My dear Miss Houston: No doubt if you have thought a moment of all you have wondered what has become of me.
At present I am well and doing well and hope you are the same as one of Mother's maids used to write her from. I am only three weeks out of hospital in Macon, I have to go up last of the month for a check over.

You may have wondered too if my application was around to presenting it.

Just the other day one after he had talked to us

me what you are going and if you have found any leads for my Hartan-

You don't know it of course but I think about you so same as mine, had one line published; there are two others, and we claim our title to royal ancestry through the Claiborne and Law. I have not the lineage you mention at hand at this moment, so I can not tell off hand just what ramification I used. If you could wait until January, I could check up on it and see if I am willing to have it used.

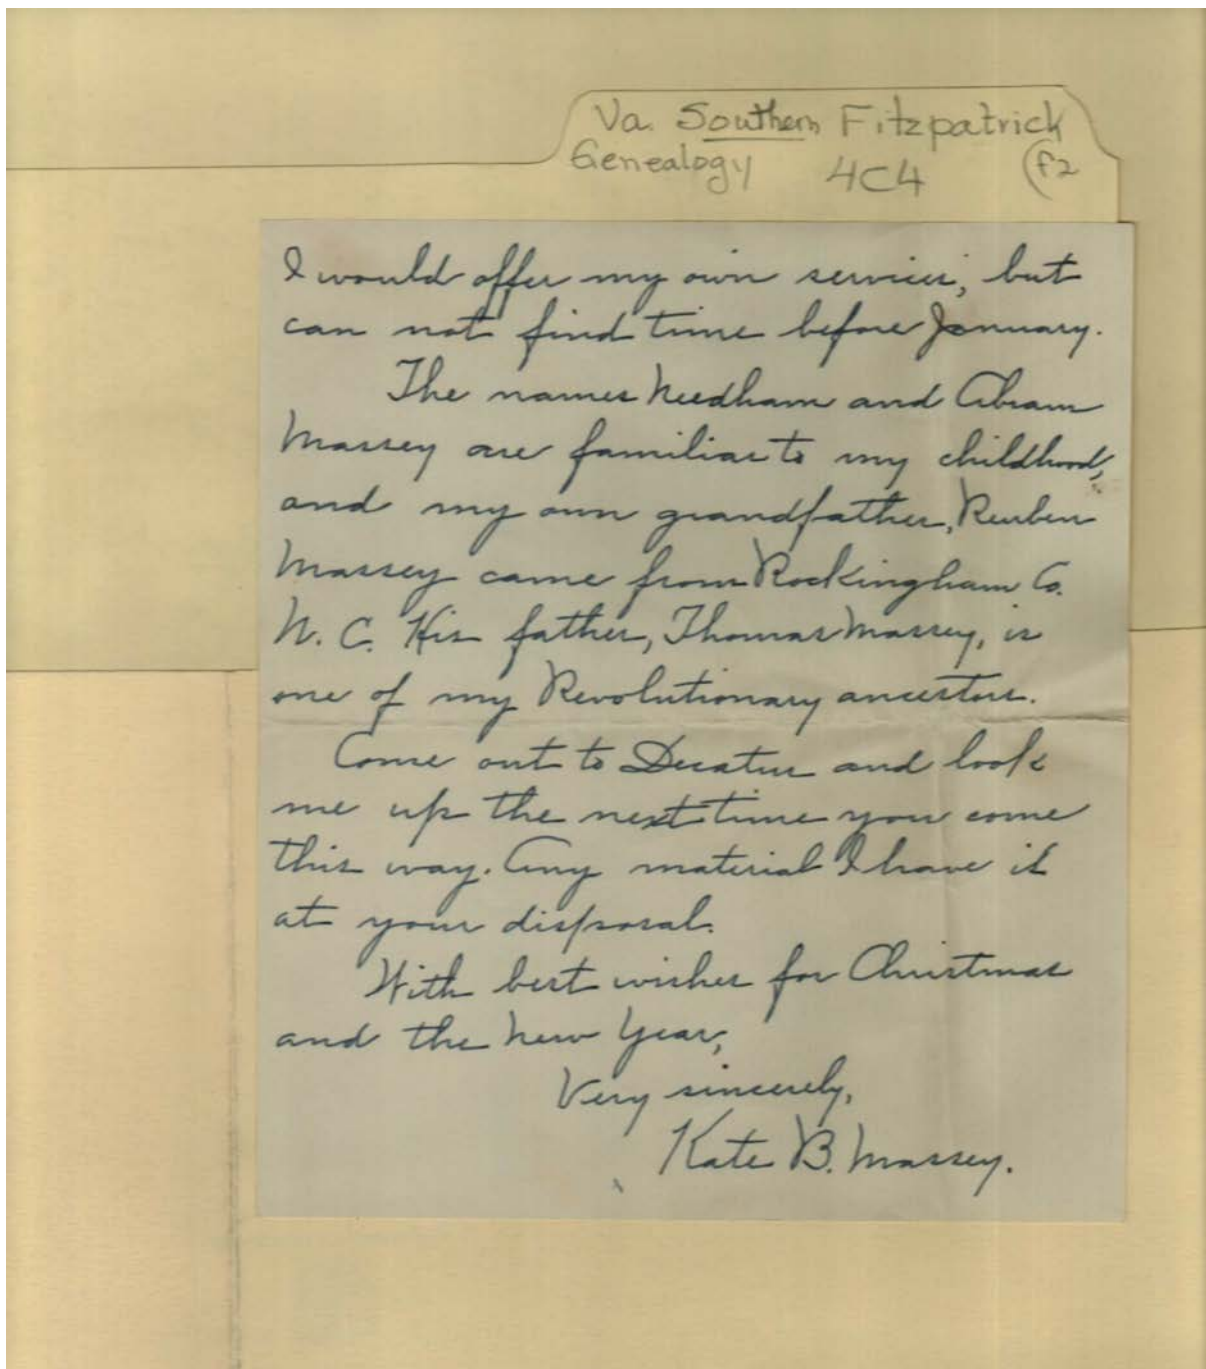

If you are in a hurry, I suggest that you get a genealogist to find the information you need. It would necessitate research work, and all the material is at the Rhodes Memorial.

Dear Cousin Kelly Fitz:

Thanks so much for your nice letter, in which you say all the five sons of Joseph & Mary Perrin Woodson Fitzpatrick and I got "I had located nine soldiers on our line, the Martins, several on other lines and all the sons of Joseph and Mary Perrin Woodson Fitzpatrick" Now as I stated in my first letter, the fourth son of the above mentioned Joseph & Mary Fitz was my great grandfather ^{those words in} and where can I get the proof that he was a Rev. soldier?
