Downtown Madison Stores

1. The U.S. Post Office is on the lot of the old George W. Wise store. The Post Office was dedicated on May 6, 1962.
2. There were three stores to the west of this office that burned on October 20, 1942. A store building owned by J.E. Williams was an old one-story frame building which held the O&B cafe run by Mrs. Willie Sexton; a barber shop run by Bob Shelton, and a general merchandise store owned by D.C. Broyles.
3. The present Barber Shop was originally built by Mr. Emmett B. Manley for lease to the Post Office Dept. Later was bought by Mr. Bob Shelton for a Barber Shop and now is owned by his son Hoyt Shelton.
4. Barbara's Dress Shoppe is the site of the old Jim Bronaugh store. Mr. D.C. Broyles moved his store here after the fire in 1942.
5. Whitworth Realty, believed to be one of the first stores in Madison, built ca 1859 and owned by George W. Martin. Later it was a saloon run by a Mr. Hardage and later a store run by Mr. Robert Parham Cain and then by his son Robert Earl Cain.
6. Original site of the William Benford Humphrey store, built ca 1900, the first store was moved back behind the present store and used as a garage by William B. Humphrey Jr. The present store was built ca 1919.
7. The Radio Station is in the 2nd Drug Store Building, that was the Burton-Wise Drug Store, built ca 1908. The store stayed in the Burton-Bradford family until 1975 when it was sold. Mr. Walton Hughes rented the building in 1925 and was in business until 1972.
8. The Madison County Record newspaper is in the old Jim Cain building.
9. The City of Madison Water Dept. occupies the site of the first Bank of Madison. The Bank of Madison filed its articles of incorporation on September 26, 1905.
10. The next store is the site of the old Dea Theodore Thomas store. Mr. Thomas entered business ca 1904. The original store was damaged in 1912. Mr. Thomas was in business until his death in December 1917.
11. The Post Office Annex was the site of the old Frank Hertzler store, with Harvey Anderson as his associate. Later Robert E. True had a store here. This store burned in 1912.
