The undersigned, as Executors, of the Will of SAMUEL TOWNSEND, deceased, late of Madison County, Alabama, will offer for Sale to the highest bidder, at Public Outcry, in Front of the COURT HOUSE,

IN HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA,

On WEDNESDAY, the 15th of December, 1858, Seven Plantations, hereinafter described, belonging to the estate of said deceased, upon a credit of 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years, in equal annual instalments, each annual instalment to bear interest, payable annually from day of sale, to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser, with, at least, two sureties.

ON FRIDAY, THE 17th OF DECEMBER, 1858,

They will sell, at Public Auction, on the TEAGUE PLACE, 13 miles north of Huntsville, a large quantity of perishable property, belonging to the estate of said deceased, consisting of Corn, Fodder, Oats, Wheat, Rye, Mules, Horses, Pork Hogs, Stock Hogs, Oxen, Milch Cows and other Cattle, a Gin-Head, Wagons, Plows, Hoes, Axes, and other plantation utensils, being the perishable property of said estate belonging to the Teague, King and Mullins plantations.

ON SATURDAY, THE 18th OF DECEMBER, 1858.

They will sell, in like manner, on the MARTIN PLACE, all the perishable property of said estate, belonging to the Smith, Amonett and Martin Plantations of said estate, consisting of the same kind of articles, that are advertised above, for sale at the Teague Plantation. If not concluded on the 18th, the sale will be continued until the following Monday, and any articles advertised for sale on the 17th, which may not be sold on that day, will be sold, on the 18th or 20th, at the Martin Place.

ON THURSDAY, THE 23d DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858.

They will sell, on the JACKSON COUNTY PLACE, of said testator, in Jackson County, Ala., all the perishable Property of said Estate, on said plantation (Slaves and Cotton excepted) consisting of six or eight hundred barrels of Corn, about 30 stacks of Fodder, several stacks of Oats, a valuable lot of Pork and Stock Hogs, 12 or 15 head of Mules and Horses, a Gin-Head, Corn-sheller, Work Oxen, Milch Cows, Cattle, Wheat, Corn, Plows, Hoes and other Plantation Implements. These sales will be made on a credit of six months, with interest from day of sale.

ON THURSDAY, THE 30th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858,

And from day to day, until the sale shall be concluded. They will sell in front of the Court House in HUNTSVILLE, Alabama, about 150 LIKELY NEGRO SLAVES, consisting of Men, Women and Children, the greater part of which are unusually well trained plantation hands. The Slaves will be sold on a credit of 12 months, with interest from day of sale. Bond, with at least two sureties, will be required of purchasers.

THE JACKSON PLACE. This Plantation is in Jackson County, Alabama, about five miles north east from the Bellefonte Depot of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, and contains about 2230 acres, of which about 1000 are cleared and the balance well timbered. It is one of the best Cotton Plantations in Jackson County, and well adapted for a large stock farm. It has upon it a large and commodious two story brick dwelling, with a good basement, a brick kitchen, a gin house, cotton press, and such other out houses as are requisite. Mr. Preston Brown, who resides upon this place, will show its boundaries to persons wishing to purchase.

THE SMITH PLACE. is in Madison County, Alabama, about 13 miles north east of Huntsville, contains about 600 acres, of which about 400 acres are cleared, and the balance well timbered. It is a beautiful plantation, and one of the most productive cotton farms in the neighborhood. It has upon it a dwelling house, suitable out houses, a good orchard, and is convenient to lumber and grist mills.

THE AMONETT PLACE. is about 11 miles north west from the Smith Place, and about the same distance south east from the old town of Hazlegreen, contains about 720 acres, of which about 480 are cleared, the balance timbered. Has a good gin house, new cotton press, negro cabin, and other out houses, and an excellent apple orchard. It is intersected on the north east by the Barren Fork of Flint, and convenient to lumber and grist mills.

THE MARTIN PLACE. lies immediately west of, and adjoining the Amonett Place, and, in such form, that the two places would make one convenient plantation, contains about 500 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, and the balance in timber. Has upon it a dwelling house, comfortable out houses, and a good orchard, and is one of the most productive cotton farms in the neighborhood.

THE TEAGUE PLACE. is on the Meridian Road, 13 miles north of Huntsville, and one mile west of the Martin Place, contains about 780 acres, of which about 680 acres are cleared. Has upon it a brick dwelling house, gin house, a new cotton press, comfortable negro cabins, and other out houses. It was formerly known as the Morgan Smith place.

THE MULLINS PLACE. lies about 2 miles north west of Hazlegreen, and near Townsend's (formerly McDavid's) Mills, containing 640 acres, of which about 450 are cleared, the balance in timber. Has upon it negro cabins, stables and other out houses.

