think is a brother of Alfred and Septimus - (Alfred was my husband's grandfather)
Mrs Creekmore is very anxious to get all information she can on Cabaniss line - Virginia gave me quite a lot of information - I wonder if you could give me dates on family of Charles & Lucy Ingram - I have names of children but not dates of births & deaths -
Do you have the Cabaniss Coat of Arms? I found a article that said the Clay coat of arms was used for Cabaniss also - as proof was shown that Mathew Cabaniss married Hannah Clay daughter of Colonel Thomas Clay - I was so sorry I missed seeing you and Virginia the day you came to Jackson - If you do come again, please let me know - Would like so much to meet you - Lindsey went to Hunterville years ago - he went by to see Miss Fannie - as soon as she saw him - said
I know you are a Cabaniss - Tell Ellen, I would like to know her also - Virginia has spoken of you both so often in her letters - I would

SELECT COMMITTEE ON SMALL BUSINESS
(CREATED PURSUANT TO S. RES. 11, 81ST CONGRESS)

July 12, 1963

Miss Frances C. Roberts
Post Office Box 860
Huntsville, Alabama

Dear Frances:

I have your letter of July 8. I greatly appreciate the invitation to speak before your Current Affairs Seminar on November 15. I naturally look forward to the opportunity.

There is one difficulty of which I am sure you must be aware. There are very pessimistic predictions as to the time that Congress will adjourn this year. In fact, some think we may be here until Christmas. Personally I doubt that. I believe we shall have quit before November 15 but no one can be certain.

I shall be glad to accept on the condition that Congress adjourns in time for me to get home by November 15. If for any reason that creates a difficulty for you, do not hesitate to say so.

Mrs. Sparkman joins me in sending our very best to you.

Sincerely,

John Sparkman

late in life and gave up a huge job to do it. He's smart and dedicated and I like him and Polly, his wife. I'm program chairman for our Guild this year and have enjoyed it. have gotten several nice compliments. Am going to get the Diocesan Ex Board to sponsor a Business Women's Camp similar to that in Alabama thought it would have to be sponsored by them first & then taken over.

The job is extremely taxing & I'm not busy enough but am lucky to have it and with all that retirement paid up I have to keep on so make the best of it and head during times between clients! No challenge, lots of "how-how" wasted!

Charles is doing graduate work at Harvard this year. Freda looks horrible & hasn't adjusted to Charlie's death. Tillie had her grandchildren which keeps her busy.

I miss you - would adore to have you come see me any time - just let me know

BOOK SHELF
 JOHN DAVID MARSHAL, Editor

NANNIE HERNDON RICE, A MEMORIAL ANTHOLOGY, 1886-1963. [Compiled by Frederic Francis Mellen, of Jackson, Mississippi.] The Tucker Printing House, c1966. 84 pp. ~~32-40~~ (Available from Frederic Francis Mellen, 142 Leavell Woods Drive, Jackson, Mississippi, 39212)

Reviewed by ETTA E. PACE, Mississippi State College for Women, Columbus, Mississippi.

What a happy experience to read the small, white volume, Nannie Herndon Rice, A Memorial Anthology, 1886-1963, compiled by her nephew, Frederic Francis Mellen, of Jackson, Mississippi. In these 84 pages, Mr. Mellen very deftly puts together a sampling of the thoughts and writings of his beloved aunt and gives to the reader a vivid picture of this rare woman who was scholar, teacher, librarian, writer, literary critic, farmer, humanitarian, bound into one small being.

The volume contains a tribute to Margaret Peebles, a respectful student assistant who later became her colleague at Mississippi State University. There are writings of Nannie Herndon Rice on Libraries in Mississippi, an article which appeared in American Mercury, January, 1966, entitled "Mississippi," with interesting footnotes showing favorable reactions of well-known literary critics and friends. There are essays and sonnets, three book reviews which appeared in the Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Tennessee, written under the name of Anne Coke. A biographical summary and a genealogical chart complete the volume.

