I is slow work. The Whorping Cough is in town and we will have to keep the children at home. Mrs. E. H. Hamm Mrs. Snows sister was here in a visit and her little girl has it.
Mrs. Goodlow is very sick and her baby is sick and Madge has the Whorping Cough. I heard Mr. Goodlow had died and I heard last week there was a case of the scarlet in town. I will send some pamphlets of Edger Mr. R. Knight the Yds & Jcs of it ask Mrs. if I must send any to her. It is

The lady who has made dresses for me. Mr R bought a large trunk and supposed he had given directions to put in the things. he bought for the children & myself and other goods but when we opened the trunk it was full of socks suspenders & shirts as you can ^{clearly} see our disappointment he took for his goods on Monday decided not buy hats for the children said he decided see any thing really but bought a lot of caps which will answer very well as they are so much as
would suit me but it was 12.50 he decided it was not for I will send pictures samples of the dresses

Some grapes dont blend any as it is expensive and the grapes shatter so that we are much obliged to you for thinking of us besides grapes make me feel rich.

Mrs Gibbs and I paid 11 visits last week we went in her new buggy and we are going again Sunday if the weather permits I tell you it is a little beats walking all the time We expect our new Coke to arrive she is said to be a good one We have a man who works very well

 & Richard is taller than Fannie A year ago when Perry Walker took charge of the Academy he said he would have a lady Mrs Bailey to take charge of the boarding department Mr R is a young man but he married a few weeks ago Mrs Bailey came has seven children and is a widow the youngest child a baby ^{just} but a year old it was to board for $9.00 a month of course couldn't make any thing and has had to be helped more than one time. She has a farm near some place where she rents out.

Mr Mann from Green Co has been selling his eggs and chickens and end of week asking her to marry him and she says yes but she can't marry him he has 4 grown daughters who are opposed to the marriage and two of them say they will kill themselves if he marries so he didn't come and had to postpone it indefinitely but Mrs Bailey is determined to marry him Mr Walker went after him and he would marry her to day I dont know how I will enough I dont know what she is thinking about certainly out her children the oldest is about Richards age perhaps younger. I am so glad you write what you did about your office and feel so relieved about Budd. I have written a long letter thought it might amuse you you all need

spent part of this morning working in the old organ and you have no idea how much better it sounds.
We sold cream + cake at the home pump society event didn't have near enough to sell we charged 2¢ could have sold so much - but no one contributed except Mrs Gibbs and Mary Jackson gave a cake + over 2 lbs of butter We gave the rest I washed hands that day. We gave the cream at home at least 3 pears and it was nice.

Dear Fanny

Your letter was received on yesterday. Was sorry to hear that Bud had been sick. Tell Bud Mr Roberts says he sent the papers to Brether the next day after getting his letter hope he got them all right.
I am sorry he had to wait but after writing to Uncle John Mr R thought it best to wait until he heard from him or Bud. Next time you are up or leave, ask them I say to write to Sallie. She is uneasy about Mr R's Magister. She heard he had been sick. Sallie is sick but not in bed. She does not look at all well. Yesterday my cousin W brought some fresh home and complained of feeling very lousy

I felt wrong about him so I was sorry as much as Sallie & the children were at Sunday School. I went to see him. He was well but Sallie was sick. Miss Dora Schiffman a near neighbor of Sallie's died suddenly Tuesday night of August.
The excitement made Sallie very nervous and I think she is nervous you said last night she felt that she couldn't stay by herself I was there on Thursday and will have been sick. I was up & found Sallie was so bad. ~~Sallie~~ The children kept a good deal about going home Sallie says she is not going to see any body but Ma. says Ma is going to take her a ride and give her a pretty handkerchief.
Ma all except Ma R & Ellen have had colds. This is the first day that any thing I have eaten has not tasted for but says Richard is Looking better. I had a letter from Mrs Johnson yesterday saying she had sent my dress on 3rd Express Nelson. I will get it tomorrow. I hope it will fit as well as the one she made me than a year ago.

I have worn it very often and it looks well yet. I don't expect to like this one as well because it is cashmere. I think you would like Mrs Johnson's work.
It is so neat & lasts well.
I will go to sleep if I get here any longer so must close love to all affectionately.
