MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT

WE CHEERFULLY send SAMPLES of any kind or quality of FINE goods without charge, on application by postal or otherwise, and would endeavor to impress upon you the advisability of being as EXPLICIT AS POSSIBLE as to color, price and width, and we can then send more suitable samples instead of a great lot that would be useless to you, but of considerable value to us. When ordering goods and samples at the same time, kindly WRITE THE ORDER FOR SAMPLES ON A SEPARATE SHEET OF PAPER.

When making up your order, please USE THE BLANK FORM which we send with all samples (duplicates can be had on request), filling out all blanks, giving name, post-office, nearest express office, county, State and AMOUNT OF ENCLOSURE, written plainly—illegible orders and imperfect addresses are necessarily attended to last.

ALWAYS SIGN THE SAME NAME, as much annoyance and often delay is caused by our not knowing that Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. John Smith are the same person, and when initials only are used whether to address Mrs., Miss or Mr., and thus avoid delay in delivering. Please state definitely whether you will PERMIT US TO SUBSTITUTE should your selection not be in stock, as many VEXATIOUS DELAYS MAY BE PREVENTED by allowing us to do so. We will otherwise be compelled to write you submitting samples nearest, and perhaps the very one you select will be sold ere we can hear from you. We strongly urge you to MAKE A SECOND CHOICE when making up your order.

When ordering from Catalogue, quote number of Catalogue, number of article, page, size and price of article desired, and DO NOT CUT THE CATALOGUE, as you may find it of use later.

When any of the DETAILS ARE LEFT TO OUR JUDGMENT we invariably discriminate in the purchaser's favor, and rarely fail to give the utmost satisfaction, provided, of course that the order is plain and explicit and the articles desired can be procured.

We are always willing to EXCHANGE GOODS that do not please after being received, EXCEPTING those that have been CUT OFF TO YOUR ORDER, as the fact that they are cut off necessarily depreciates their value to us.

Any article to be RETURNED BY EXPRESS should have your name and address attached INSIDE THE PACKAGE. When RETURNED BY MAIL it must be wrapped so as to admit of easy inspection by the postoffice authorities, without cutting the wrapper or cord with which it may be tied; writing of any kind must not be enclosed with goods sent by mail, otherwise the full letter rate will be exacted. ALWAYS WRITE US THE SAME DAY GOODS ARE RETURNED.

When ordering goods to be sent by mail ALWAYS INCLUDE SUFFICIENT POSTAGE, and it is well to estimate liberally in this respect, as when the amount sent is insufficient the PACKAGE MAY BE DETAINED until the necessary amount is forwarded; any SURPLUS will be scrupulously accounted for.

We are aware that there are houses in our line who PAY ALL TRANSPORTATION CHARGES, regardless of distance, but we can conceive of no plan by which this can be accomplished except by ADDING TO THE PRICE OF THE GOODS sufficient to cover this concession, and while it would be a simple matter for us to do so, we prefer to sell goods to all purchasers, whether at home or abroad, at the VERY LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. We submit to your good judgment to decide which is the more commendable policy to pursue.

WE FREQUENTLY RECEIVE ORDERS WITH THE REQUEST THAT GOODS BE FORWARDED AND MONEY WILL BE REMITTED BY RETURN MAIL, AND TO ALL SUCH WE BEG TO STATE THAT WE HAVE BEEN ENDEAVORING EACH YEAR TO ESTABLISH THIS DEPARTMENT MORE FIRMLY ON A STRICTLY CASH BASIS, OUR LARGE EXPERIENCE PROVING THIS MODE TO BE MORE SATISFACTORY TO BOTH OUR CUSTOMERS AND OURSELVES, AND WHILE WE ARE NOT ONLY WILLING BUT ANXIOUS TO ACCOMMODATE ALL AS FAR AS POSSIBLE, WE CANNOT SEND GOODS ON THESE TERMS UNLESS THE REQUEST BE ACCOMPANIED BY RELIABLE CITY REFERENCES.

