EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN ACTIVITIES
 THE BISHOP'S GUILD was formed in 1982 by the Women of the Cathedral Church of the Advent. Its primary function is to coordinate receptions held in conjunction with the ordination of priests, area-wide confirmations and similar events held at the Cathedral. Funds are provided by the ECW of the Cathedral and donations from other parishes directly involved. Birmingham Convocation parishes prepare food and serve. If your parish is among those having a function at the Cathedral and you would like to participate, please contact the Birmingham Convocation Coordinator.

UTO GRANT - The Diocese of Alabama received two grants in 1987 and two in 1988. Grant Request Packets should be in Bishop Miller's office by the first week in October. The deadline for receipt of Grant Requests by the Diocesan UTO Coordinator is December 1. Grants will be done by the National UTO Committee in July. Requests & Application Forms must go to Bishop Miller's office.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED is an organized, ecumenical movement of all Christian women who are dedicated to making peace and justice a reality for all people in the world. Episcopal Church Women are invited and encouraged to attend Celebratic Days - WORLD DAY OF PRAYER, MAY FELLOWSHIP DAY, and WORLD COMMUNITY DAY - and to participate in all local and statewide activities. For the next quadrennium II program focus will be on POVERTY OF WOMEN & CHILDREN and HEALTH CARE. The National Second Vice-President Jo Walton, 804 Gaillard Drive, Tuskegee, AL (727-2083).

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING is an Order for laywomen of the Episcopal Church. Every member pledges herself to a life-long rule of prayer, service and personal evangelism, dedicated to the extension of Christ's kingdom and to strengthening of spiritual life of her parish. Mrs. James Hart (Elizabeth), 24649 Calvert St., Woodland Hills, Ca. 91367 is the national president of Daughters. Contact her at 818-407-0291 for information.

WOMEN'S WEEKEND - CAMP McDOWELL - May 14, 15, 16, 1993. Please mail registrations to the Treasurer appointed by the host Convocation.

 CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB (CPC) - An affiliated agency of the Episcopal Church. It is the only organization in the Church dedicated solely to providing printed material free to those in need. CPC was founded in 1888 by Mary Ann Fargo, wife of a member of the Wells Fargo Express firm. On a trip to the Dakotas with her husband, she learned of the great need on the frontiers for Bibles and other spiritual literature. Mrs. Fargo and friends in her Church in New York sent their bundles of books and periodicals westward to missionaries and pioneers via stagecoach. From this time beginning a great network of CPC has spread throughout the American Church.

The first Sunday in October is designated as CPC Sunday. Special prayers, a sermon on the ministry of the printed word, and a special collection for CPC may be given on this Sunday. Half of the monies collected stay within our Diocese and the other half go to the national office for greater distribution. Hospitals, retirement homes, prisons, and juvenile facilities need books, magazines, Braille Bibles, etc. Also our seminarians need textbooks.

The quarters and dollars you give buy printed materials which, along with our prayers, go "into all the world" preaching, teaching, healing. Please send your gift to the Diocesan Treasurer: Toni Robertson, P. O. Box 333, Fayette, AL 35555

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN: STRUCTURE OF ECW FROM PARISH TO NATIONAL LEVEL

ECW structure begins in the individual parish, or "branch," a number of "branches" form a convocation.

FOURTH PROVINCE CHURCH WOMEN'S OFFICERS 1991-1994: Coordinator: Lucy Perry 4320 Farmington Court, NW, Atlanta, GA 30039, (404) 435-7548; Representative to the ECW National Board: Gini Peterson 2256 Lexington Avenue, Stone Mountain, GA 30087; Representative to the United Thank Offering Committee: Barbara Myrick 3613 Cottage Club Lane, Naples, FL 33942; Alternate: Marti Williams 144 Longwood Drive, Clinton, MS 39056; Member at Large: Beth Jett #9 Deepwood Drive, Lexington, KY 40505; Church Periodical Club Officer: Karen Patterson 1801 Green Oak Lane, Dade City, FL 33525

NATIONAL ALTAR GUILD PRESIDENT: Barbara Wilson.

Every third year representatives from all the dioceses in the Church meet at a national meeting known as Triennial. This meets simultaneously with General Convention, Triennial will be held in 1994.

What is now considered the first "Triennial" took place in 1874 when some sixty-six women from five dioceses met for one afternoon in New York City. They became the Women's Auxiliary, "auxiliary" that is, to the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church. The auxiliary concept remains relations of the sexes. Not until 1958 was the "auxiliary" concept finally shed. In that year the Women's Auxiliary passed away and the Episcopal Churchwomen was born.

Throughout the thirty-nine meetings known as "Triennials" Episcopal Women have expressed their concern in many areas. As the Triennial Meetings do not have canonical status and are thus unable to make decisions binding upon the whole church, the women have felt free to be innovators, the educators, the reconcilers, and the missionaries. They also feel at liberty to express themselves in various ways and to influence the actions of the General Convention by their presence and their concern. The Triennial Meeting is often called "the heart of the convention."

At Triennial the U.T.O. grants are made, leadership training is given and the women who are attending learn first hand what is happening in the national Church. Study guides, program ideas, inspirational and educational material of all kinds are brought from Triennial back to the diocese where they are available to the convocations and "branches" who wish to use them.