I have ~~any~~ records of the other four I but can't find, Boothe ^{B. Woodson} and this sister of mine says lets see if he is listed as Patrick for you I know we have heard that he was called "Pat" and Cousin Joe Varner a descendant of Rene, wrote you that her mother said, "A Uncle Boothe was a very eccentric gentleman but a good"

Wetumpka Alabama...8th. December 1947...

Mrs. W.C.Hendricks, Jeffersville, Georgia.

Dear COUSIN :

.....It was nice to get your letter of inquiry about Beeth, or SOUTH Fitzpatrick, from whom you are descended...but I am sorry to say that I do not seem to have enough data to help you.....

DIFFERENT FROM YOU

I started my Genealogical reasearch at the early age of 13, worked very ardently at the job for about twenty years and have had little time to devote to the business since that time..... I worked up my OWN line to the emigrant William and have it very thoroughly, except that, I can give mostly NAMES... I never did get the Revolutionary Records from the War Department in Washington, the fee at that time being about $5 for each Soldier...I had located nine soldiers on one line and the Martins, several on other lines and ALL the sons of Joseph and Mary Perrin Woodson Fitzpatrick- sixteen or twenty Revolutionary Soldiers whose records I was anxious to get..the COST of this, at that time, was a little more than I cared to risk.... Since then I have done very little work on this and have not pursued the matter further.....

