M them. Nannie Mae is looking fine. I am working in a milk shop in Tampa + making eight dollars a week. Nannie Mae is certainly proud of him. Jack, you ought to be glad you are not here now. as these are burglars in town, they go in some one's house, almost every night. & they havnt been able to catch them. I had Cliff putting bolts + hooks on all the doors 2o night. I would die of fright if I would make up in the night + hear a burglar in the room.

I see Lip every once in a while. passed your house the other night going out to Martha's, + saw a light up stairs, guess Lip was going to bed. + that was real early. surely miss you Jack, even if I didnt see you often. I miss you, just knowing you are condition and don't keep anything from me.

On the other hand if her trouble is just temporary and not serious, don't get excited over it and start worrying. You are subject to worrying about any little thing that happens to her. Make Ann think she is alright and she will improve.
Well, won't say anymore as you know best.

Things were pretty lively down here yesterday as we had quite a blow. Nothing serious happened in Polk Co. except a lot of trees blew down and we lost considerable fruit. Barbed wire was covered with moss and it was a mess.
The East Coast was hit mighty bad. The storm acted like the one we had about three years ago. I had just had the yard cut and cleaned up the day before and after the storm
it was full of moss and limbs and trash.
It whipped some of the shrubs mighty bad and was necessary to cut them back. Haven't been to the yet but expect we lost some fruit.
Had a letter from Mamie which I am enclosing.
Wants money as usual. Wrote her tonight.

This letter of hers is real amusing to me. Gentile has not returned from Washington, D.C. yet.

Was down to see "Ma" last night and she is in pretty good shape. Seems that she is worrying more than the De Peas. Mose Weaver said to me this morning, "that he had never seen any one "come out" and get young like Mrs Driscoll. Quite a number of people have noticed it. She asks about the baby and wants to hear from you often.

I paid Clark his bill and also Russell Music Co. Is this all?

Have been working pretty hard on the road and haven't had much of a chance to visit. Everybody seems to be getting along alright now. The burglar broke loose again the other night and had the town excited. It is talked around that our burglar is Paul Barnett. It may be so. The Police Dept. has been criticized very severely by most everyone and there may be a shake up.

 They sure need one.

Well, Darling I have lots of Armour
 mail to write - had better close.
 Write me often if it is only a line so I will know how you both are getting along. It's pretty lonesome here at night without a letter from you.

Words of love to you both
 Sterling

Slim says to hurry home, he wants the baby.

Have been working pretty hard on the road
 and haven't had much of a chance to write tonight.
 I'm glad to hear you're getting along all right.
 I'll be home again the other night and will see how you both are getting along.
