City Taxes, and.

I owe some taxes in Jackson county as far as I know for the year 1875. I say also that you send as much as forty or forty dollar to Jasper J. Jones on horse shoe and ask him to pay the taxes for me on Monday next on the lower parcel as the Herdner Plantation that I bought at Execution Sale - I will write to him about - He has some money of mine in his hands. I wish to pay the grub back portion. I may possibly be at home on Monday, and I think now I will, but I am not certain - I must give you this trouble - Sep. does not know how to attend to such matters -

Yours Truly
S. D. Cabaniss

If May, him has seen out get Sep from Seelye Better send June $40 in State money - If he should chance to be at Huntsville, Warwecher please make Sep hunt him up & get him to help you about Jackson matter
