Friend Charles

I was in hopes that when opportunity and inclination presented that I should have had something to relate calculated to amuse; but I regret to say that nothing of the kind has occurred; on the contrary something has happened (which you may have anticipated) calculated to mar your happiness and produce sensations of the most unpleasant description.

Yesterday was 3 weeks ago I was on to treat your sister Mrs Allen for derangement of her general health which I succeeded in correcting.

in a few days. and ~~on~~ last sunday was a week she was attacked with hysterical symptoms which are about to eventuate in mental derangement and I am apprehensive unless there is a change in her for the ^{in a few days} better that she will become perfectly deranged. She is anxious to see you and in all probability if you could see her in a few days it might prove beneficial.

C.P. Cabaniss } yours respectfully
G.S. Davie }
