Mr Cabaniss

Dear Sir

I thought I mention in my first letter, that as I wished to borrow; it was very careless in me not to do so. I would like to borrow $250 as I wish to get a fertilizer for my cotton.

Now buying what is the easiest for my place this year if I can't pay cash, I can get with $120.00 what will cost $200.00 on time; thus saving $80.

I have a formula for a fertilizer for cotton & corn very much like the one you sent me. The Farmer formula, instead of the meal, 25 bushels of cotton seed is used - Will you ask Mr Petty how much meal there is in 25 bushels of seed - I can get the kainits, and acid phosphate already lbs of the mixture is used in a ton - 25 bushels of seed 350 lbs, and 25 bushels of stable manure, or rich earth from farm corners & I think my crop, and the rent of my land will be about $900.

if neither you nor Jordan have done any thing which can estop you in law or equity from asserting your lien against the purchaser. As it The Shiffs deed shows that more than six months elapsed between the return of the Execution under which the levy was made, and the issuance of that under which the sale was made - and the record here shows that no execution from the Court was in the hands of the Sheriff between of Marshall between the 9th of April 1874, and the date of your deed of Trust - I think therefore that the last circumstance makes you lien Superior, if as I under-be understood as saying that Henry's judgment has any lien upon the land - If an execution had been issued against the land & sold under it in July or July 1876, the purchaser would have gotten a good title -

I think that a sale under the deed would force Nickles to redeem from the purchaser, if the Sup Ct decided as I understand it -

But all doubt concerning the title which the purchaser would get can be dispelled by a bill in Chancery which would also secure to you the right of redemption if it should be necessary for you to redeem, and put the pur-

 Let me know whether Henry Miller in possession - If you can get access to the advertisement of Sale see whether the lands in Sec 21 are advertised as buy in Sec 26 - They are so advertised in the levy returned to in the deed & on file here - I send you a plat which shows that there are 3 or 4 40 acre tracts mentioned in the deed of Trust & very why are not in the Sheriff's deed and I incline to think that the sale of the lands in Sec 21 was void -

 I advise that you ask Henry to have advisable to spring term the usual hour
