I've seen with my girls more as capable Heather is here to help some this morning Virginia & Sally are trying to finish a 10 1/2 Lapport and Sally to read to Nelly, scales party to night when I the first some Virginia has done in six weeks Mr Roberts said he would send Ellen & P.O. order for 10.00 today & he thought if she is anxious to come home to do so if she finds company to P.O. from she can go to the Godfrey's at night next day for some home with Mrs Godfrey

May to Kentucky
It feels as if I was as far off from my mother as ever Virginia could not make it to the trip by herself she has no clothes & I cant make up for what to get any one to help her I wish she did have some money or something Nannie Godfrey is still at home was been sick recently they are all worried to Annie Lanford is to be married to her first cousin Mr Peners from West Virginia friends say she will not do much for Roberts saying it is out of the frying pan

When her first cousin Ivy Lanford who was now Mrs. Mary M. McClelland who asked to be released Annie has invited Dr.
McClelland & Nannie Cerath to her marriage on the 1st of June. Some of the Lanfords sent her a quarter of a dollar he seems to be tired & feathered. I am coming home just as soon as I can & Mrs. Roberts thinks it best for Virginia to go when I do.
I have not seen any friends except one since we came to this place. Some body in Ma. Richard has helped me clean up the place from yesterday evening but it is not finished. Mrs. P. Morrison wants her old aide bound and a Linington to be sold.

We got one the Epus paper came out the back of the pack. I made Mrs.
Stephenson a cake & sent her & she said Rechar is it was the best cake she ever ate. Her plate is too small to bake one & she has seen so much to them all.

came last Sunday with a core too. he cut his foot with an ax it is out a deed ^{and} the shoe of Daniel this for a great deal He dont allow him to cut more but he was over at Mrs Kingberns and her sister did not write to her.
 Cora has an ax Mr. L. had I am not much on letters of his foot and sent me word it was not a bad cut. I felt to send the flowers Richard did not cry and Sallie Whitsett gets well as she has been so good and patient ^{she} was looking much better last I think his toe will be well Wednesday when I send her in a few days I did not but her (from each again mention it when I write to is getting up to sleep.
 Aunt Betsey thought it would Mr. Whitsett rebotformed her make her nervous rocking chair for us Mr.
 I hope Aunt Betsey is better Robert paid him a dollar have been so anxious about again. I arranged them her. I will be so thankful all over and they look when my ne gets well almost well. Mr. Wiseman.

Fannie washes the baby diapers and says she will go with me when I want to take the baby to Cousin Lungs in any where else it is coming to nurse in a week or two. I will get in within a week while she is a while. Rather than get a change Fannie is going to live with her sister & sister and she will see after her baby.
Tell Ma I will send the thing som Ma & say he will have come in a few days I hope Ma did not make herself sick making the menu meat.

Love to all offa L. Gainesville Ala March Monday just had a long letter from Ellen & Ben & Bill

Dear Henry

Like yourself I have a cold and feel badly all over. I hope yours is much better for better the work you have to do it is bad to feel sick. I think I would rather have two colds than take colds out and run eggs. Your letter received on Friday don't know how Ellen's about it will get done after a while she needs a thing.
What you are doing and that feel well.
I promise her $1.00 I gave her half out by egg she wanted to buy a foot ball which I can had the pleasure of receiving several don't think it will last much longer. She expects to ask Lucy Bushby Miss Ellis & Miss Godfrey to supper as she will be at school at dinner time each of the little girls invited Ellen & Sally. I thought of Brother in his brotherly and wished that I had something to write him. I would have written to him but I felt so stupid that I forgot all I wished Say, I started a letter to Ellen Dill it was her birthday. I finished the letter, next day and read it and two handkerchiefs I am writing to Ellen and I know it is hard to be without work for so long and long.

Betty said that her health was not good.
The children are well and hearty it would make you laugh to see the way the food disappears off the table. In my pleasure but what we have is good. Mrs. Dill Sally Virginia sent a good fat or was it but long in the heart. The reason I wish was to see out her heart in making you a short visit as I am asking for money matter. Sally got a headache last week which makes me think she has had it now. She & Rosa Smith are all that are in the family & Mary Jackson has offered a price I only got in the week before. Sally is 28 & Rosa 17. Rosa would make me of Sally but is only your daughter. Ellen got no head matter last week. I pay them 25 cts each.
I had a letter from the Louisiana Lumber Co a few days ago saying they had found the work to send one else. I am going to help the other I say.
Write about your new address.

presently + brought a few hope light off our box to see how much it will not amount to much except here a pleasant thought. Mr Roberts + Pesham are having a good time so far I went down town yesterday with the girls went to Mr Gardners + it made me feel very for them for the time has no little in it very little to remind us of Christmas. I think their fortunes are at a low ebb + Mr Gardners health is failing fast.
Mr Roberts health is good now he is in good spirits he enjoys eating no all do for that matter there is more to eat at this season. Mr Roberts has cheese at this time which we enjoy + other nice things to eat.
Mr Parrant has been sent back and we are glad for they are the best Methodist neighbors we have ever had. How did you enjoy Miss Resu's visit? it is hard work entertaining. I judge from what Ellen wrote that she has not stayed in the preaching.
