Dear Frances,

You may remember Fernand Beaucour, the French Napoleonic scholar whom you drove to Warrenton County last October he dropped in to see Louise and me. I took him to the Dyke Division, whose assistant curator (Bill Erwin) mentioned to me that the Division had manuscripts on Huntsville which might interest you. He passed on to me Xeroxed copies of their catalogue, for transmission to you. Relatedly, and apologetically, I now mail them to you.

Louise joins me in sending you our very best wishes, as always.

Sincerely yours,
Harold Parker

is meant to be suggestive, not exhaustive.
Also enclosed are the Huntsville histories of 1854 from a somewhat rare, but wonderful, book, The Southern Business Directory. I have other such directories from the 1870s and 1880s*, but there are probably city directories by then.
I enjoyed assisting with M. Beaucour.

Cordially,
Bill Green
