C. E. Cabaniss 1870
To Elizabeth Shepherd
From Charles E. Cabaniss 6 back yard & garden. I measured a leaf, or blade, of the largest, & found it to be about $1\frac{1}{4}$ yds in length, 6 inches broad, at the widest place, & shaped like a two-edged sword of Mr Lucet. There is another kind of Century-plant here, with yellow borders upon the blades. There is one large one, & several small ones a few inches high.

If you wish any slips or any thing of the kind (rose &c) please direct them. I think that I can obtain them if they have them.

I wish Fannie was here to enjoy the roses, magnolias, Calacanthus &c.

Sue scalded her hand on Monday, & is quite sick with sick headache. She works too hard entirely; like Ma, she is wearing herself out at menial labor. The girls like you and Lucy, have too much hard work too. I wish they would work more leisely, but they will learn that by the time they have labored as long at it, as you & Ma & Grandma. I hope they will not have it to do, for there are Martyrs enough in our family already.

Tell Grandma that fig-trees abound here, but I understand that the first crop has fallen off.

May 12. I had hoped to write you a longer letter,
