Misc. Primary 109 (22)

There should not have been distributed the value of this Est, without recognizing the foregoing principle of law — let nothing be done any further in that direction, Masterless, must be under your control, of course he can do nothing you consider unsafe —

As soon as possible, a final settlement & distribution should be made — and if the parties are at all disposed to make my wife interested in the matter, they must meet all the points which would lessen their interests —

The loss of a part of value of advts.
made in slavery prior to emancipating lessens the value of Est to that extent for on distribution advts are considered as a part of Est — and inequality in advts of persons, must be corrected in distribution of persons — & Slavery compensation all whom they should have been distributed For the act of the State Convention, de, took the property

During the Est together in the 1840s, the value of the Est was lessened by the loss of the value of the Est.

P.S. I understand Masterson has obtained leave to sell R R D Stock & Bonds, I think this should be enjoined - I wish to do something in a case like this, relieving the younger heirs from the effect of the losses occasioned by the War, ^{so far as equities are concerned} on the death of Mr. Watkins & my own property - & of course to be considered & estimated in equality advancement of the agreement between the parties absolutely requires that the estate should be made equal in distributing the slaves; this you will observe would make a great difference in Mrs. Foster's & Mrs.
 Whiting's interest.

In distributing an Est. the Court is controlled by the inventory, & cannot avoid any item of property filed in Court, I cannot be in error in this matter, whatever was property on the death of Mr. W. & so returns to Court, is property now so far as the distribution of the Est. - & must be considered in equality. Whiting

What Samuel Eason told you is about what I proposed before me, so tell Joe to come to go on and not regard Post Person, tho I want Post to have as much as he can cultivate himself nearer to where he lives (if he has built on the place) than when Eason was ploughing - for C. can settle the whole matter. I really began to fear it will be impossible for me to get to Chatham, N. yesterday Whetstone and Brook of Selma and Ed. Smith & Rankin Chapman purchased a large tract of land old man - I will tell you about it when we meet - in the mean time I will say that as I have to see Rankin out it will keep me, about here for some days. I write in haste again and do think I have said half of what I desire but will write again soon.
My wife unfortunately showed to others a letter to me from Wm. Straight. I have written to her she did very wrong, but did it without reflection. I regret it exceedingly, and if I had time to tell you as I think
