Dear Uncle,

I received your last letter a week or two ago concerning the distribution. Mr Smartt wrote to the firm stating to them, to fill up & forward the bond they wanted Sarah C Smartt to sign. The magistrates of this district are J. G. Aydlotte and M. P. Marbury, The Lawyers can say who is to decide the solvency of the security by naming the man. J. B. Smith lives here & is somewhat acquainted in Shelby county, and well known to J. G. Harris. Mr Smartt has never received an answer to his letter as yet, thought, perhaps they did not get it. I received a letter the other day from Nancy A. Turman, she writes

I have written to my brother to day, to meet you in Memphis the first Sunday of March, I am anxious for you to look into the matter and see what there is to be gained from it.
I have learned to watch every body, and I know them to be at our disposal. I find the more of person had much rather take from than be with, that is one reason I want to get what is coming to me, that I will not be entirely dependent.

I received a letter from Nannie Turman the other day, she writes that they have gotten their money, $2400.00, and she says that the Memphis Times took 25,000 The Springfield Times 10,000 each. I hope if you go to meet her you will leave nothing returned and take me what you think is best to do with real estate I think all of us ought to be willing to abide your decision I will in haste we will have to be short, all well, hope the same of you, love to all.

Respectfully,
C.C. Allen

Please give me the full particulars of every thing about it & Allen's estate on your return home.

Dear Uncle

I received a letter from you about two weeks ago. In it you said you would write me again on Thursday and give the full particulars of your trip to Memphis. Thinking you had forgotten it, Old Troublsome comes again. I would like to hear you express your opinion about the matter, what you think will be the share of each one, did William say whether he had ever heard of Sam, Tom & Mary. How does Char look and did Charles see him. I or rather we want you to say what we owe you for your trouble, I know I have troubled

Dear Uncle Sep May 22nd/1878 I received your kind letter yesterday and made an effort to answer it, though scarcely know what to write.
You wished to know who Sister Mary's grand parents Christian name was, I never knew or heard anything about them, Cousin Mary Barton says that she herself was not more five years old when Mary was carried to Pa, she does not know the Christian name of old Joe Martin nor the old lady.
Jack Archer told me he had not heard from his sister in 30 years so I think it will be a difficult matter to find out where she, or her children are that is if she had any. I think if she don't know anything about this sister she will be left out.

I hope you will find out when they think they will wind up the affairs. I think its time to go. Think they can, or will wind up the business by fall.
I received a letter from Thomas Don the other day enquiring about the matter. I could not tell him anything about it. he lives in Murphysboro Ill.
I will not write much more as I can scarcely hold my pen my thumb joints are dreadfully this evening. All join in love to all. Hope to see some of you soon.
Affectionately

about the matter I think there is a fox in the ring that you have not thought of. The first letter they ever wrote you they stated that if A Allen died leaving a considerable estate, please write and instruct me whether it would be a good idea to dispute with the adm. If I have a claim I want it. I own debts and I want to pay them. I hope you will see to the matter, and I will believe what you say about it. I wrote to them in my last note to send my dividend in a check to you payable to your order.
I also wrote them the same some month ago. Nothing more at present much love to you & family