THE KING PLACE. lies immediately west of, and adjoining the Mullins Place, and the two could be conveniently cultivated as one plantation. It contains about 680 acres, of which about 480 acres are cleared, and the balance in timber, has upon it a dwelling house, negro cabins and other out houses. All of these Madison County Plantations are in the same neighborhood, and upon that beautiful and much admired plateau of land, between the Barren and Stone Forks of Flint river, known as the Hazlegreen country. The soil upon some of these lands, originally of the BEST QUALITY of uplands, has been somewhat injured by a too frequent succession of cotton crops, but, having a good clay foundation, can be restored, by a proper system of cultivation.

It is apprehended, that purchasers for all these places cannot be found in the neighborhood, and the attention of persons at a distance, wanting plantations, is invited to the Madison as well as the Jackson County places. Mr. Samuel C. Townsend, who resides near Hazlegreen, and the overseers having charge of the different places, will point out the boundaries to persons wishing to examine them.

ON SATURDAY, THE 18th OF DECEMBER, 1858.

They will sell in like manner, on the MARTIN PLACE, all the perishable property of said estate, belonging to the Smith, Amosett and Martin Plantations of said estate, consisting of the same kind of articles, that are advertised above for sale on the Teague Plantation. If not concluded on the 18th, the sale will be continued until the following Monday, and any articles advertised for sale on the 17th, which may not be sold on that day, will be sold, on the 18th or 20th, at the Martin Place.

ON THURSDAY, THE 23d DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858.

They will sell, on the JACKSON COUNTY PLACE, of said testator, in Jackson County, Ala., all the perishable property of said Estate, on said plantation (Slaves and Cotton excepted) consisting of six or eight hundred barrels of Corn, about 30 stacks of Fodder, several stacks of Oats, a valuable lot of Pork and Stock Hogs, 12 or 15 head of Mules and Horses, a Gin-Head, Corn-sheller, Work Oxen, Black Cows, Cattle, Wheat, Wagons, Plows, Hoes and other Plantation Implements. These sales will be made on a credit of six months, with interest from day of sale.

ON THURSDAY, THE 30th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858.

And from day to day, until the sale shall be concluded. They will sell in front of the Court House in HUNTSVILLE, Alabama, about 160 LIKELY NEGRO SLAVES consisting of Men, Women and Children, the greater part of which are unusually well trained plantation hands. The Slaves will be sold on a credit of 12 months, with interest from day of sale. Bond, with at least two sureties, will be required of purchasers.

THE JACKSON PLACE. This plantation is in Jackson County, Alabama, about five miles north-east from the Bellefonte Depot of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, and contains about 2000 acres, of which about 1000 are cleared and the balance well timbered. It is one of the best Cotton Plantations in Jackson County, and well adapted for a large stock farm. It has upon it a large and commodious two-story brick dwelling, with a good tenant's brick kitchen, a gin house, out-houses, and other out houses quite complete. Mr. Preston Brown, who resides upon the place, will show its location to persons wishing to purchase.

THE LITTLE PLACE. is in Madison County, Alabama, about 12 miles north-west of Huntsville, contains about 600 acres, of which about 400 acres are cleared, and the balance well timbered. It is a beautiful plantation, and one of the most productive cotton farms in the neighborhood. It has upon it a dwelling house, out-houses, a post-office, and is convenient to timber and grain mills.

THE AMOSSETT PLACE. is about 11 miles north-west from the Smith Place, and about the same distance south-east from the old town of Huntsville, contains about 120 acres, of which about 80 are cleared, the balance timbered. It has a good gin house, new cotton press, sugar-cane, and other out houses, and an excellent apple orchard. It is intersected on the north-west by the Bottom Fork of Flint, and convenient to timber and grain mills.

THE MARTIN PLACE lies immediately west of and adjoining the Amosett Place, and in such form that the two places would make one convenient plantation, contains about 500 acres, of which about 300 are cleared, and the balance well timbered.

THE TEAGUE PLACE. is on the Meridian Road, 13 miles north of Huntsville, and one mile west of the Martin Place, contains about 750 acres, of which about 600 acres are cleared. It has upon it a brick dwelling house, gin house, a new cotton press, comfortable negro cabins, and other out houses. It was formerly known as the Morgan Smith place.

THE MULLINS PLACE. lies about 12 miles north-west of Huntsville, and near Townsend's (formerly McDavid's) Mills, containing 600 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, the balance in timber. It has upon it negro cabins, stables and other out houses.

THE KING PLACE lies immediately west of, and adjoining the Mullins Place, and the two could be conveniently cultivated as one plantation. It measures about 600 acres, of which about 400 acres are cleared, and the balance in timber. It has upon it a dwelling house, negro cabins, and other out houses.

All of these Madison County Plantations are in the same neighborhood, and upon that beautiful and much advanced chain of land, between the Bottom and Top Forks of Flint river, known as the Madison country. The soil upon none of these lands, especially of the BEST QUALITY of uplands, has been successfully planted by a new improved extension of cotton crops, but having a good clay foundation, can be cultivated, by a proper system of cultivation.

