superior ^{that of} to most of men & his business capacity is of the best a fine business man which is quite necessary to me he is 28 years of age. Pa & all are delight ed with him. If Pa likes any one I could fancy you may count him of first class type. I would be delighted if you would come to see me when I begin to keep house which will be next year I suspect I kept house for a while but failed to like it so we quit but I'd like it better when I have a nice new house of my own. Does coz Lucy keep house? Lillian? write me all about the young Martins that were in search for a house to leave their nest I never could imagine Mr M. to be any thing much you know I never was so prejudiced with him. Which did bet Lillian or Sallie in the matrimonial line?
I'd venture you'd go to Sainsville to live yet I wish you would get mar ried for my sake I think you would like it but you can't live for gentleness & civility than any girl I ever saw. I always was happiest when with ~~you~~ from my infancy up, & I always had a good time with them too. Dr McElroy was married last Thursday to a young lady in Rutherford Co. I was at the reception at Mrs Sims. The "little Bride" is not good looking one bit. Miss Ella Sims has married lately. Fannie Colley has never stopped off yet but the whole family have moved to Nashville. I miss them so much I stopped off to see them & Anna when I come through N. Mr McE wanted to take in the Exposition. They I mean homofolks took my coming more quietly than I hoped though Pa was very much excited when I stopped upon the platform he didn't know when I was coming & hardly knew when to expect me. I believe Fannie Co. took it to heart more than anyone. she just ~~burst~~ burst out
