve, are duly chosen or appointed and qualified.

Section 2. Be it further enacted,
 That the election of United States Senators by the General Assembly of said State on the 18th day of October, 1868, shall have the same validity as if made by previous authority of law.

TENNESSEE.
WASHINGTON, January 11.-In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Fowler, of Tennessee, in speaking on the bill to reconstruct Virginia, referred what he termed an infamous accussation made against the people of Tennessee and the people of the South. He denoted that the Southerners were the murderous crew they had been represented. There had been comparatively less violence and crime in the South since the war, than in any other section.
 The halter in one hand and amnesty in the other, as Warner, of Alabama, had proposed, he preferred to strengthen their sentiments and principles of civilization, and to disseminate the blessings of education. He then referred to the political condition of Tennessee, where the Union had been trampled under the foot and the Republican party disintegrated, hopelessly lost by the ambitious schemes of unprincipled men.

NEW YORK, January 11.-A special train from Salt Lake says: The celebration of the laying of the last rail of the Utah Central Railroad took place yesterday. Connection is now complete between Salt Lake and the Atlantic and Pacific coast.
 Business was suspended, and the day observed as a holiday everywhere. People from all parts of the Territory came to attend the celebration. Brigham Young and his apostles, and his elders of the church, saints and sinners, Jews and Gentiles, participated in the rejoicing. At one o'clock a train arrived, bringing representatives of the Union and Central Pacific road. Major-General Gibbons and the officers of Camp Douglas were present. At two o'clock Brigham Young dove the last tie. There was great cheering, and salutes were fired. Elder Woodruff then dedicated the railroad to the Lord.