How to Send Money by Mail.

All our letters are opened in the office by competent and trusted assistants under the personal supervision of a member of the firm, and a record is made of all remittances found enclosed, then the whole is handed to two or more OTHER persons who carefully inspect it, and make another record, thus guarding against the possibility of error.

NEVER SEND MONEY IN ORDINARY LETTERS.

THE SAFEST and most convenient form of remittance is by POSTOFFICE ORDER, as there is absolutely no risk of losing your money, because no person except the one to whom it is made payable can collect the money, and if lost, stolen or destroyed, a duplicate will be issued. We recommend this as POSITIVELY THE BEST WAY TO SEND MONEY BY MAIL. The rates are, for any amount not exceeding $5.00, 5 cents; over $5.00 and not exceeding $10.00, 8 cents; over $10.00 and not exceeding $15.00, 10 cents.

LETTERS CAN BE REGISTERED at any postoffice, and though not as safe as the postal order, are far safer than by open mail, and when the postoffice from which you remit has no money order department, it is best to register them, enclosing PAPER MONEY, and stamps for any amount less than a dollar, as SILVER is liable to force its way through the envelope and be LOST.

BANK DRAFTS on any principal city can be procured at all banks, and are a safe form of remittance also for those who find it more convenient, as the bank will issue a duplicate when satisfied of loss.

CHECKS, unless CERTIFIED, should always be accompanied by good references.

POSTAGE STAMPS of any denomination in good condition, will be received in payment for orders amounting to one dollar or less.

We remit balance due to customers on the same day the order is filled.

When orders are not accompanied by remittance, goods will be shipped by express, C. O. D., in all cases when the consignee is not known to us; PACKAGES CANNOT BE SENT C. O. D. BY MAIL.

Articles from which a choice is to be made, as Cloaks, Curtains, etc., can be sent by express, C. O. D., WITH PRIVILEGE TO EXAMINE AND SELECT; those not desired to be returned at our expense; the person ordering to pay express charges one way.

IF YOU RECEIVE TWO COPIES OF THIS BOOK PLEASE HAND ONE TO YOUR NEIGHBOR.

ON TRANSPORTATION.

Please let us suggest that if you have an express office in or near your town, that you order your goods shipped BY EXPRESS, as the companies are liable for damage to, or loss of, the package while in transit and until delivered to consignee. SMALL PACKAGES, and oftentimes those that are to be sent long distances, go CHEAPER BY MAIL; the limit of weight is four pounds, and the rate ONE CENT PER OUNCE, and if REGISTERED, TEN CENTS ADDITIONAL.

Through an arrangement with the House Insurance Company, of New York, we can INSURE PACKAGES sent by mail at the following rates: For packages worth $5.00 or less, 5 cents, in an addition to the regular postal rate of 1 cent per ounce; from $5.00 to $10.00, 10 cents additional; from $10.00 to $25.00, 15 cents additional; and from $25.00 to $100.00, 20 cents additional. This is preferable to the P. O. Registry, as for ordinary packages the cost is the same, and when lost will be promptly indemnified, so there is absolutely no risk to you.

When you do not state how goods are to be shipped we send them THE BEST AND CHEAPEST WAY.

Fashions, Fads and Fancies.

WITH the bursting of spring buds and blossoms comes a general awakening in the world of fashion.

The chrysalis of heavy woollens and fur that has for months past so persistently bound devotees of the fickle goddess, cast aside and replaced by the dainty, bright-hued fabrics ushered in by spring 1893, tends to make the world brighter for the change—brighter in appearance at least, and so beautiful and artistic are these same 1893 materials for spring and summer wear that even the demure little brown wrens of society never known to indulge in gayer plumage than Quaker grey, subdued browns and their kindred shades, will, we predict, be won over to the donning of these closely-allied-to-the-rainbow tints found in the irresistible Silk wool and Cotton dress fabrics.