Your theory that Beeth and Patrick may be the same, is quite intriguing and seems possible if of proving.. If you would get the War Department records on either, it might prove the matter.. War -epartment has always HAD the FULL name of the Soldier but use the FIRST name. For instance my name is John Kelly Fitz- and my records were for JOHN Fitz- a name that even my family never associated with ME.. So Patrick Beeth Fitzpatrick would have been known as Patrick Fitz- but his enlistment and land grant papers should show the full name...ALTHO it easily might NOT...I do not have Beeth listed anywhere as Patrick Beeth....

I never went into the Patrick Fitz- matter at all- I think, chiefly because there was a family in Montgomery- still IS, who always had a Patrick..they were Irish Catholics of a recent date and no kin to us... we were the Protestant Irish, ilk, you know..... There were several OTHER branches of the Family one Captain John of his Majesty's Army in Virginia (date unknown) who has descendants still in Va., more in

Dear Cousin Inez.

I came across the note relating to your ancestor a few days ago. I found it in my excellent county photo book. I am sorry I did not know you when I was in that county for there is doubtless some trace about Booth Fitzpatrick. I have checked the published records in our library and find no mention of him which is a disappointment as he was of the right age for service in the Revolution. I have just received two hand-painted coats of arms of the Fitzpatricks - a gift from Mr. J. Kelly Fitzpatrick of Wetumpka, Ala. who is a grand son of Governor Beaufort. I saw Mrs. Owen Campbell yesterday, was with her all afternoon, and she remembered you with pleasure, and spoke

Dear Miss Houston.

Thanks for the contents of both letters. I shall attend to the typing on Monday when I go to Macon again - Saw our report to-day.

Now the name - Luton, Miss Kate Rogers, thinks is Luton or possibly Luther.

John Wilkinson came first to Montgomery Co., Ga. and from there to Twiggs. John purchased land there at the time she says he was there ^{in Montgomery Co. Ga.} 1800-1806. He was in Twiggs in 1811 on jury but I don't know how long before that date.

I know almost nothing about our Harts. Not much more about the Macesys nor the others but I shall not rest until I know them ~~as~~ ^{far} back to the fifth generation, their names ~~at least~~ ^{at least}.

I shall send the chart to you with all I know on it except my age. (Cousin Josie Rozar was sick once upon a time, she and the doctor had begun school together, he asked her age - she said "Jim I don't tell my age", he said "I can count it up" and hid she is a Whitehurst - Wilkinson, Rozar mixture

Mrs. Duke says she will continue to keep her eyes open for Fitz-pate in Virginia. (She is interested in the Bothe-Napier-Fitz line as she worked it up for some one not long ago) and please do the same for me in Georgia, will you?

Did I send you Elwin or Edward Harts family? He has 3 daughters and their names - I have names of all of grand-children and some of the 7-grades. He should be able to find his Bible and it ought to be a good one and, well kept. He was a Baptist, and for years was a clerk at Rockland Church, which is near Old Marion. Marion was County seat when he was ordinary.

Will you please do your own book-keeping and let me know when to send check.

Thank you, you said you had been in accident please don't over do your self.

Sincerely,
Claudia Fitzpatrick Hendricks

From BOOTH FITZ-PATRICK Page One.
Fitzhugh Lee *****
Covington Ga. Glad to hear from you. Wondered where you had flown.
 Thanks for the $88lets. I have the one on Marriages in For Hancock co. Ga. Obtained by doing some work on the Martha Lou Houston McArty-- or McCarty family of eastern Ga. If you 415 Locust St need this I can return to you.

Huntsville Ala. At this start I do not feel that I can do much with * Booth Fitz-Patriek, but will do the best I can.

