Ma. Co. Churches
Locust Grove - Baptist
4B4 (31)

Dedication of the educational building, Sept. 15, 1963. The men in front are Homer Fears, Pastor Marion Hill, and C. M. Green. Bros. Fears and Green were members of the building committee.

With additional Sunday School space needed, Locust Grove decided in 1962 to erect a new education building, adding it to the rear of the sanctuary. Reflecting a change in the times, and new prosperity, this time the members elected to borrow money and to contract for the structure—at least to hire the principal part of the labor. In September, 1962, the church voted to issue bonds to finance the building—$25,000, to be repaid over a period of 14½ years (which will expire in the next several months, making the structure debt-free). The building committee, according to C. M. Green and Homer Fears, inspected a new education building recently completed at Union Grove Baptist Church and decided to use much the same plan. Bro. F. Marion Hill was pastor during the planning, construction and early occupancy of the building. It was dedicated Sept. 15, 1963, according to an article in The Alabama Baptist—Locust Grove records do not give a date. It was a two-story structure, completely air conditioned.

An Interview With Mr. Harry

Harry B. Lawler, at age 90 the oldest member of the Locust Grove Baptist Church, is a man of sharp mind, dependable memory and lively wit. Although hard of hearing and of failing sight in recent years, his mental faculties serve him well, and he provides invaluable information on the life and times of Locust Grove. After all, his life has spanned all but 18 years of Locust Grove's existence. The church meeting

Sunday School Superintendents

As noted elsewhere, the first Sabbath School was started at Locust Grove in 1879. It was highly erratic, however, and no thriving, continuing Sunday School got under way until 1915. Highest enrollment was 235 in 1968. Listed here are the superintendents who have served since 1924; the extent to which present records cover:

C. W. Lawler	Sept. 1924 - Nov. 1925	Bill Clayton	1929
H. B. Lawler	Nov. 1925 - 1928	Leo Lawler	1960-61