Advanced styles in Spring Dress goods gave a decided suggestion that plaids would still hold the popular fancy—the suggestion has been confirmed and even the handsome English Suitings show a gradual evolution from almost invisible pin-checks through intermediate size barred and cross-barred effects to the “sure enough” plaids in exquisite French colorings and combinations, while genuine Scottish clans are shown in handsome Silks and fine French wash goods.

More unassuming than the plaids, yet none the less elegant, Pin-check English Suitings show the designers and manufacturers art at its best.

The intricate yet artistic combining of colors—blue and steel, reseda and cresson, tan and olive, tan and copper, etc., to the uninitiated are past finding out. The effect of stylish goods, however, is just the same and delighted buyers are satisfied with results.

The artistic beauty of Silk and Wool individual patterns is specially marked. Combinations of Silk and Wool fabrics present a perfect mosaic effect in design, while the soft, glinting lights and shadows in changeable loveliness give color tones exquisite and charming.

1893 French Challies, a triumph in textile art, both in design and weave.

Soft, creamy grounds bristling with wheat-heads in tender krenlin green, single, bunched or vining roses and morning-glories, pink and white apple-blossoms, full-blown pansies and half-closed buds of palest green dropped over steely blue and black grounds—these, but mere mention of exquisite assortments.

Most happy and pleasing the changes rung on the ever popular Grenadines—1893 ushers in a new departure from several seasons past and gives us most artistic changeable effects—black with gendarme, navy, brown, garnet and green respectively—over laid in scroll-like designs; narrow, inch-wide black satin stripes cut into broader stripes the entire iridescent surfaces.

Still another beautiful design is the great bunches of field daisies thrown in careless profusion over shimmering grounds.

With the revival of 1830 styles have come all the quaint beauty of that remote period with the additional experience attained during the intervening years by designers and manufacturers until the highest art in textile manufacture has been reached and the artistic beauty of our constantly increasing dress goods and silks charm and captivate.

These elegant materials with Challies, Laces, Embroideries, fine French Cottons, etc., in all the daintiness of exquisite colorings, texture and designs, make the gown possibilities for 1893 such as would make even those of 1830 dames pale into utter insignificance.

Some of the new Spring shades are, Lichen, (sage green); Feuillage, (foliage green); Beyrouth, (navy); Sumatra, (beige brown); Chasseux, (blue gray); Aloes, (greenish gray); Islande, (bright green); Antilles, (grayish green); Cactus, (dull green).

GLOVES.—Among the most stylish gloves are 4-Button Cream Suedes with embroidered back, welt and button holes done in colors—Navy, Steel, Brown, Red. 4 large pearl buttons in exact colorings of trimmings close these handsome new designs which bid fair to great popularity.

Large buttons “all the go”—metal, white or tinted pearl according to the glove requirement.

Experience proves that white gloves make the hands look larger than tinted ones. Although that fact does not effect the great demand for them.

Suedes for dress; Biarritz, or elegant imperial Point Pique gloves for traveling and general wear—the latter in English Red, Navy, Tan and Black,—4 stylish brass buttons also close these handsome favorites and every wearer of taste feels conscious of having the “correct” glove for general wear.

Who can do justice to the new Spring Cape? The changes rung on this ever-convenient garment are sufficiently numerous to satisfy every taste—capas long and capas short; single, double or triple collar; self-material and ribbon “rufl”—either or both combined in true Parisian style. Broadcloths, Velvet deSoie, Bengaline, Matelasse, etc., etc., are but few of the desirable materials; lined and unlined, plain, braided, appliqued, etc. The Butterfly and Derby Collars of these give a stylish appearance to one's costume surpassing that of all other Spring Wraps.

Yes, Cape is Queen of the Wraps—fashion decrees it, fashion's followers accept it, glad for the convenient, easy-put-on-and-taken-off garments—the salvation of the Empire Sleeves and Waist—their popularity is assured.

BLACK SILK WARP HENRIETTAS.

