the 10
Kosciusko May

Dear Uncle

I wish to make a few remarks to you concerning my mother's affairs I have always insisted that ~~we~~ could take his mother's property in to his hands when he become of age and he is now in his 21 years if he is smart and intelligent as I have heard he has as much right as any one it is my opinion and that of many others that the property has been kept to a great disadvantage from those that have as well as stood in need of it if mother could have the management of it herself then her children might not be grumble but let her do as she pleases with it now uncle do you not think that I ought to have an equal part with the rest of the children as I have known it to be appropriate to those who if you do not answer this or give me all the information you can I intend to get a good lawyer to attend to it for me I see not why her children could not take care of her ~~as~~ that belongs to her I see no brothers or sisters cheating one another out of their property as I have been about so long

I when they think I have now right to it from way I have been treated not one of them has ever bin to see me an seldom ever right I have never had any thing that I could call my own an Mr Davis has spent all that he full in neither will he try to make any thing I wish you not to write any thing about him as he is very cross when he is drinking an is fond of me my relation for what motive I can not tell I want something to commence op as I have 2 sons one in his 12 year an the other 11 they are silly an want to work an make something I must try to get some for them to commence an I have wrote to you the 1st Janary but receive no answer I wish you to ^{write} immediately as uncle Charles seem to pay no attention to what I write no matter how much distress I might in I do not think he is acting in a mother place as my health is bad an my troubles great I have wrote more than I ought to have done my best love to you an families.
