Dear Fannie

Your letter to me was sent Ellen came today. She had been been up to the Post office to look for a letter from you.
Miss Davis left last Tuesday for Atlanta.
Ma thinks you had better stay out the two weeks.
Should you come or you I think I fear you will have to be transferred from one depot to another, a distance of a mile or so. I also remind you that the N. H. train leaves Chattanooga 2 hours earlier than formerly.
Mr Hill came here this evening and tuned the piano. Ellen has just left with the Carter children.
I enclose you as a reply for Ellen's letter one that she wrote to her mother which she mislaid. I kept it hidden until she wrote another one more carefully with pencil. I think it might do for you or any one else.

I have been very busy in the Circuit Court County.
Bill, but could not effect it much in the house.
I will have a good look at it in the Senate and if possible will kill it with an amendment some time next week. I will try to amend it as late in the week as I can because the latest the last chance it will have to go back and pass the house and be returned to the Senate.
Even if it should pass & become a law, I will not be greatly disappointed because I will then have a Chancery Court that I can practice in and will use what influence I can bring

Dear Fannie

Your letter with its enclosure.
I am greatly amused at what you say about the power in the Constitution. Do not feel sorry. we are very decent young people at young it all, and not "rash".
Our dignity is ~~not~~ has not been compromised in any degree. while our ^{importance} ~~importance~~ ^{to the} State has been fully ~~displayed~~.
If we should display talents we have not hitherto shown, do not so hastily conclude that we are off. am. & leave.

I am uncommonly well. Have a good appetite, and sleep well at night, but have a bad cold.
I am sorry to ~~that~~ you did not go to hear Mr. Galt, etc. I had been then you should have gone. I suppose it was the lack of money. I will write you later.
I approve the Roberson bond ~~earlier~~ unless it be the one to be given by Wells. But he has not yet

Dear Fannie

Your letter to Mr. & Mrs. L. & also the one to our recd. I am glad to learn that you are going about.
What you said about dancing lead me to say that you must not trust too implicitly in the leadership of Mr. Shelton. The interview all round at shows in Cherry, and I feel well be glad of a chance to take you all in to see the same, so that they could say that you had been. Some of those Eastern dances had been prohibited by law in Georgia; not to take effect however until the show is over.

Miss Lucy died this morning; she will be buried tomorrow evening. I have been asked to act as pall-bearer. Abner Simpson is in town so I am on ground?
Up came in last night Mr. does not particularly like the article sent. but has concluded.

I can look at things as a whole out side from within; and not be blown around by the half formed & composite thoughts the accumulated effect of all the miserable mistakes my imagination has brought on me.
Sweet & those I have quite troubling myself about.
I am not making a mistake but I will leave the stranded wreck, & stop speaking, and pull for the shore, while it is still in sight.

I receive less of attention than I desire someday I will accept some of it but at present do not care for society but sleep.
Now should we not have a tree, I am improving in wood cutting capacity. What here I am going to learn to plow, so that when I get out on my travels I can make a good field hand if necessary. I have been taking a good deal of exercise for a week, and am beginning to feel very capable of physical labor, at the same time my chance for getting a school are increasing. Should I sell here or then? I will I will go to Blaine Co. which is a good move. It is there the Cabaniss family came from. Jasper Cabaniss a brother of my father John R. wanted to drag me off to see him but was prevented, situated in the family I can not but learn who to sell to, for their families they know all of those the people in the adjoining counties.

Blaine Co. adjoins the north. If I settle in Blaine I will practice the mountain farming just north of I west of Blaine. I have a lot of which have no road at all. But my return, strength, comes also my self confidence & also my better judgement. If you have any spare time I wish you would send me a few when you send the books but am in no hurry. I have left both of my pen knives. What about the what has Mr. M. say about him? This trip. Last month came in on Monday, I reckon, as 64 miles tomorrow.

Tell Geo. P. to write me all about himself & others, he has time now that the convention is over.

Yours affectionately
J. B. Cabaniss

Dear Fannie:

I have just written the above transfer, of the Murray & Halsey bill of cost. I regret very much, that you are having so much trouble with the taxes. I will enclose the Byers mortgage which I should have sent long before.

I received the shirt and collar & also underclothes. Besides the letter, in blue cap. I read also another letter today your letter today was so characteristic of you that I could almost see you while reading it.

Drs. Leamon, Ellie & Miss Weaver & went up to see Miss Sue Elmore & her sister last night. The visit was so pleasant, that Dr. indulged in his usual desire to stay, and was delayed overnight by staying too late.
Mr. Wetumpke's friend has been down here a few times, and I have been with him. He is really a most interesting man and it is having a bad effect of a person. He is a splendid fellow, both physically and mentally. I fear that his sympathies, are the most unfortunate things that I can exercise.
I will need a little money soon, I feel sure my check some debt which I owed

Dear Fannie

Your letter just recd. Judge Taylor was my informant as to the County's having title to about twenty (20) feet immediately out side of the Court House fence. There is an old plat recorded somewhere, I think between 1830 & 40, showing the City's prior limit, which may disclose it. Or it may have been conveyed by the City to the County at the time the County built the Court House. It is not likely that the County would have built the Court House without having the ground upon which it was to be built decided to it. This same question came up a good many years ago, the City threatening to do the same thing. In fact such an ordinance. It was then that Judge Taylor told me that the County owned the extension referred to. ~~It was then that~~

He took me out into the street and we sighted down a line that would run from Oscar Hundley's near Building, the NE corner of it I think, to possibly the South East (SE) corner of Lowenthal's store house. I mean the one which he occupies. He also said that it was at least a few feet
