made satisfactory to and be approved by said Publisher before publication.

(b) To prepare promptly an answer to the said workbook.

(c) The Author represents and guarantees to the Publisher that she is the sole Author of the said work, and she does hereby represent and guarantee to the Publisher that she or the Publisher is the owner of all of the rights in the material which she contributes in and to the publication of the manuscripts; and that the said work contains no libelous and/or unlawful matter, and that it in no wise infringes upon the copyrights or violates any other right of any person or party whatsoever; and agrees to hold harmless the Publisher against any claim, demand or recovery finally sustained in any suit which may be brought against the Publisher by reason of any violation of proprietary right or copyright, or because of any libelous or unlawful matter contained in the said work and promptly to act with regard to and defend any claim or demand which may be made and/or action which may be brought, based upon any assertions or allegations of infringements, violation, libel or unlawfulness, provided the Publisher shall notify the Author of any claim, demand or suit promptly, and give to the Author such reasonable time as the exigencies of the situation will permit in which to undertake such defense; and if default shall be made by the Author in the respects aforesaid, then the Publisher is hereby granted the right to make such defense as it may be advised by counsel, and the costs and fees thereof together with any recovery shall be aforesaid be charged to and paid from Author's royalties.

(d) That she will not, during the term of this agreement, without the written consent of the said Publisher, write, publish or be in any way pecuniarily interested in any books that shall conflict with the sale of the work herein specified unless said books are offered to the Publisher for publication and if the Publisher refuses after ninety (90) days, then said Author is not bound by the terms of this Section (d).

SECOND, THE PUBLISHER AGREES:

(a) To publish said work at its own expense, in such style as it deems best suited to the sale thereof, provided the complete manuscripts shall be delivered as hereinbefore specified, and to pay the said Author, her representatives, heirs, or assigns, a royalty as outlined in Part Third, Paragraphs (d) and (e) on the price received by the Publisher for each copy by it sold. The said Publisher will also pay to the said Author six per cent (6%) of the net wholesale price to the said Publisher from the sales of copies, or editions, or translations of the said work in foreign countries. The Publisher agrees to render regular annual statements of account within sixty (60) days after the first day of April of each year, and to make settlements in cash for the royalties shown thereby to be due, within sixty (60) days after the date of each statement. It is agreed that any copies of said work shipped subject to approval and returned to the Publisher, or lost in transit, or retained without payment or furnished gratis, to the Authors or for review, advertising, sample or like purposes, shall not be subject to royalty.

(b) The said Publisher further agrees that it will continue to print and publish the said works as long as there shall be a reasonable demand for the same, except as hereinafter provided, that it will keep the market supplied and that it will make the works known by such advertising as it deems proper and profitable. The Publisher may publish, or permit others to publish such selections from said work as it thinks necessary or desirable to publish such selections from said work as it thinks necessary or desirable for the advancement of its sale, without compensation to the said Authors, but such selections shall not be such material as to injure the sale of said work.

(c) To present to the Authors ten (10) free copies of the said book upon publication, and to permit the Authors to purchase further copies of the works for their own use and not for re-sale, at a discount of twenty per cent (20%) from the catalogue retail price of the said works.

THIRD, IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO AS FOLLOWS:

(a) That at the expiration of four (4) years after publication, or sooner if conditions justify it, and every four years thereafter, if in the judgment of the Publisher a revision of the text of the said works may be required or may be desirable, and new material added to keep the works up-to-date, the Authors will prepare such revision without additional compensation. In the event that the Authors are unable to revise or to supply new material where needful, or neglect or refuse to make such revision and deliver such revised and new material to the Publisher within six (6) months after the written request of the Publisher for such revision, the Publisher may have such revision done by anyone whom it may select. The Publisher shall deduct the expense thereof from the royalties accruing to the Authors on such revised edition. If such revision of the text be made by some writer other than the Author, the Publisher may make announcement to such effect in the revised edition.

(b) In case the Publisher fails to keep the said work in print and for sale, and after written demand from the Authors declines to reprint the work within six (6) months and to offer it for sale, or in case after one (1) year from the date of first publication, the said work, in the opinion of the Publisher is no longer merchantable or profitable, and it gives one (1) month's notice to the Authors of its desire and intention to discontinue publication, this contract shall terminate and all rights granted under this agreement shall revert to the Authors, and any plates of the works, if such had been made and preserved, with any plates of illustrations furnished by the Authors and any remaining copies, shall be transferred to the Authors, provided the Authors shall pay fifty per cent (50%) of the actual manufacturing cost, including composition, of such plates and the actual manufacturing cost of any remaining copies or sheets, the said right or rights to be exercised by the Authors within two (2) months after notice of termination; and in the event the Authors shall not exercise this option and shall not purchase the aforesaid plates or remaining copies or sheets at cost or less, without payment of any royalty to the Authors upon such copies.

(c) This agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators and assigns of the Authors and upon and to the successors and assigns of the Publisher, but no assignment voluntary or by operation of law shall be binding upon any of the parties hereto without the written consent of the other parties of this agreement, except as hereinbefore specifically provided.

(d) Royalty -- A royalty of six (6) per cent shall be paid to the authors. Said royalty shall be based on the net wholesale price of all books sold. The publisher will pay said six (6) per cent royalty on the following basis:

CHARLES GRAYSON SUMMERSELL - Three (3) per cent,
FRANCES ROBERTS - Three (3) per cent.
