Mr S.D. Cabaniss Esq
Dear Sir if you are agoing
to rent out the Blake more place next year I would like to have that same part I used to cultivate and would like to sow some of it in wheate if it would suit I wish to go at as early as possible so as to make arrangements
and if you want any repairs done on it I will do them out of the rent
let me no what you are agoing to do by Mr Elledge
and if you come up soon
I will be down in a week or so

Elledge - That I refused to advertise for sale - would not
now commit myself
to any one - might
rent at public out
cry - would probably advertise for sale
to be in October -
would not rent
without going into details a change
did not expect to contract for repairs must be expected though
this year to suffer

organisation where the members were bound by obligations so sacred & terrible indeed that they invariably were proud officers —

You never hear of Masonic — Odd Fellows, or the Emancipators of other such societies proving defaulters. Courts can impose bonds as sacred, with penalties attached which Societies cannot.

You asked about Lucy & Tina — Lucy's husband is Edward Mayberry, a thoroughgoing industrious young man of Monroe County, Ark. — his post office is Wellborn in that County. Billy Long near there, and has done remarkably well, his office is Sun can. Ike is in Phillips Co. he has recently married, a very nice girl — a Miss Lightfoot — He and John Tate are farming together their office I presume you know is Marvell. Our State is a good deal exercised just now over the election to come off the 7th of August whether or not to accept or reject the ex parte proposition of paying the State credits with 5% cuts in the latter. I feel confident it will be rejected — this County will vote to do so, I know. I shall always be glad to hear from you and whenever you care write to me —

Give my kindest regards to your Brother Charles, in fact to all the relatives, I wish I had time and means to come up and see all of you.

Yours most truly

PROSPECTUS.

1885-86.

NEW YORK, June, 1885.

Dear Sir:

In presenting to you our prospectus for 1885-6, we do not consider it necessary to enlarge on the usefulness and benefits to be derived from a live, energetic Mercantile and Collection Agency, they having long since become an absolute necessity for the protection of commercial and financial interests of the country.

We are engaged in compiling our "Legal Directory" for 1885-6, and submit to you a brief outline of our system, which we trust will meet your approval.

1st. Our attorneys are selected with reference to their high standing in their profession, and not, like many other agencies, with reference to their qualifications for reporting simply the standing of merchants. For this issue, we have corresponded with at least two responsible firms or individuals in each city and town throughout the country in regard to the standing of reliable attorneys at their place; consequently, our Directory will contain none but the best and most reliable.

2d. This agency is formed for the mutual benefit of business men and attorneys. The value of it, to a business firm having collections or other business necessitating the services of a responsible attorney, is self-evident; the lucrative value of it to an attorney depends on the amount of business controlled; this depends entirely on the number and quality of attorneys.

3d. We accept no attorneys but such as are known to us to be well qualified to sustain the reputation our agency has already gained with business men throughout the United States.

4th. We issue certificates of membership to thousands of manufacturers, merchants and other business firms, and furnish each of them with a copy of our Directory; also, one copy to each of their TRAVELING salesmen, thus giving them the names of responsible attorneys to attend to collections and other business they may have throughout the country.

5th. We do not ask our correspondents to furnish "reports" on business men FREE. We instruct each of our mercantile subscribers to send to the attorney ONE DOLLAR, and in case the attorney, for some reason, refuses to make reports, he will return money to sender. From a long experience in this business, we have found this is appreciated by the best class of attorneys. Merchants, as a rule, prefer to pay the attorney for each report, as they then feel that it is more reliable than one FURNISHED GRATUITOUSLY.

6th. Attorneys who give prompt notice to this agency of the FAILURE, OR PROSPECTIVE FAILURE, of any MERCHANT, accompanied by a list of the creditors, will generally be rewarded by getting the claims for collection. Reports of failures without a list of creditors are useless to us.

Unpaid telegrams must not be sent in any case, unless instructed by us.

7th. We secure for the attorneys of this agency the collections of the thousands of manufacturers and wholesalers who subscribe to the agency.

8th. Our best recommendations in issuing membership to the business community are our responsible lists of attorneys.

RATES OF COLLECTION.

FIRST CLASS.—On collections made on presentation, notice or demand, 5 per cent. on first $500, and 2½ per cent. on balance.

SECOND CLASS.—Collections made by repeated demands, or ordinary process of law where no defense is made, 10 per cent. on first $300; 5 per cent. on excess to $2,000.

THIRD CLASS.—On contested claims, the ordinary attorney fee, or special rate to be agreed upon.

No commission will be charged less than $3.00 on any sum collected, or, in case of suit, $5.00.

NO CHARGE UNLESS COLLECTION IS MADE.

All collections subject to above rates, except in localities where the rates are fixed by Bar Associations, in which case they are governed by it.

Our Directory is published in regular law library size and style, and will contain the most complete list of RELIABLE attorneys ever published, a digest of the revised collection laws relative to collections, etc., in each of the States, Territories and Canada.

Our Directory is published twice a year—March and September—and a revised copy promptly delivered to each member during his or their membership, without extra charge.

If, after a careful examination of our manner of doing business, you think you can represent us, we invite you to fill out inclosed contract and forward to us, and have your name appear in our September issue.