Nannie Herndon Rice influenced many lives in her seventy-six years. Considering the full devotion of time and energy she gave to her profession, it is unbelievable that she still found time to lavish such love, affection, wisdom, and knowledge in counsel upon members of her family, particularly the younger ones. This keen interest in people and their needs extended to her friends and to her faithful servants. Margaret Peebles in her article, Miss Nannie, tells of her interest in the needs of her student workers. She tells of how Miss Nannie provided "a quart of milk" and "a packed lunch" for those who were not getting proper nourishment. She recognized human needs and at the same time inspired others through her own scholarly attainments and devotion to work.

While the biographical summary gives the main facts of her education and her professional life, it is impossible to convey the real extent of her influence felt by the people of her State; her Alma Mater, Mississippi State College for Women; the library profession, as President of the Mississippi Library Association; as Chairman of the Library Commission; and to the library at Mississippi State University. Many feel that it was the untiring work and vision of Miss Rice which made the Mitchell Memorial Library building at Mississippi State University become a reality in 1948.

Mr. Mellen has given to Mississippians, librarians, teachers, and friends a compact picture of a successful life as exemplified by Nannie Herndon Rice. Any reader will enjoy this volume but especially if he is a Mississippian or a librarian. One may feel a decrement at not having been born her nephew—or one of her student library assistants.

ATTENTION LIBRARIANS AVAILABLE!

Copies of NANNIE HERNDON RICE, A MEMORIAL ANTHOLOGY are available now only from the publisher. Limited in edition, but of value to students of Mississippians and of Library History, this little book should be in every library in the State.

In addition to the splendid review of Etta E. Pace in JOURNAL OF LIBRARY HISTORY, the book has been reviewed by Mary Clay Lloyd (a 1932 graduate with Miss Rice in Library Science at U. Ill.) in NEWS LETTER, The University of Illinois Library School Association (June, 1966 and June, 1967), in THE COMMERCIAL APPEAL in Paul Flower's "Greenhouse" (March 30, 1966) and by Margaret Peebles, Past Pres. of MLA in MISSISSIPPI LIBRARY NEWS, Vol. 30, No. 2 (June, 1966.)

Of subsequent interest, her survivors donated her collections of family and historical papers to Mitchell Memorial Library at Mississippi State University where they have been catalogued by, and are under the custody of, Willie D. Halsell. On recommendation of the Building Names Committee of Mississippi State University, the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning honored her memory by naming a new 7 story girls' dormitory, "Rice Dormitory." The 287-room building will be ready for occupancy in the Fall, 1968. A portrait of Miss Rice has been completed by Karl Wolfe and will be presented to the University to be hung in the new building.

Copies of NANNIE HERNDON RICE, A MEMORIAL ANTHOLOGY are now priced:

teach Sunday school (2nd, 3rd & 4th grades) next year. Also hope to do some alumnal work with my society's chapter at Auburn.

Hope all is well
with you. Know you stay busy. You were such a good influence in the lives of both Jim and me - we talk of you often. Hope we can do likewise for young

(On official paper)

Monsieur Robert Burns a été, cette année, mon étudiant à la Sorbonne. Il a passé ses examens avec le plus grand succès et les mentions les plus hautes. Il a participé avec compétence et talent à mes séminaires de recherches. Les questions qu'il y a posées étaient toujours du plus grand intérêt, et indiquaient un esprit pénétrant, lucide, ainsi qu'une culture solide et parfaitement assimilée. M. Burns, en particulier, a de Spinoza la connaissance la plus exacte. C'est un esprit précis et véritablement philosophique. Je suis convaincu qu'il sera un chercheur de premier ordre et un professeur excellent.

RIVAUD, Albert, "La Préparation du Catalogue critique et chronologique des oeuvres de Leibniz", in Journal des savants, July-August 1906 (Bibliothèque Nationale: Z 4075). Describes the research techniques that had to be developed to date and classify the 200,000 pages of manuscripts left by Leibniz. Only two volumes of the catalogue were published:

1. Kritischer Katalog der Leibniz-Handschriften, Erstes Heft (1646-1672) [by Paul RITTER and others], Berlin, 1908 (Bibliothèque Nationale: Fol. Q 249). This was printed by hand in German and reproduced in a limited number of copies.
2. Catalogue critique des manuscrits de Leibniz, Fascicule II (mars 1672-nov. 1676) [by RIVAUD and others], Poitiers, 1914-1924 (Bibliothèque nationale: 4^o Q 1785). The introduction serves as a continuation of Rivaud's article.
