Dear Frances

We're finding Hot Brownville is a nice town to live in — like Huntsville in many ways.

Bill is continuing work on the MBA, having enrolled in the new Clemson — Furman program which began in September. He joins me in sending you best wishes for a Happy Christmas.

Two added to Scroll of Honor

By Mary Sylvia Armstrong
News staff writer

Dr. Frances Cabaniss Roberts and the late Miss Maria Howard Weeden were named to the Madison County Scroll of Honor Saturday night during the performance of the U.S. Armed Forces Bicentennial Band and Chorus at the Von Braun Civic Center. James Record, Madison County Commission chairman, made the presentation to Dr. Roberts and the nearest living relative of Miss Weeden.

The Scroll of Honor is a project of the Huntsville-Madison County Girl Scouts. The names of the two women will be inscribed on a marble plaque permanently installed in the Madison County Courthouse.

Dr. Roberts and Miss Weeden were nominated for the honor by the Huntsville Branch of the American Association of University Women. They were endorsed by the Women's Guild Inc. of the Huntsville Museum of Art. Dr. Roberts has been professor of history at the University of Alabama in Huntsville for 23 years. She has been selected for an award of merit for distinguished service in the field of state and local history from the National Awards Committee of the American Association for State and Local History.

In February 1974, Dr. Roberts was honored by the Huntsville Branch, American Association of University Women, with the "Frances Roberts Fellowship," a $500 contribution to the International Graduate Fellowships Program of the AAUW International Foundation.

Dr. Roberts received the Bachelor of Science degree from Livingston State University. She earned her master's degree and Ph.D. in history from the University of Alabama.

Miss Weeden was born in 1847 in the "Weeden House" on Gates Ave. in the heart of the Two-Kentham District. She gained acclaim as a poet and painter and during her lifetime published four major works including "Shadows on the Wall," "Bandanna Ballads," "Songs of the Old South," and "Old Voices."

She is noted for her portraits of blacks during the Antebellum Period.

Miss Weeden was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church in Huntsville as well as the Music Club. In addition to the publications listed above, she wrote stories for the "Christian Observer," created hand-painted cards and albums with original verses, and taught art to children. Many of her paintings are owned by Huntsville citizens and several are displayed in the Burritt Museum.

Others nominated for the Scroll of Honor Award were Mrs. Martha Holliman Simms, Mrs. Jane Grote Roberts, Miss Lillie Latham and Mrs. Ruth Marie Bonham Camp.

Jan. 22, 1976

Dear Frances,

I thought you and your students might get a charge out of this (enclosed, which I came across today.) This paper is my substitute for mime cards, which are too heavy to carry across the Atlantic! Actually, this is not quite the way my notes look, as ballpoint pens are forbidden in the Manuscript Room and I have to use pencil.

Letter from John today and his very depressed. Is UAH falling apart at the higher levels of administration?

The British are reacting to the first flight of Concorde just the same way Americans did to landing people on the moon. I do think it's a beautiful plane.

No news to report, since I'm just keeping my nose to the grindstone to get as much done as I can now, so we can do some traveling later.

Jimmy Carter is getting more news than anyone else in the British press, which by the way, reports very little American news (and none on TV).

Hope you are continuing to make progress.

Love,
Carolyn

F. Paasik (Hauteville of Edward VII) to Arthur James Balfour [Prime Minister], Mairiabad, 2 September 1905.

Extract

f. 27 | "The King is much pleased at the result of the Peace Conference and thinks that Roosevelt deserves the highest credit for the way he persisted in his efforts when everybody thought it was hopeless. H.M. says that the Japanese have come out of it very well and that they will be in a stronger position than ever for having abandoned the demand for an indemnity. H.M. was not a little pleased to see that his telegram arrived at Washington before that of the German Emperor!"

March 18, 1976

Dear Frances,

This will likely be my last word from England, by the time my sabbatical is over will have crossed the Channel 8 times. Made arrangements by L.D. telephone tonight for my longest stay in France. Carolyn soon leaves for Oxford & will join me in France for Easter which falls between your birthdays this year.

It is also likely the last word I'll say on promotions - we don't want to make you angry or mad; two don't want to upset you. Alice & all my letters are reviewed by my better half who has superior & more objective judgment on this matter. Agree that all has been done that can be and don't ever think for one minute that I am ungrateful or ungrateful - quite the opposite. Cannot see though, why salary and promotion should be linked. I am well paid as an Assoc.; would rather be on the bottom of the scale of a professor than top of it as an Assoc.!

Don't worry about my research have 3 articles in my head - one almost completely written if I ever get that period of time of total concentration that's needed. Substantively, the missing piece I needed for my work came from an English student of medieval history and some out of print books on the French Navy as English during Amer Rev. and later. It was like a laser, will explain my findings in detail upon return.

We rejoice at your continued progress and are anxious to see you. Don't send anything - stay safe from you and Bob - either.

All our observations on C. Woodard proved correct. Considered in totality, it's really sad that money can buy (pre) minds.

Time and money both measure our lives, even though I & family are in deep trouble.

We send our love,

Shortly after Benny died (April of 1975) I went to Ohio to help my oldest sister Marcella take care of our Dad who was then 93. Marcella had already had one mastectomy & in Sept of 1975 had another "!" She was simply not able to care for Dad, also.

The children have stayed here to keep our New Orleans home open (and together)

Dad died in December<sup>(1976)</sup> at 95. I came home January 15 (all the children were in Ohio for Christmas, a rather sad-happy time for everyone) I plan to return to Ohio to be with Marcella again in May. She is due for bone and liver scans, and she will need morale support at least. (In the meantime she has had shingles and ~~my~~<sup>our</sup> sister, Mary Gillespie has been taking care of her. (She could not reach the breaking out on her back, to put on the medicine needed) the Chairman of the Industrial Board at Stevenson. He's done a great deal for the town and the surrounding area in the way of industry and housing development.

The interesting point about the man is that he always had an urge to be a writer. Now that's what he's trying to do. Where I come into the picture is that I do all his typing and help him rewrite. As you well know, I'm no expert but I'm willing to help him.

We've gotten part of the first book done and are going pretty fast. I think the book is good and I believe it also has a deep historical meaning even though it is fiction. But never having had any history courses to speak of I'm not really sure.

I was wondering if you might just scan over a couple of chapters of the manuscript to see what you think of it.

My friend wants to keep the book to himself because he is an outstanding businessman and has the feeling that his partners ~~would~~ think him "strange" if they knew he was writing books and poetry. As far as I know the only people who know about it are his wife and myself.

I told him about you and he said that he would like your opinion of this particular manuscript but he also asked that I not tell you who wrote it. But I've told you a good deal about the man and I know you will keep it in your confidence, if you should decide you have time to look over it.

I hope I haven't been too vague in my request and if you have time I'd really like to talk to you about the book and also to just hear about yourself. If you
