that he
that he should have told me about being taken there or four depositions taken there, and that she should have said something about it - and that I would not let me the truth about whether she knew or not - she said she knew nothing more than Bingham had told her - that he had taken two or three depositions from me - I told her that Bingham had told her - she said that Bingham had told her one - part of the conversation I did not understand - Capt Bingham wanted to get me to enter my name in the place of Bingham - I about there - I said that I was not mistaken in what he said - I told her I would tell her the following Wednesday I went to see Mr Thacker - who he was and who he was not long afterwards he went to see them - I told them I intended to see them - one or more of them at least - I was until Mr Jeffries was contacted to do so - but I was to come home by then He replied that I must not before he got home & that he not get back before then day - of there - He got home on the 17th day - I saw the date of at any time between the conversation with Bingham Term of the Circuit Court 1855. He got there a few days before the day set for the trial of the fact - which was on Tuesday. He was of the Court - He left before the trial on the evening before the trial. He attended the trial and seemed to be a little in the way of it - and was conversing with William Jeffries. Mrs. Routt was the prop of the trial - She had been on Tuesday night - Capt. Bingham

Being called upon by Mr Tate to state what my testimony was upon his trial at Mountzuck about the first of January last. I will detail the occurrences about which I was examined and as nearly as I can recollect what took place upon the trial -

I first came in contact with Capt Daniel Bingham, in the month of October 1854 and then living with Mrs Elizabeth E Routt as manager her plantation for her - He came here on Sunday morning before the arrival of Edmund Townsends sale and remained until Monday morning - He was traveling in a vehicle usually called a "chaise" without any top, and had with him a driver and a show, which he afterwards called Daniel Bingham - It was something like 10 or 11 o'clock when Mr Tate was shot, and I did not see him on the 29th April 1854 - I was informed that he had staid there one night before but I did not see him -

He came back to Mrs Routt in June - It was on the evening after her slave Jacob was arrested or on the day following - He remained there some days - Next visit - Between the time of the August Court he paid one or more visits - Between the August Term 1854 and January Term 1855 he was frequently at Mrs Routts and dont think more than a month intervened between any of his visits - He usually spent from one to three hours with her on each visit - the greater part of the time was spent in her company - He came to Mrs Routts during the February
