Miss Betty Cabaniss

Dear Sister,

I received a paper a few days ago from Jackson & suppose the kind favor was sent by you or some of your family. I am very sorry to see by the enclosed obituary that you had been called to mourn the loss of a beloved relative & although my heart is full of anguish for the death of my dear niece, I feel the deepest sympathy for your family in their bereavement. You have the great comfort of knowing that your uncle had the love and respect of those who knew him & that his life had been nobly & nobly spent & that he was ready and willing to shed for the glory of the great God.

Dear Sister, I am sure all your family were so kind and in your care of my dear noble plan, that I am sure though you were old and dear friends & that I can take the liberty of a friend by offering you my sympathy. Kate Beatty showed me several letters from your friends in Jackson and among them one from yourself. I have and often thought I would write and express up-to you my deep and true affection. I have all kind of kinder persons. Your letter has been in my the best and noblest of women. I should not much to know her. So few people could have the received a perfect stranger under her roof in der the same circumstances. I am sure my wife my poor suffering nephew, the God of the father has with a true heart and her heart for her Christian charity. It was so comforting to us to know that John had such kind friends both in the Church and out of it. The way in which she his sister my adopted daughter is equally as affectable and noble. Every one who has met me in she was the dearest creature I ever met except my my husband. I never having any children of my my own, almost all my love is centered on him. He he has filled. I ever think of him and gladness for nine years. I am a little comforting him angel, always forgetting self to be a mother to the enjoy out ment and pleasure of those around her. She drew all hearts to her. She was warm hearted, generous and earnest. She was so kind to have to give up so much. She was so sweet and sweetened during all of her illness. She never faltered in faith. She was so kind and to the very last never failed to comfort every one who showed her the least attention. I think she was fully aware of her condition. She often asked the doctor if she would get well. He would say we hope so later, but you must put your trust in the Lord. She would reply, yes or no. I say before her death her articipation became so indistinct that we could seldom understand what she said. Her physicians say they never knew any one in like twelve hours after their lungs were in the condition here were in for four days. She died and only the best nursing they ever saw kept her alive so long. I fear you think me very foolish to say the least in writing to you in the manner I have. But you have been so kind to & I feel I must write. I'll pardon me when you think of the relief to an aching heart to pour out its sorrow to a sympathetic friend.

Have you any relations by the name of Cabaniss in Banterville? I have heard of some friends of that name living there. I have heard of an Episcopal minister there. I have heard of a very rich at my school. But I have heard of a I would be glad to know he is some relation.
 His father's name is Septimus Cabaniss & he has an uncle Charley. They were old friends & fellow students & were in Banterville. Charley is married now but I don't know where he is now.

We have all our great solace in our afflictions all through we can not ^{see} why we have to give up our loved ones - we know as Mr Cobbs says that God makes us mistakes & that all is for the best.

I thank you from the depths of my heart for your considerate kindness in our case of the second spot where I am at rest. I do wish I could in some way show you how grateful we feel towards you. but that is not now now.
 Please give my kind regards to your family sincerely your friend P. B. Guin she was when your very kind letter was received. She directed me to say particularly she does not want you to send money to her as the only suppender is and in no way in the family. We thought you must be aware of this baneful habit which had made or rather kept us so reduced; for the past 4 or 5 years Charlie has been no assistance but on the contrary a great expense to us. We have hoped that he would find a way to realize where his habits would lead him and he would do better but it seems hopeless now.

We received your letter that ^{you} spoke of and had answered it but I am sure you trust you will not put your self to any trouble for as long as he drinks he will ^{not} hold any position and he has some clothes and as long as we have a roof over our heads and something to eat he will share

Mr. This is a trouble we have to stand and none of us want you to have a trouble from him as there is all ready enough worrying over him now Uncle Alf is certainly showed a generous noble heart your responding to such a demand and we all feel a grateful for your kindness but never again send him money and we hope you will be able in some way to make him pay you and you must not let him feel that he can call on you in such a way In your letter to Charlie you spoke of coming we would be delighted to see you and cordially welcome you and extend such hospitality as we are able. Our flowers pay night will be but the snow and continued rain has injured them and cause them to bloom slowly. Bettie is getting on very pleasantly at the Deaf and Dumb and last month her salary was increased

We feel some uneasiness about her as the Supper little boy has diphtheria but hope it will not spread through the school as it never has been epidemic in Jackson.

I think much I would like to write to you but my I have a severe headache from excitement will close by begging you to believe we are deeply sensible of your kindness and hope that Charles unworthy act will not cause you to think we will hold or encourage him in his course.

Sincerely and Gratefully
