and that we can live at ease. I have made me up a very nice school, and will begin teaching in a week or two. I want to help for Sister in every way that I can; and thus I shall at least try to make some of the money back that her father has spent in educating me. I received a letter from home yesterday all over well. You must come and see me soon when we, the Stegers, present his kindest regards to you and joins me in the invitation. You must write to me just as often as possible for I love my dear good brother Charlie almost as well as any one on earth. Oh, I trust my sister will not forget me; for I intend that you shall not forget me if my foolish sister will do any good. The Steger family wishes to be remembered to you; and the way she thinks your present very acceptable; and she said in jest, saying did he not make a mistake and send me one too? ha! ha! Well Uncle you must write to me, for you know I love you dearly; I will close this time, with love to

Yours Loving Niece,
