In the Chancery Court of the 10th District of Jackson Alabama

Septimus I Cabaniss executor of the will of Samuel Townsend deceased states on oath, that as executor as aforesaid was the complainant in the above entitled cause - That in Novr 1860 he did sell to said James A.
 Boyd the land which was owned by said Townsend who is now dead, and the same was entered in the said bill of Complaint to James A.
 Boyd then a citizen of Alabama at public outcry for thirteen thousand nine hundred dollars payable in 1. 2. 3. 4. & 5 equal annual installments from 1860 to 1865 with interest from date of sale and payable annually plus hundred per centum penalty upon non payment until bond to come, but would to make title upon payment of purchase money and interest that no part of the principal purchase price or interest had been paid - that at the time of said sale namely that his said testator at his death had on hand in 1856 had an undivided title to said land, and the same was never disputed or questioned by any one so far as the terms or value - that at the time of said sale there was upon said land a valuable and birds dwelling - a brick kitchen & other outbuildings usual on large plantations - that there <sup>is</sup> about about or nine hundred acres of tillable land in all on said plantation much of which was of good quality - He further states that since the commencement of the said suit & about the beginning of the year 1867 or 1868 Dr Hudson called at affiant's office in Huntsville & informed affiant that he was leasing on said plantation & inquired of affiant would he rent said plantation to him for one or more years & that he would be sure to pay the rent in part of it in repairs upon the plantation - That affiant replied that he had no will was not then disposed to rent it but was had instituted proceedings to have it sold - but said to him John Robinson one of the trustees of said trust for the purchase money together with the admission of him of his decision said he had some authority by said trust to have charge of said plantation & control it until a sale thereof could be effected - That affiant further states that in the last part of December 1868 Dr Hudson called upon affiant in Huntsville & said that he desired to converse with him about said plantation & wished to know if Jasper Jones was authorized to rent out said plantation to which I replied affirmatively - said Hudson presented state that after hearing that said Jones was offering to rent out the plantation, he sent a friend to see said Jones if he would allow him or other <sup>renting</sup> tenants credit for improvements or repairs to be put on the plantation - that Jones said he would not ~~allow~~ allow any allowance for such repairs or improvements - that Jones afterwards sent the plantation to one Campbell at two hundred dollars which said Hudson reported as being greatly more than it was worth - the tenant should be allowed credit for repairs & improvements to be put on the place & that he therefore believed that there was a private agreement between Jones and Campbell that said Campbell should be allowed for improvements or repairs - that he believed that he ~~was~~ Jones had not acted fairly with him in refusing to allow him as let him ~~know~~ know he would for improvements & then to make such an arrangement with Campbell & that he had been weary of holding on to the possession until he was forced out - Applicant asked him if he set up any claim to the property <sup>as the possession</sup> of it - he replied that he did not - to which he replied that he did not - but claimed that he had as much right to rent it as Mr Campbell had - & that he had a right to complain of Mr Jones not giving him a fair chance - Applicant asked if he would give $200. for rent - he replied that he would if allowed for improvements or repairs needed on the place - but that not without such premises Affiant undertook to explain to the son that Jones was accountable only to the parties interested in the lands, for his conduct as Receiver & not to Hudson, and that I would hold Jones accountable if he had not done his duty - That this suggests that his reputation might suffer in the estimation of good men if he should insert upon relation, possession of property to which he did not pretend to have a claim - He finally said that all he desired was to ascertain if Jones certainly had the right to rent the property - I informed him that if necessary as to that he could satisfy himself by calling at the Register's office & examining the records - Said Hudson in his Commission admitted that he was using the kitchen as a stable but explained by saying that it had been done by others before he was on the place -
