Dear Auntie:

Papa received Richard's letter this week, we were sorry to hear that Ellen still had the tooth-ache, I suppose Richard is on Sharp's Mountain now. I hope it will not rain all the time, it rains nearly every day here.

Papa bought a half bushel of peaches this week, the first we have had to can, we haven't had any to eat but two or three times this summer. Papa sent up some pears and apples yesterday, but they are too hard to eat. we are going to been sick for a week.

Miss Lucy received a letter from Mrs. Hogue Wednesday. She is keeping house in Marion
now. She said that she wanted us all to come to see her. Mr. Hogue is a first cousin of John Trotwood Moore.
Hope Allen has got over the tooth ache by this time.
~~and~~ Give my love to all.
Sincerely
Virginia

Dear,

Miss Lucy received a letter from Dr. Beard yesterday saying how sorry he was that he could not fill his appointment here, but his old trouble came on him while he was in Livingston and he was afraid to face the wind and cold weather coming over to Gainesville, Miss Lucy and I went over to the Church Tuesday afternoon and cleaned it up. Wednesday Miss Lucy, Sallie and I went over and waited for him but no one else came.

Dear Auntie:
We were relieved to know that the figs reached you safely at last.
I have an idea they got lodged at Epes. because I asked Will last Monday if he got to Epes safe with the preserves-he said yes that he put them in the Post Office there. They reached you Thursday afternoon. just about the time to me for Mrs. Patterson to send them on. (Will is Mr. Crow's driver) and I imagine he asked about the box at Epes when I spoke to him about it.
Miss Lucy says the fig preserves are her Christmas present to you and Ellen. We are not going to try to send much at Xmas. as it is so hard to get it started from Epes. the box of preserves was a sample and that was before the holiday rush.
You asked about the magazines we get the Pictorial Review, but I certainly would appreciate the American. I know you send it to me, but it comes in Miss Lucy's name and she gives it away or lends it whenever she pleased. please ask Mrs. Barton to send it in my name

Ellen sent Mary a check for Mrs. Lucy's subscription to The Woman's Home Companion. I know you are very busy. I am on my feet the whole time. I am at the office and part of the time at home. Mary comes down at a little after eleven and stays until a little after one. but she has her own affairs to attend to. so it keeps me on the run. Richard helps very little.

Mrs. Lucy says that Standard Steel Knives are advertised in the last catalogue at $4.50 per six. and that she will send the catalogue if you want it.

Mrs. Hilliary sent me 2 dozen fine Maryland apples and a 2 lb box of "Happiness Candy". Thanksgiving. the apples were delicious. the candy some of the best I ever tasted. better than Nunnally's or Huylers. I have some black walnuts ^{and pecans} to send you if you would like them. I want to get some mistletoe and holly to send you before Christmas. Am going to get off everything a week or more before Xmas. it may not be the Christmas spirit sending things ahead of time, but it is much safer. Hope you will not get too tired. it is hard to get rested.

Lovingly
 Virginia

Dear Auntie:

We sent you
some peas yesterday
but Miss Lucy thought it was too dry to send the cauliflower
plants.

Sallie was better yesterday seemed to enjoy
her dinner and supper.

Mr. Gibbs died very suddenly last night
from heart failure
he woke up about 12 o'clock and complained of a pain in his chest. told Mrs Gibbs he would get
Dr Harwood to give him something to relieve him he went to the Doctor's room and sat down