It is apprehended that purchasers for all these places except the one in the neighborhood of the station of persons at a distance, wanting plantations, is invited to the Madison as well as the Jackson County places. Mr. Samuel C. Townsend, who resides near Huntsville, and the executors having charge of the different places, will point out the location to persons wishing to examine them.

These sales will be made on a credit of six months, with interest from day of sale.

ON THURSDAY, THE 30th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858,

And from day to day, until the sale shall be concluded. They will sell in front of the Court House in HUNTSVILLE, Alabama, about 150 LIKELY NEGRO SLAVES, consisting of Men, Women and Children, the greater part of which are unusually well trained plantation hands. The Slaves will be sold on a credit of 12 months, with interest from day of sale. Bond, with at least two sureties, will be required of purchasers.

THE JACKSON PLACE is in Jackson County, Alabama, about five miles north east from the Bellefonte Depot of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, and contains about 2500 acres, of which about 1000 or more are cleared and the balance well timbered. It is one of the best Cotton Plantations in Jackson County, and well adapted for a large stock farm. It has upon it a large and commodious two story brick dwelling, with a good hammock, a brick kitchen, a gin house, cotton press, and such other out houses as are requisite. Mr. Preston Haysgood resides upon this place, with such furniture as remains wanting to purchase.

THE SMITH PLACE is in Madison County, Alabama, about 12 miles north east of Huntsville, contains about 600 acres, of which about 400 acres are cleared, and the balance well timbered. It is a beautiful plantation, and one of the most productive cotton farms in the neighborhood. It has upon it a dwelling house, suitable out houses, a good orchard, and is convenient to timber and great mills.

THE AMCOTT PLACE is about 14 miles north east from the Smith Place, and about the same distance south east from the old town of Hadesgreen, contains about 750 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, the balance timbered. Has a good gin house, new cotton press, negro cabin, and other out houses, and an excellent water mill. It is situated on the north east by the River Ford of Flint, and convenient to timber and great mills.

THE MARTIN PLACE lies immediately west of, and adjoining the Amcott Place, and, in such form, that the two places would make one convenient plantation, contains about 500 acres, of which about 400 are cleared and the balance in timber. Has upon it a dwelling house, comfortable negro cabins, and other out houses, and a good orchard, and is one of the most profitable cotton farms in the neighborhood.

THE TEAGUE PLACE is on the Marshall Road, 13 miles north of Huntsville, and one mile west of the Martin Place, contains about 750 acres, of which about 600 acres are cleared. Has upon it a brick dwelling house, gin house, new cotton press, comfortable negro cabins, and other out houses. It was formerly known as the Morgan South place.

THE MULLINS PLACE lies about 2 miles north west of Hadesgreen, and near Townsend's (formerly McDavid's) Mills, containing 600 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, the balance in timber. Has upon it negro cabins, stable and other out houses.

THE KING PLACE lies immediately west of, and adjoining the Mullins Place, and the two could be conveniently cultivated as one plantation. It contains about 800 acres, of which about 500 acres are cleared, and the balance in timber, has upon it a dwelling house, negro cabins, and other out houses.

All of these Madison County Plantations are in the same neighborhood, and upon that beautiful and much admired plateau of land, between the Harpers and Iron Falls, of Flint creek, known as the Hadesgreen country. The soil upon some of these lands, originally of the BEST QUALITY of uplands, has been somewhat injured by a long period of neglect of cultivation, but, by a good crop rotation, can be restored, by a proper system of cultivation.

It is apprehended, that purchasers for all these places, might be found in the neighborhood, and the attention of persons, at a distance, wanting plantations, is invited to the Madison, as well as the Jackson County places. Mr. Samuel C. Townsend, who resides near Hadesgreen, and the executors having charge of the different places, will point out the boundaries to persons wishing to examine them.

EXECUTORS' SALE
OF
SEVEN PLANTATIONS,
150 SLAVES
And other Valuable Property.

The undersigned, as Executors, of the Will of SAMUEL TOWNSEND, deceased, late of Madison County, Alabama, will offer for Sale to the highest bidder, at Public Auction, in Front of the COURT HOUSE,

IN HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA,

On WEDNESDAY, the 15th of December, 1858, Seven Plantations, hereinafter described, belonging to the estate of said deceased, upon a credit of 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years, in equal annual instalments, each annual instalment to bear interest, payable annually from day of sale, to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser, with, at least, two acres.

ON FRIDAY, THE 17th OF DECEMBER, 1858,

They will sell, at Public Auction, on the TEAGUE PLACE, 13 miles north of Huntsville, a large quantity of valuable property, belonging to the estate of said deceased, consisting of Corn, Fodder, Oats, Wheat, Eye, Mules, Horses, Park Hoes, Stock Hoes, Oars, Muck Cows and other Cattle, a Gin-Head, Wagons, Hoes, Axes, and other plantation tools, being the valuable property of said estate belonging to the Teague, King and Mullins plantations.

