Huntsville Ala Oct 8 1875

Mrs Alma D Robertson
Care of Genl J. P. Drake

Dear Madam

Mr Robertson called on me this morning and expressed his willingness to concur in the suggestions made to him on yesterday by Mr Laughinghouse in relation to an adjournment. After my interview with Mr L. if you would on to morrow accord him a private interview of not exceeding one half hour I would answer him two questions of a reasonable nature the answers to which whatever they may be are not to affect the consummation of the proposition - The proposition as stated is this - That

1. That the allegations of your bill of Complaint be so amended as heretofore understood between Capt Day & myself etc was to be done in case of compromise

2. That he shall remain upon the plantation with ~~control thereof~~ undisturbed, until the close of the present year when he will deliver full possession of the premises to you ^{or your agent} & sooner if he can find it convenient to do so - but he is not to be considered under obligation to do so before that time.
3. That he shall have one half of the Crop grown on the plantation the present year and the wagon & mules as his absolute property, and also the Crop grown ~~the~~ ^{the} next year by him upon land not seen to a, supplied by him to be ~~the~~ ^{the} same.
4. That he ~~recognizes~~ ^{acknowledges} & promises to account for & pay to her as ~~agent~~ ^{agent} of her separate estate one hundred dollars borrowed of her prior to these matters & but is to be discharged from any accountability or liability for other moneys of ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{the} separate estate & is not to charge her estate for any service rendered ~~to~~ ^{to} moneys expended -

5 That Contract made by him with the following in tenants on the plantation shall be conform to him from the next year to wit K. Connally, John Baker, George Baldwin (Colona), and Will Woods ~~these tenants being~~ Matt McClung and Sam Acklen, and Moses Mitchell - the terms being that the tenants shall ~~have~~ pay one fourth of the Cotton and one third of Corn which they may agree to Cultivate, as rent, it to be optional with Mr. R. to require them to Cultivate more Cotton than they have done this year, if she wishes, except as to K. Connally - who is usually to have a himself to Cultivate any more Cotton than he did this year but unless he can be spoken of taking in four acres more -
 That she will also confirm contracts made by him with George Baldwin Matt McClung and Sam Acklen in relation to clearing deadwood timber in a thicket - ~~on the plantation~~ - they to have use of ~~the same~~ ^{for as cleared} one year for clearing ~~land to grow fence~~ as to End of Mrs R bought the place of McClung

7. That the extra rent cotton shall be carried to the gin of Levi Hensel Esq who shall weigh & divide it equally & hold ~~it subject to one half subject to the~~ order of Mrs R. and the other subject to the order of Mr R.

8. The Exemption Bill is to be amended so without prejudice to the exemption except in this that the exemption is to regard as modified in so far as it shall conflict with ^{carrying out the} execution of this agreement, it being understood that Mr R shall remain in understood possession of the plantation & by this year & superintend the gathering of the crops -

9. Mr R will on the amendment of the bill put in such an answer as was agreed upon by Mr Day & Mr Cabaniss

Mr Robertson will be in Huntsville to morrow - and he informs me that he has learned that you have a bench appointment here - I have read to him the foregoing and he assents to it - Indeed it was written in his presence - I wished to mention one ^{thing} which he said he thought was proper - that the Court Costs of the Seat shall be paid out of your Estate - and if you assent to the appointment in other respects, I presume you will not let that inter-fer - He does not of course expect you to be charged with his atty fee - I hope it will convenient & agreeable to you to come to town to-morrow morning.

It is agreed between the parties in the above subscribed cause that the injunction heretofore granted in this cause shall be regarded and treated as being so far modified as to allow thence the defendant to continue in possession of the plantation mentioned in Complaint until the close of the present year (1875) and September the collection of the rents accruing from the tenants (who cultivate the same) for this year; the defendant undertaking to have one half of the corn rents housed in the Co. of W. P. McClung's corn sheds where Complainant bought the place, to remain ^{to be used} subject to the order of Complainant for the use and benefit, and to deliver all of the rent cotton into the gin house of Levi Hinds Esq to be ginned and baled and weighed by the said Hinds and equally divided by the said Hinds, one half thereof to be paid

Mr Leabamph

I m^d your letter 2^d at hand and I have to day had the Commission issued for the deposition of Col Brady & mailed to Cabaniss Ward.

The claim I am prosecuting in Adams was a note or bill of J. P. Bain and I think endorsed by Hodges. Bain Bankrupt & left Hodges the only one to get pay from. & the May case I am claiming for Miss Brady Wilson. He I think McFauling was one of the principals or endorsers. I am not certain which, but the Judge should at May for Brady Wilson. He my name not being known I sent the Execution to Col Brady.
