THE BONNIE BLUE FLAG.

SECOND VERSE.
As long as the Un-ion was faithful to her trust, Like friends and like breth-er-en, kind were we and just; But now when Northern treach-er-y at-tempts our rights to mar, We hoist on high the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a Sin-gle Star.

3 First, Gallant South Carolina nobly made the stand;
Then came Alabama, who took her by the hand;
Next, quickly Mississippi, Georgia, and Florida,
All rais'd on high the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a Single Star.

4 Ye men of valor gather round the Banner of the Right,
Texas and fair Louisiana, join us in the fight;
Davis, our loved President, and Stephens, Statesman rare,
Now rally round the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a single Star.

5 And here's to brave Virginia, the Old Dominion State
With the young Confederacy at length has linked her fate;
Impell'd by her example, now other States prepare
To hoist on high the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a Single Star.

6 Then cheer, boys, raise the joyous shout,
For Arkansas and North Carolina now have both gone out;
And let another rousing cheer for Tennessee be given,
The Single Star of the Bonnie Blue Flag has grown to be Eleven.

7 Then here's to our Confederacy, strong we are and brave,
Like patriots of old, we'll fight our heritage to save;
And rather than submit to shame, to die we would prefer,
So cheer for the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a Single Star.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! Hurrah! for Southern Rights hurrah!
Hurrah! for the Bonnie Blue Flag has gain'd th' Eleventh Star!

The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged paper. At the top right, there is a handwritten note: "Southern Civil War Hist. 44 Confederate Veteran 1894 (74)". The main title of the piece is "Confederate Veteran." with the page number "153" in the top right corner. Below this is the subtitle "THE BONNIE BLUE FLAG." The music is written in three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "mus - ics, blood and toil; And when our rights were threaten'd, The cry rose near and far. Hur-rah for the Bonnie Blue Flag, that bears a Sin - gle Star!". The chorus begins with "CHORUS. Hur - rah! Hur - rah! for South - ern Rights hur - rah! NORWOOD INSTITUTE, WASHINGTON

... CITY. ...

The exceptional opportunities for general culture afforded by the capital of the United States render the CITY OF WASHINGTON the most desirable location for a school for the daughters of refined people; and those opportunities are utilized to the utmost by the pupils of Norwood Institute, under the conduct of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cabell, assisted by a corps of efficient instructors.

The distinguishing feature of Norwood Institute is the thoroughness of its preliminary training, and the care bestowed upon those elementary branches too often neglected in schools of otherwise great excellence.

NORWOOD INSTITUTE is situated in the most beautiful portion of Washington, with charming surroundings. It is at the corner of Massachusetts Avenue and Fourteenth Street, fronting the famous Scott circle, and with a spacious shaded lawn of its own. It comprises four large buildings, erected for handsome private residences and now connected for school purposes. It thus possesses the charm and variety of two or three elegant homes.

The Secretary of the Navy wrote on August 25, 1886:
My Dear Mr. Cabell: I am sure Norwood Institute will continue to grow to public fame as the best school for the daughters of refined people. The training of my daughter, Mrs. Mason, received there has endeared the school to her and to me, and I feel very sure that if parents who have daughters in advance will only inform themselves as to the advantages offered at Norwood, the most abundant prosperity will come to this great enterprise of Mrs. Cabell. Very sincerely yours, S. A. BENTON.

The Secretary of the Treasury wrote on September 1:
My Dear Prof. Cabell: I take pleasure in joining with Secretary Herbert in commending Norwood Institute. It has long been recognized as one of the best schools for young ladies in this city, and I am sure it will lose none of its reputation so long as you remain at its head.
Yours truly,
J. O. GARDNER.

Students may be chosen from beginning to and every branch of education and culture. They may prepare for any college, for the universities of France and Germany, or for foreign travel; or they may pursue here a full collegiate course. The best advantages of Modern Languages, Music, Art, and Education are offered. A special and complete course is given in elocution and physical culture. The modern languages are so taught as to be used with ease in the pursuit of studies abroad. The literature and history of each great nation are studied in the language of that country. Every facility is provided for the cultivation of taste and talents under masters of the highest qualifications. And, best of all, Norwood educates its pupils in all the graces that most combine to produce a true womanly woman.

Full particulars, descriptive catalogue, and views of the school and its surroundings will be sent on application to

CONFEDERATE VETERAN SONG.

Words by JAMES LOCKHART GOODLOE, of Harper's South. Music by F. PETERSON DUNN.

1. What is it that stirs in my heart, low and yearning, That wells up in tears as I
2. Or else, hark the min-strel his lone harp for us here, Do spaird of the glo-ry in
3. We seek not the aims nor ap-prise of the na-tion, Nor flam-beus that glare on the ait here to night, And live o'er the scenes when our camp-fires burn-ing. We chir-al-ry's song, That once raised the pa-tri-ot's soul to the heav-ens, And should n-ver lead; But claim from the brave and the just of re-a-tion, Their weath-ered the storm or we wel-comed the light? Can it be, O my com-rades! gone formed the true be-ing de-fil-sat of wrong? Oh, no! they may slum-ber, the love for the liv-ing, their tears for the dead. End.

down in the bat-tle, Or ye who still live to re-mem-ber the day, That wreck may be numb-les, Their des-ti-ny o-ver, life thrills them no more, But all, all is lost of that ter-ri-ble struggle, Ev'n mem-o-ry's love for the he-ro in gray?

liv-ing, trium-phant, the truth in their spir-its Will gleam o'er those hosts on e-ter-ni-ty's shore.
