pen. Don't think I am overdoing over-me & J. G. He is better off than I am. for he is earning his board & 15¢ per month, and I am earning nothing.
He says he gets so lonesome he does not know himself & but like his boarding house &c. A man never dies immediately from either conplaint that I ever heard of. He is much more of a child than I thought of he was at home. I write him and keep him cheered up, as well as I can. I must go to call upon Mrs. Simon & family, & also Mrs. Bibb, also Mrs. Bibb.
We are having rain to day, a proper beginning for the month of March. I hope to accomplish a great deal this month in the way of self improvement. I am taking no medicine now except a purgative at times, and go to bed about 9 & rise regularly at 7 although I wake up before day, sometimes and go to sleep again.
When I do come back home you and Mr. will have entirely a different man to look at. I will be as regular in my habits that and so little trouble that you will think I am come home else, at least I think that will be the case as soon as my heels get well & I am going to gang-aw, in some direction and get into actual life, am tired of gadding about. I feel that my eyes are coming to me fit by fit of their own accord. Normality is what I am looking forward to, no matter, at what belie I reach it and when I attain it. I am going to endeavor to eliminate all objectionable thoughts and feelings, mouth, the mind of it, thoughts & the heart, at its feelings, like a bird does, and grow some new plumage and hence forth keep it clean if that be possible. ✨ I have been thinking a great deal about Ma recently. I hope she is managing to get along with some degree of comfort.
