and did not know what to do as I had asked several of my friends as I thought to lend me money or give me credit and they refused me and this morning I was informed by the agent that my wages were reduced ten percent (10%) so I am still now worse off I am now cotton cloth and think I will have to give my place up as I have not got the clothing to keep me in good health As to writing to the managers it is a perfect farce for they have no more feeling you than a brute all are Yankees My old over coats and pants will be thankfully received My sister Susan has been sick in bed for three weeks All rest of the family are well All join me in love
Your affectionate
Nephew

Dear Uncle

I wrote to you about two weeks ago and as I have not received any answer I come to the conclusion you had not received the letter.

I have made up ^{my} mind to lead a different life and I firmly believe I will and I am very anxious to get business as I am very anxious to assist my Mother and sister.

I would like to get about fifty dollars to get me some clothing. I am almost bare for some thing to put on my back & I am right down on the ground. If you cannot let me have the money your self can you arrange some way for me to get it - I am willing to pay interest on it and I