The best comes from England—All Wool Cashmeres and Henriettas, the best come from France and Germany. America the greatest country in the world has and is making splendid Dress goods of many kinds, but have thus far not succeeded in making all wool or Silk Warp Black Cashmeres and Henriettas equal to the foreign goods. European makers know the kind of wool and silk that make these goods right—they take more pains in the dyeing and preparing the yarn and finishing the goods, than our hurried American makers—and this is important both to you and to us—if we sell the best in Black Goods and at less prices, as we do, then we can expect the preference of your patronage—that's what has given us our immense Black business, growing every day. Mail Order Dept sends Black goods every day to every State and Territory at the same low prices as sold over our counters.

DRESS TRIMMINGS.

THE trimmings take no secondary place in importance on the fashionably made gown. Perfect works of art are many of the garniture accessories for this season. Buckles and clasps for waist, girdle, bands and bows come in gold, silver, steel and bronze filigree work—plain and jewel-studded; chaste and beautiful enameled Persian buckles; cut steel and jet; pearl—white, natural and small—without doubt this is a season of buckles—long Empire styles, and small ones used singly or by the dozen or half dozen in decoration of bands, slippers, etc. Gimps, cords, braids and bands in newest cashmere, Persian and Scottish color mixtures; Bolero, Eton and all new Empire effects in solid shades, jet and cashmere designs; pearl and opal bands, fringes, edges, pendants, etc.; new and artistic band effects wrought on Brussels net with Crystal beads and silver sequins. Jeweled effects have taken on a new lease of life and all the French novelties come to us glittering specimen of artistic beauty. The jaunty effect of the Bolero garniture has established it as a decided favorite, coming, as it does, in an almost endless variety of designs, with the additional desirable quality of being adapted to several gowns—if it be adjustable and harmony of colorings prevail.

LACES.

VALUED next to her diamonds, the wonder is not great that women of refined taste should make a study of what we might call the "Fine Art" of lace making—to such extent, at least, as educates her in distinguishing the real from imitation; the good imitation from shoddy,—thus enabling her to add selections of genuine merit when her stock is to be replenished. That this is to be a lace season is an established fact—and what more desirable? Since the good old colonial days when appreciation of filmy-meshed Old Pointe, Brussels, Honiton, etc., was highest, never has there been such an opportunity as the present for indulgence in this luxury of refined taste. Apparently, manufacturers and designers realize this, and to meet the demand have produced not only the "Real" but such close imitations of filmy, cob-weby Oriental, Margot, Vieux Brussels, Bretonne, Pt. Alencon, etc., as well as the more sturdy styles of Bruges, Pt. Flanders, Honiton, etc., in such choice, artistic designs as will delight the heart of every lover of lace, and mark 1893 an important era in the realm of fashion on account of the revival of these old filmy fabrics. This being one of the

THE 1893 EMBROIDERIES are, without doubt, perfect specimens of art needle-work. The day is past when stiletto-punched holes—singly or in groups—and clumsily “worked” scalloped edges will satisfy the artistic taste, but the materials, work and designs which have evolved from the old Hamburg styles as shown in this season’s importations are worthy to be called masterpieces of art in embroidery.

Among the finer ones are Honiton, Guipure, Irish Point, Point de Venise and Shadow Embroideries, sheer and beautiful.

“All-Over” Embroideries in dotted Swiss, Guipure, Ribbon Effects, etc.—ruffles wide and narrow to match, for skirt, “Bertha” and belt of the ever popular Empire style.

Skirtings with colored insertion effects.

Inch wide Edges in lavender and white, yellow and white, solid or “blind” embroidery. The shades of yellow, canary, pink, rose, lavender, light and dark blue and black are the most perfect on the French color cards, the designs numerous and artistic, giving great range for selection, and these solid patterns—as also the more open designs—will prove popular and effective trimming for the many new and artistic cotton dress fabrics in vogue this season—correct weights for all, from the firm, closely woven Anderson’s Zephyrs, Dimities and Satin Glorias to sheerest of fine French Organdies.

