Dear Frances,

This past week
I received a notice that you had renewed the subscription to Saturday Review. Now, Frances, I love reading the magazine and I appreciate more than I can <sup>tell you,</sup> <sup>your</sup> thinking of me in such a lovely way, but please let this be the last time to renew it. Things change when you retire - some one wrote me that you would retire this year.
My advice is to work as long as you can. It

A few short lines
But they express
A million thanks

For your thoughtfulness helps to keep you young.
I am doing fine,
using walker - I bathe myself; fix my breakfast
+ lunch and last dinner with J. T. + Lucille. There is still much work to be done here (1704) and

Annette Nevin Shelby
1414 High Forest Drive North
Tuscaloosa, Alabama 35406

April 23, 1986

Dear Dr. Roberts:

I was sorry not to have the opportunity to meet you at the lovely luncheon Saturday. I know that weekends are a busy time, but until my semester is over here at Georgetown, that is the only time I can come to Alabama. After early summer, however, I do plan to be in the state full time, and I look forward to meeting you then.

We do need both your vote and your active support in my husband Richard Shelby's campaign for the U.S. Senate. Please help to give him the opportunity to provide the kind of leadership in the Senate that Alabama needs and deserves.

Once again, I am sorry to have missed you, but I look forward to the opportunity of seeing you on a future trip to Huntsville. In the meantime, we would welcome your ideas and your suggestions for our campaign.

Yours truly,

Annette Shelby
