Dear Aunt,

Here I am a gain writing to you altho' I have nothing much to communicate. We are all in our usual health and spirits and the prospects for me are about the same as when I last wrote. My boy is still the most beautiful boy the world ever saw and the sweetest sort of a boy quite cemented. Looking with his long white lock. His voice and manner are indescribable as well as unimitable, as I told

Several of whom are my particular friends I intend to try for this year next year - there is a large Methodist female College here with two hundred girls in it - and Dr Sheffy told me that the practice there was worth $1000 per annum
The principal has the choosing of the Dr. and he is one of my friends and I am in hopes that at the next session I will get some of the practice - You see I still live in hope -
I have not got a horse yet for even is worth a dollar per week - I would like much to be with you

all during the wedding times but it can't be William has promised to pay us a visit in the fall this - We are in great hopes of seeing you & Mrs Broyles here this year if you go to Cherry - The Cholera is in Memphis and if it should reach here
I will send Sis &
the little ones to the valley - My best love to Mrs B. & all - would like to hear from you on the passing events Yours with great respect practice. I have not heard a word from home since the 14th July. and there was ample time from the time I wrote unto Tuesday morning last for Pa to get here & he has not come.

 & I expect he has concluded the risk was too great & he is daily getting worse. & I have now concluded that if he does come & wishes me to go with him for you. He not go beyond Louisville, Ky. & will be back in three days. so I want you to come on right off I will go to the cars on Tues. night to meet you if you get this late car send again to the Post of on Monday or I may write you again.
 G. K. is with me

he is getting up a Company for the War. & I expect that in a few days or weeks I will be off too if I don't go with him. so I want you here to spend a few more days with me, as God alone can tell when we will meet
 if I enlist.
 Mrs. Frank Mas-
 tin has gone to you to nurse Charly. I fear he is dead by this time. I am sick took to my bed yesterday & keepal - whole day & am not able to be up to day. pain in