When requesting samples always state the quality, width and approximate price.

27 and 45 inch Flouncings always come in 4½ yard lengths. We can only cut them in lengths up to 2½ yards, or otherwise sell the entire piece, as other lengths entail us a loss.

RIBBONS.

ONE OF THE POSITIVE and unmistakable decreases of Dame Fashion, in the matter of Dress Trimmings, is that Ribbons are again to form a very considerable part for Spring and Summer styles. From one to seven ruffles of Satin Ribbon placed two inches or a trifle apart, will be seen on many of the Spring costumes.

For trimming Challis, India Silks and other light Summer fabrics, there is really no trimming that adapts itself so readily and so perfectly to the ever changing modes as ribbon. Ribbon is essentially a summer trimming—light and airy. Plaid ribbon is the newest idea and will be used largely for dress trimmings and millinery purposes. Glace or changeable effects will be much worn. The staple lines, Plain Gros Grains, Satin Edges, Satin and Gros Grain, and Moire or Watered Ribbons will be in favor in about the order named.

Satin and Velvet Ribbons will be seen on nearly all the bonnets for ties or strings, and the larger hats, which are again to be very popular and are so becoming in white and all light colors, are literally covered with ribbons ranging from 3 to 6 inches wide, in plaids, plain, broche, black and white, colors with fancy edges, and a hundred other varieties, whatever suits the taste of the wearers best. We carry complete lines of all plain and fancy ribbons, in medium and finest grades, and selling them on our usual Dry Goods profit, you will find it advantageous to send us your orders for these goods. Samples upon request.

VEILINGS.

FASHIONS change in these goods with every recurring season. Many novelties are shown this season and a ladies street toilette this spring is incomplete without a veil of some kind. GLOVES.

UPON no accessory of a lady's toilet does so much depend for perfect effect—and consequent satisfaction—as upon her gloves. Fresh and shapely, they are a true indication of high-bred refinement; buttonless, shabby, and worn with no adaptation to costume, as to material or color, they stamp the wearer a person sadly lacking in those requisites which mark the careful dresser of refined taste.

For dress, evening and all occasions of ceremony, the suede still leads as to material. 4, 8, 12 to 20 button lengths. White stands preeminent à la choice for evening dress, while all the soft tones of the French color-card give ample range for selection to gratify every taste. For street and general wear the variety of shades has never been equalled—Tans and Browns, always good, are followed by Navy, Green and the Purplish shades in various novelties which have already become established favorites.

Large buttons have taken a firm hold upon popular favor and come not only in pure Pearl, but also in same shade as the gloves—glace bindings, buttons and embroidery to match on contrasting shade of kid are popular novelties.

Everything new in gloves is quickly added to this department, giving our customers widest range for selection both in staple and novelties.

HOSIERY.

THE time has come when refined women are as fastidious in regard to their Hosiery as to the quality, fit and finish of their gloves; and why not? Surely, having one's feet clad in the best of it's kind, whether Cotton, Cashmere, Lisle or Silk, is indicative of those finer sensibilities which put a premium on quality and condition of under garments, rather than those of the outer garb. That the "best is the cheapest" was never more truly said of anything than of Hosiery. That only standard qualities compose our stock is equally true, and that for variety of styles in Staple and Novelty Goods, this Department is unsurpassed—has become proverbial, the truth of which is attested, not only by immense home patronage, but by mail orders from far and near.

Promptness in filling all orders—a guarantee that all work will be satisfactory and at less than prevailing and usual millinery prices, will be the method on which this department will be conducted, and on these lines we hope to win your favor and patronage.

PARASOLS.

189) INGENUITY and artistic taste have proven a strong combination in producing some of the most beautiful "Sunshade" effects since the time of Grand-dames of the several remote periods back to which Dame Fashion has seen fit to lead her devotees.

Coachings primly plain and straight; shapes flat or full and voluminous with puffs, ruffles and furbelows sufficient to satisfy the most frivolous.