ON SATURDAY, THE 18th OF DECEMBER, 1858,

They will sell in like manner on the MARTIN PLACE, all the perishable property of said estate, belonging to the Smith, Amnett and Martin Plantations of said estate, consisting of the same kind of articles, that are advertised above, for sale at the Teague Plantation. If not concluded on the 18th, the sale will be continued until the following Monday, and any articles advertised for sale on the 17th, which may not be sold on that day, will be sold, on the 18th or 20th, at the Martin Place.

ON THURSDAY, THE 23d DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858,

They will sell, on the JACKSON COUNTY PLACE, of said testator, in Jackson County, Ala., all the perishable Property of said Estate, on said plantation (Shore and Cotton cropped), consisting of six or eight hundred barrels of Corn, about 30 stacks of Fodder, several stacks of Oats, a valuable lot of Park and Stock Hoes, 12 or 15 head of Mules and Horses, a Gin-Head, Corn-sheller, Work Oars, Muck Cows, Cattle, Wheat, Wagons, Hoes, Axes and other Plantation Implements. These sales will be made on a credit of six months, with interest from day of sale.

ON THURSDAY, THE 30th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1858,

And from day to day, until the sale shall be concluded. They will sell in front of the Court House in HUNTSVILLE, Alabama, about 150 LIKELY NEGRO SLAVES, consisting of Men, Women and Children, the greater part of which are unusually well trained plantation hands. The Slaves will be sold on a credit of 12 months, with interest from day of sale. Bond, with at least two sureties, will be required of purchasers.

THE JACKSON PLACE. This Plantation is in Jackson County, Alabama, about five miles north-east from the Bellefonte Depot of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, and contains about 2500 acres, of which about 1000 or more are cleared and the balance well timbered. It is one of the best Cotton Plantations in Jackson County, and well adapted for a large stock farm. It has upon it a large and commodious two-story brick dwelling, with a good team-trail, a brick kitchen, a gin house, cotton press and work shop and houses for negroes. Mr. Preston Brown, who resides upon this place, will show its location to persons wishing to purchase.

THE SMITH PLACE. Is in Madison County, Alabama, about 13 miles north-east of Huntsville, contains about 600 acres, of which about 400 acres are cleared, and the balance well timbered. It is a fertile plantation, and one of the most productive cotton farms in the neighborhood. It has upon it a dwelling house, suitable out houses, a good orchard, and is convenient to timber and grain mills.

THE AMOSETT PLACE. Is about 13 miles north-west from the Teague Place, and at about the same distance north-east from the old town of Harborspen, contains about 720 acres, of which about 480 are cleared, the balance timbered. Has a good gin house, new cotton press, sugar cabin, and other out houses, and an excellent apple orchard. It is situated in the north-east by the Harrow Fork of Flint, and convenient to timber and grain mills.

THE MARTIN PLACE. Is immediately west of and adjoining the Amosett Place, and, in such form, that the two places would make one convenient plantation, contains about 560 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, and the balance in timber. Has upon it a dwelling house, considerable out houses, and a good orchard, and is one of the most fertile cotton farms in the neighborhood.

THE TEAGUE PLACE. Is on the Meridian Road 13 miles north of Huntsville, and one mile west of the Martin Place, contains about 280 acres, of which about 160 acres are cleared. Has upon it a brick dwelling house, gin house, a new cotton press, considerable sugar cabin, and other out houses. It was formerly known as the Morgan tract.

THE MULLINS PLACE. Is about 2 miles north-west of Harborspen, and near Townsend's (formerly McDavid's) Mill, containing 600 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, the balance in timber. Has upon it negro cabins, stables and other out houses.

THE KING PLACE. Is immediately east of, and adjoining the Mullins Place, and the two would be advantageously cultivated as one plantation. It contains about 600 acres, of which about 400 are cleared, and the balance in timber, has upon it a dwelling house, negro cabins, and other out houses.

All of these Madison County Plantations are in the same neighborhood, and upon that beautiful and much advanced plateau of land, between the Harrow and Red Forks of Flint River, known as the Harborspen country. The soil upon some of these lands, especially of the BEST QUALITY of uplands, has been somewhat improved by a frequent succession of cotton crops, and, having a good clay foundation, can be returned, by a proper system of cultivation.

It is apprehended, that purchasers for all these tracts must be found in the neighborhood, and the attention of persons at a distance, wishing plantations, is invited to the Madison as well as the Jackson County places. Mr. Samuel C. Townsend, who resides near Harborspen, and the executors having charge of the different places, will point out the location to persons wishing to examine them.
