ews of it - If my servants have confessions to others, it must be capable of proof - It is an alibi myself to my family and to the community in which I live that there will be some investigation of the truth - and since Bingham has made the Public to you, it is certain to you that you should disclose proper persons the communications made to you which are susceptible of investigation & of corroboration or contradiction - I do not wish to add that whilst I do not know what either of you has given to the communications made
- yet it is so that many persons in the community are disposed to in nearly all communities there are persons who delight in giving information to reports however prejudicial of other persons and in destroying the reputations of others - and therefore unwilling that this matter be kept without an investigation