The Altar Guild

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Nativity was organized in 1903, under the direction of Mrs. C. F. Massey. The original rules, adopted in 1905, limited the number of officers to five, and the maximum membership to twenty-five. The officers consisted of Directress, Sub-Directress, Secretary and Treasurer, and this maximum, with reference to officers and membership still obtains. The object of the organization was to provide for the suitable furnishing and maintenance of the altar and to take due and reverent care of its appointments. Each month a committee of three is delegated with responsibility of this duty. The expense incident to its operation is borne entirely through the efforts of its members. The following have served ably as Directresses: Mrs. C. F. Massey, Miss Antonia Karthaus, Miss Elizabeth Chapman, Mrs. Clarendon Davis and Mrs. Ben Lee Young. The last named having served during the major portion of its existence. The following objectives have been added to the original altar duties: Clothing a blind girl, milk fund for undernourished children and an annual visit to the Alms House on Thanksgiving carrying fruit from the altar to its inmates.

Finally, the Masonic Lodge Room was procured, and services were continued in that building until the end of the year 1833. It was during the Lodge Room period that the first bishop made a visitation in Huntsville. The Rt. Rev. James H. Otey made the trip from the neighboring Diocese of Tennessee and confirmed Miss Henrietta Brown, who was a teacher in the Huntsville Seminary.

DISCOURAGING TIMES

Mr. Robertson had a most disheartening experience with his congregation. It is recorded that "the missionary experienced little sympathy; and finding that nothing was done toward erecting a church or providing for a minister, he retired at the close of 1835 to his plantation in Jackson County". For seven years no further effort was made to organize a parish. One wonders what became of those gentlemen who had expressed themselves as so keenly interested in the establishment of a church. It is not recorded that any delegates attended the Diocesan Conventions during those years. Episcopal Church life in Huntsville went to sleep.

ANOTHER START

Finally two clergymen visited Huntsville in December, 1842, and through their efforts a meeting of the Episcopalians was held and an organization of a parish effected on December 17th. Mr. George P. Beirne presided at the meeting, and, in addition to himself, there were elected on the Vestry the following men: Henry M. Robertson, John Ogden, James Penn, and J. Withers Clay. The Parish was named the "Church of the Nativity" because of the approaching Christmas season.

BEGINNING OF OFFICIAL LIFE

A Church is not an Episcopal Church until it is received into a Diocese under the authority of the Bishop. So the official life of the Parish began when a delegation from the newly elected Vestry attended the Diocesan Convention in May, 1843, and asked that the Church of the Nativity in Huntsville be received into the Diocese. Of course the request was accorded to, and shortly thereafter the Vestry elected as the first Rector of the Church, the Rev. F. H. Laird, who arrived to take up his duties in November. The Parish was not self-supporting at this time. The Board of Domestic Missions of the National Church assisted in the maintenance of Mr. Laird. This Rector also found difficulty in the matter of securing a place for worship. The Presbyterians lent their church building for the first services. Then the congregation worshipped for a while in the schoolroom of Mrs. Jane L. Childs. And then, the Church seeming to be on some better terms with the Law, the U. S. District Court Room in the basement of the Court House was secured as a place to worship. During Mr. Laird's rectorship in 1845, the lot at the corner of Eustis and Green Streets was bought from John Y. Bassett for $100.00, and the construction of a church building was begun. But Mr. Laird resigned in 1846. He never conducted a service in the new church for which he planned.

NEW RECTOR—DAYS OF PROGRESS

In 1847 the Rev. Henry C. Lay, of the Diocese of Virginia, was elected Rector. After a few more months of services in the Court House, the church building being completed, the congregation first worshipped there in August of 1847. Within the same month the Vestry declared the Church to be self-supporting and thereafter no missionary funds were used for the support of a minister in Huntsville.

The Rev. Mr. Lay served as Rector for twelve years. Those twelve years prove themselves to have been the period of greatest progress that the Church of the Nativity ever experienced in so short a time. It is stated in the records that at the time Mr. Lay came to Huntsville as the Rector, there were not but twelve communicants actually resident or available, and of that twelve there was only one male member. No doubt there were a number of interested members of the congregation who had not been confirmed and were not listed officially as communicants. At that time, apparently, it was not realized that a systematic list of members of the Church.

MISSIONARY ACTIVITY

During Mr. Lay's rectorship, the Church, realizing that for many years it had been an object of the missionary interest of others, set out to repay that debt in some measure by engaging upon missionary activities. In 1851 the congregation began to furnish half the support of the Rev. T. A. Morris who was a missionary in this section of the Tennessee valley. Mr. Lay came to Huntsville as a deacon, and he left twelve years later as a bishop, having been elected Missionary Bishop of the Southwest by the General Convention of the Church held at Richmond in 1859.

During Mr. Lay's rectorship the membership grew so fast that it was necessary to plan for a new building. When Bishop Lay severed his connection with this Parish in 1859 he left the present church building as an inspiring memorial to his labors.

The Church purchased a Rectory on Green Street, opposite the present church building, during that time. A Parish school was established. All debts were paid with the exception of $2,606, which was still owed on the new church structure. As is so often the fate of ministers, he was not privileged long to enjoy the fruits of his labors. The first
