My Dear Uncle Sep.

Several times have I made the attempt to write to you on a certain subject and my courage failed me, and now do it at my Mother's request. Of late our father has had so much care in business and failed to return to the Asylum. Although the state loudly calls for his reinstatement the baronet & radicalism will keep him from it. ~~My Mother~~ ^{My Mother} says, can you release this place and let us buy a place in the country and give you a lean on that for payment of that debt my father owes you.

If we have a place in the country we may be able to pay you in a short time. We will work hard to do it. We are not afraid of work, Alfred is a large boy. Brother Willie works hard. he has been hiring himself out. Pa is so troubled that he is sick most of the time and I feel that if we are not settled soon this constant care will kill him.

Uncle do not think that we do not wish to pay this debt for indeed we do, and will make every effort to do it.

Only in a fit of desper^{ation} do I write asking you this. Father had no idea that I wrote you this. It is all in confidence. Please to do dear Uncle, reply to this at once.

Yours affectionately,

Dear Uncle Tom -

After you left us Papa slept a great deal during the evening and was sweet to me until about 10 o'clock at which time he became restless and spent a wretched night. He was plinking. This morning he is suffering intense pain in his stomach and has lost his usual patient on him.
He has not gained since yesterday before you left. Last evening he took too much of Chamberlain's water and he believes the remedy did water he took. Yet he seems completely prostrated. I can see that he grows weaker. Ma has made him some Graham's Relief is giving it now. I hope he can enjoy it.

Ma slept about three hours last night.
I should at least last evening. I have insisted upon her going to bed this morning but she refuses to do so. She says Papa is too ill for her to be absent.
From him with and rest and that it is her pleasure to do all she can for him and she can do for him as she can do.

Feb 18th 1872.

Dear Uncle,

I rec'd your letter & check which I thank you for. Had Sister Lucy and I had ~~had~~ received our pay monthly we would not have had the slightest trouble of assisting Ma. Sister came to see me yesterday and said she would not receive any pay until April, which I am sorry for. I will return the money as soon as I possibly can. In future Uncle you need never fear that I shall ever communicate any of my troubles to you or any one. I shall keep them all to myself no matter how deeply I suffer.

I am very pleasantly situated here, all are very kind to me and I don't have the slightest trouble with the mutes, yet my responsibilities are very heavy, yet I get on very well with it all.

Ma will move on next Friday. She has three boarders engaged. Charlie had the promise of business and I hope Alf. can get something to do as soon as he starts Ma a garden. For fear that

Sept failed to send you a report, I send one of this institution. When through with it send it to Cousin Lucy Snedcor.
Cousin Lucy Cabaniss must return home by this way and pay us a visit when Ma returns home. She can make her have quite a pleasant time. Sep too must come down and see us. I am glad Cousin Charlie is improving.
I hope most earnestly he may recover.
Judge Yerger & wife are both in wretched health. Cannot live long. Mrs. Robert Shotwell died a few days ago. She is a true friend of our family and her death is much regretted.
Goodbye. With much love I am your affectionate
