J. B. Cabaniss Esq

Dear Sir:
I have not signed the deed sent by Fanny last week. I wrote to your Uncle John and asked him to give me his opinion of the value of the 7 1/2 acres. It struck me as being very low. If the land is any value at all. I have not heard from him yet. I do not like to sign a hasty deed without knowing something about what I am signing.
Yours truly
B. L. Roberts

need it in January, about the 15th or 20th and ask me to have it ready for him at that time.
If anybody had any money in this country I could borrow it. but unfortunately nobody is here now. There are two men that have it but they want 10 per cent interest and a man here as well give up anything to start with than pay such interest. If you can hypothecate one of the notes I will be glad.

against me other will almost necessarily follow.
What worries me that if suit is brought against you it will be to recover the land and as you have disposed of the land without paying for it it might put you in a position that Lucy and myself would not like to see. You mention that you have a note that will be due in ninety days that you can realize on. Are you willing to transfer it to me. If so let me know at once and I will try and get Robinsons notes to hold up their suit.

You also say that you have to pay Sep money to get a release from him I loaned Sep fifty dollars five years ago which he has never paid. Add the interest to it and if you can use it in a settlement with him do so.
