THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT
and Thanksgiving Day, 1900.
The monument to the Confederate soldiers who fell in the great struggle for the preservation of the Union, and the establishment of the Confederate States of America, is now a reality. It is the largest and most magnificent monument ever erected in this country, and it is the only one of its kind. It is a fitting tribute to the brave men who fought and died for the cause of freedom and independence. It is a monument to the spirit of sacrifice and heroism which has always been the strength of our people. It is a monument to the principles of liberty and justice which have always been the foundation of our government. It is a monument to the men who have made our country what it is today. It is a monument to the men who have made our country what it is today.