Your early reply will oblige,

Yours truly,

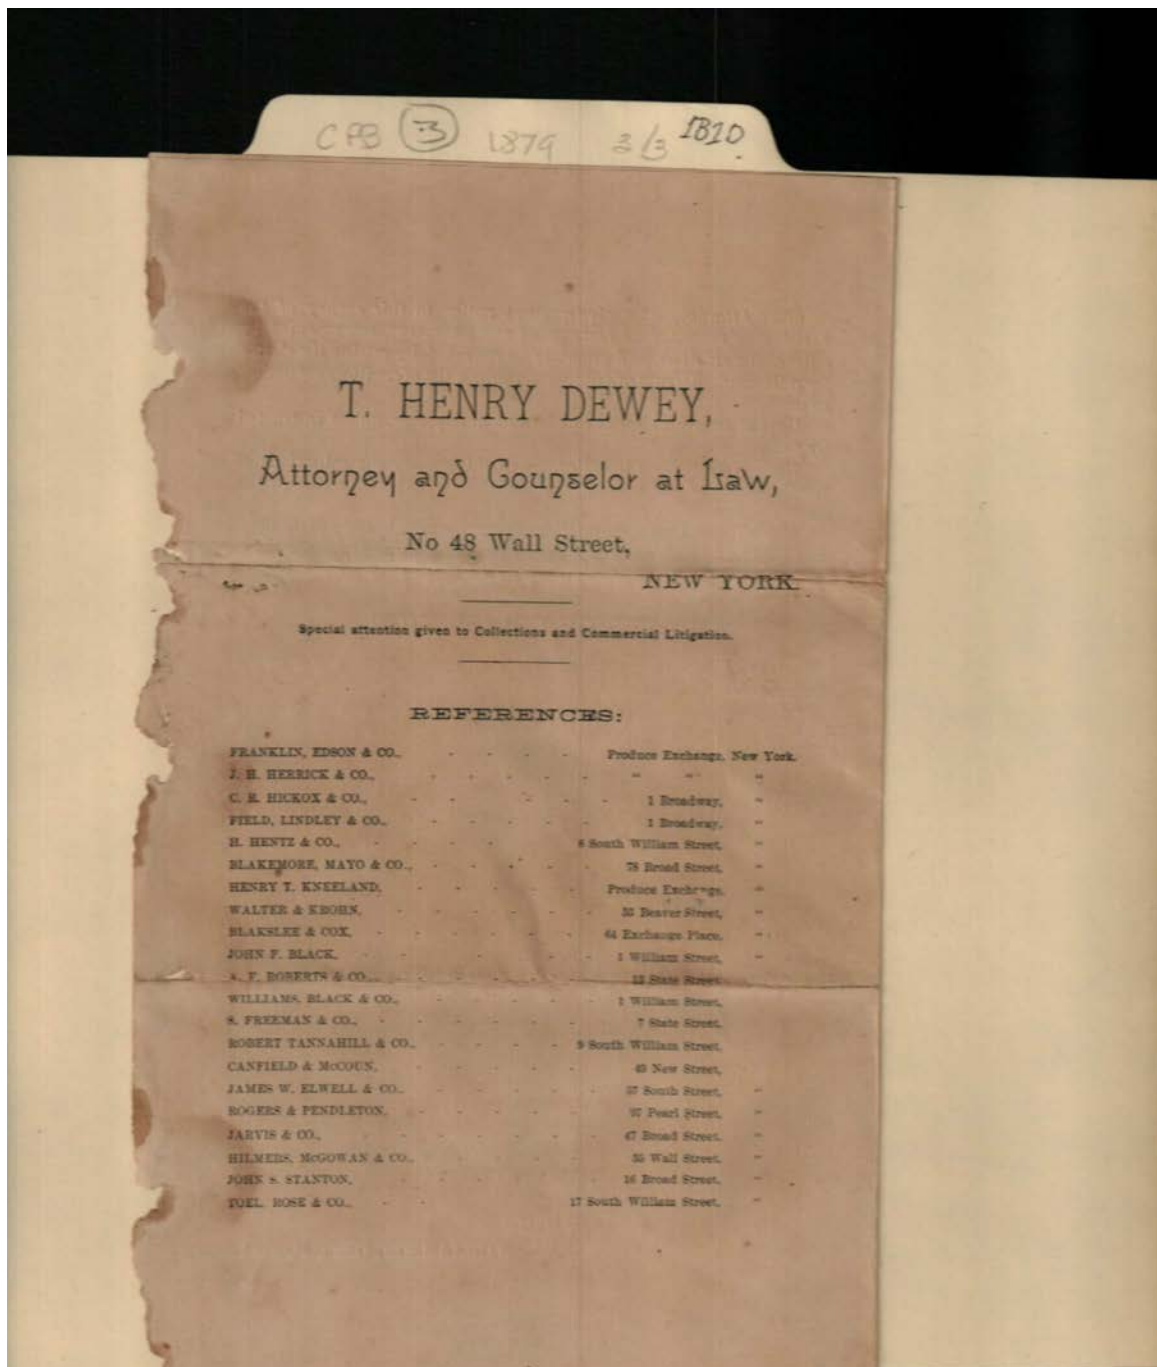

E. A. WILLIAMSON, Gen'l. Manager.