In 1788 in Greene co Ga. Rene Fitzpatrick was a prominent man in many ways. *****
From the Hardwick family-- I have, " James Hardwick of 1737, b. of westmoreland co Va. had a son, Wm. Hardwick who was in Greene co Ga. in 1802-- Made a will in which he mentions his dau Molly Fitz-Patriek dau of Rene Fitzpatrick and Molly Fitz*Patrick, his dau.

This will was witnessed by P. Park, Susan Park & B. Fitz*Patrick

This is possibly Booth Fitz-Patriek In 1808, in Greene 88 Ga, in the will of Wm. Hardwick he bequeats to Geo. Hardwick, Geo & Garland Hardwick, Molly Fitz-Patriek (will as above). Execs on the will were Geo & Garland Hardwick,

In 1798 in Greene co Ga. the court appointed Boothe-(Booth) Fitz-Patrick and several other men to work the road leading from Phillips' Perry to the dividing range between the Appalaches and the Oconee Riv-

In 1785, Wm. Fitz-Patriek, Esq. was the tax collector of Washington co Ga. ***
About 1816 several of the Fitz-Patrieks had moved into Morgan co Ga, and of their marriages are on record in that county.

In 1925--Mr. H.H. Fitzpatrick Sr. age 70 died in Madison, Morgan co Ga.
Among his survivors, two nieces Mrs. Albert Douglas and Mrs.
Carter Shepherd, & Mrs. L.D. Wallace, of Madison Ga.

They might tell you something.

In 1827 Booth Fitz*Patrick, a wounded Rev. sold, drew one land lot No. 255 in Nines dist. Jasper co Ga.

is Sister Fitzpatrick C. 1831 404 (2)

remained with father - mother for sometime then she went to town I think to see her daughter whom she afterwards died. my daughter I think can give you the name and location and maybe date as she was with my father we had removed to Belleville Ala sometime in the 70s and where he died 8 years ago nearly 72 years old.
When he was then sick I felt as he would die so I went there and remained with him as long as I could in I had found that he was quite ill nearly on all dead the mother died I guess before my father died.
I am the oldest child born to them I remember very well I was 16 leaving home at Tuscaloosa Ala (State of Ala.) went through to the end in April 1861
There is a Miss Mrs Fitzpatrick Thrice Bly John Mr who I feel sure is kin to my line of Fitzpatrick and who has a family tree of the Fitzpatrick. I think I had a son who lived in America for about a year 6 or 7 yrs ago he went through Law Dep. Alabama and then to America spending to locate but after travelling (some where) got married (some where) and then returned then removed to Alabama Ala. and engaged in the Law W. B.
Fitzpatrick, I + Miss Cabaniss. I have a son banking in Bessemer Ala (Pioneer Bk. Building Co.) One sure I completed in Alabama. My father used to say my grandmother Fitzpatrick was his mother whom I was with the name of Fitzpatrick in name. He took his name from my mother at the time and called her mother in name I am sure you will see.

In Eastern Fitzpatrick
County Va

the eldest daughter married Laughton son Bethune, first having only one child the Hon. Mary B. Pittman of Talbott County Georgia. Rene was thrice married. Elizabeth married a Mr. Harwell, who moved many years ago with his family to Mississippi. Joseph married a Mrs. Hodge, a young widow whose maiden name was Ruth Hays. Mary Perrin, my mother, married Edward Pate, my father, was a young widower with several children my mother had nephews children, Abner, Elizabeth, and myself.
I am the only one of all the children of my father now living.
My brother Abner never married.
My sister married a Mr. Lawrence.
She died in Auburn Alabama 1844 leaving a son and daughter.
The son named Joseph was killed in the late war. The daughter married a Mr. King, and when last heard from was living in Florida. My youngest sister married John B. McCoy. She had only two children, both sons, the eldest named Augustus Caesar, and the youngest John H. The eldest died several years ago having a small family. The youngest John H. McCoy married Miss Mathews of Talbott Co. and is now living in Talbott and reputed to be the wealthiest