Chief among materials are Taffeta, Gros-grain, Surah, Satin, Swivel and Printed Silks. Surahs plain, plaided, striped and iridescent; Indias plain and figured—petite pois and numerous other old-fashioned designs; Chiffon, Crepe de Chine and Gause in solid white or black; again, breadths of Silk with ruffles and insertions of lace, in Applique; ruffles and puffs of Chiffon, Crepe de Chine, etc., form combinations giving such airy, fairy Parasol creations as will delight the most fastidious, while the more quiet taste is fully satisfied in the severer Coaching Styles, which come straight and prim, shorn of all attempt at decoration, save the elegant Dresden Knob, or choice natural wood stick and handsome silk tassel, snugly encased in silken cases of like shade. These coachings come plain or striped in all newest colors—brown, tan, blue, violet, heliotrope, cactus, sage, black and white.

Only necessary to say that sticks and handles are in keeping with the entire artistic make-up of this Season's Parasol Styles, being of Ebony, Holly, Natural, Sweet-scented woods and Dresden.

Parasollettes, or Carriage Shades, will be a great feature in their line for this Columbian Year.

Artistically Made and Trimmed Parasols of Chiffon, Crepe de Chine and Lacc, in black and white. $8.00, 10.00, 12.50 to 20.00

UMBRELLAS.

AMERICAN Umbrella Manufacture stands pre-eminent for durability and attractiveness. So says good commercial authority. The truth of the assertion we believe to be proven right here in our large stock of this commodity. The almost universal custom of carrying an umbrella—rain or shine—has caused womankind especially, to become more fastidious in regard to this necessary accessory, and 'tis the exception to see a well-dressed woman without an accompanying umbrella with artistic Stick of choice natural wood; Ivory or Dresden handle. Coming, as they do, in medium to finest grades of silk, for the economically inclined a 26-inch Union or Windsor often serves the double purpose of protection from sun and rain, and when not in use, tightly rolled gives a chic, jaunty and refined appearance whether on promenade or traveling. In Sticks, while many of the choicest natural woods are retained, reappearing in old as well as new designs—the "Prince of Wales Hook" is one of the most popular this season—many new and unique handles are shown in knotted celluloid loops, plain and decorated; celluloid and ivory hooks, with sterling silver and gold mountings set with imitation precious stones, highly polished petrified wood, etc.

CURTAINS AND UPHOLSTERY.

HAS IT EVER OCCURRED TO YOU—not in a roundabout way, but direct to your individual sense—that you pay too much money for your Curtains—too much for the kind you get? If not, it's time you would think about it. You are well up on Dress Goods, Linens, etc., why not on Curtains? It's just as easy, just as thinkable, just as demonstrable. Give us a chance to show you what we can do to help you acquire good, sound, economical Curtain knowledge. Proof of Unrivalled Superiority.

Those who are aware of the difficulty of establishing facts in the public mind will understand the cost of such an effort. It is a well known fact that the best endorsement of perfection an article can have is when unprincipled parties imitate that article. This is what has happened to again and again, more frequent of recent years, since their Wash Silk and high-class Art Finesses attained such indisputable merit.

The only consoling feature in the matter is the endorsement they receive in this indirect way. The fact that the leading schools of Art Needlework and the representative stores in the larger cities use their Wash Silks, Knitting Silk and Crochet Silk is sufficient guarantee of excellence. Highest medals awarded at every competitive exposition. See page 83 for price list, and address all orders to

These Corsets are becoming very popular with Dress-makers, because they find it much easier to make a stylish, perfect fitting waist over them, than over the ordinary shape.

They have perfectly formed high busts; extra long waists, and being boned with the unbreakable Kabo, are giving entire satisfaction.

All Kabo Corsets are made with the soft loop eyelets, which prevent the cutting of corset laces and discoloring of undergarments, characteristic of the metal eyelets. Try them, you'll surely like them.
