have Aunt Virginia join us.
You wrote you wanted me to have a change. We have had to spend so much money getting the house & lot fixed and then there was my trip home in May that I feel if I can possibly get on here at home I prefer staying right here. Mr Agee laughed at me on little when I was sick for I was talking about Aunt Hannah's & Minerva's fine cooking all the time. I could eat so little & still have very little appetite and how I wished for a piece of Aunt Hannah's brown bread.

Atlanta Ga. March 30th 82

Dear Francis

I have just come in from fishing completely disgusted with the prospects of success in catching one more fish besides being almost drowned by muskellunge (spelled by ear). We have come back to little old Atlanta got through with the sooner than expected. I am right glad to get home, I have been I think I have never written to you since my baby was born. It was still born, born a fine boy weighing eleven lb, some one said that it was the largest & most perfect child they ever saw. I was so much disappointed that it did not live it would have been such a treasure all around, my health is very good I am housekeeping in my same room up stairs & have just got done through with spring cleaning. We expect to build us a pretty little cottage when times are better. I be so glad

My dear Fannie Cabaniss Humboldt Ala.

My friend
Judge Tourers sent me your letter & wrote him to try to find out at my branch if I have the money on hand and if so to pay you $760 for your 800 claim. He wrote to me interest which is about as soon as it could be paid. I found there were legal claims against my paying the money in advance, so I suggested to you, so paid it up and collected all to wait. I have been away from home since last week and stay
next week together.
I will do this

Mrs. Shinkles Steamed Graham Bread.

1 pint corn meal, 2 pints graham flour, 1 Pt. sorghum, 2 Pts. butter-milk, one heaping teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon salt.

Add the soda to sorghum and beat until it foams, and is a light yellow color, then stir in the milk. When this is thoroughly mixed, stir in the meal, flour and salt, which should be sifted together.

Do not take out the coarse part of the graham flour. Raisins, or currants may be added at pleasure. Steam at least an hour, then place in the oven until the loaves are dry enough to slip out of the cans.
