Page 9--The years of the Cankerworm bring to you the comfort it has brought to thousands. It will make your life stronger. It will make your life brighter. It will give you courage in the dark days.

Even in this present world and life our dreams do sometimes come true. I have lived long enough on this earth to see it in many instances. I have seen the proud brought low, the one-time rich bereft of riches and serving those once poor. I have seen the wicked punished so fittingly that one felt it was God's doing because of the absolute, unerring justice of it--because, in the words of the old song, the punishment did "fit the crime" so completely and rightly.

I have seen the poor become rich, the oppressed become free, the toiling slave of duty rewarded a thousandfold for his toil. One said to me, "For years I labored and toiled upward. Sickness and poverty and trouble were my portion. Duty bound me with chains I could break if I would, though I am glad to say I never tried. But at last, after many years, my reward has come, abundantly, richly, more than I ever hoped or expected. And let me tell you this: I am enjoying it as I never dreamed I could, and more, just because of the long, hard, heart-breaking struggle I had to win it, and to put me where I am today. Sometimes when I wake in the morning, I do not realize at first that I am not still living in the past, in the long dark days of struggle. Then I look about and do realize it, and enjoy the success: I have won all over again. One day, today"--note, he said this exact sentence and I have never forgotten even the wording--"One day, today, pays me many times over for all my toils, discouragement, and privation; and were I to live it over I would want it just as it has been."

It is a great thing to be able to say that, and this man did say it with intense earnestness.
