Act. Rodah Horton 405 (P7)

Apr. 6

Dear Dr. Roberts,

This is all the research I have done on the Hunt lineage and is not compiled systematically. Because the reference to Mary Jane Hunt in Smith and DeLand says she was the "great-granddaughter" of the founder of Huntsville, I think the line looks like this.

1. John Hunt
2. William Hunt I
3. William Hunt II b. 1802-3 d. 1855 Huntsville Tennessee
- married twice { Rufus to New Orleans
- { Phidel b. 1829 to Perry, Tenn.
- { Mary Jane b. 1829 died 1858
- married ^{Anna} Skeggs
- married Stratford Annd b. 1837 including
- married Carmeloh Cordelia John E.
4. Mary Jane Hunt m. Henry Alexander Skeggs I b. 11/27/1815 d. 6/23/1908
1. William Alexander
2. Henry Alexander
3. Rufus Hunt
5. Henry Alexander Skeggs II m. Sue Burkett
6. Anne Skeggs m. Arthur Alvin Jones I
7. Suzanne Jones m. Barrett Shelton I

Pict. Rodah Horton

Anne Skeggs
 Born: Aug. 5 ⁽¹⁸⁷⁵⁾ ? Decatur, Al
 Married: May 28, 1906 Decatur, Ala.

Children:

Suzanne Jones b. Jan 20, 1909
 m. Barrett Clinton Shelton 6/7/30
 Decatur, Morgan Co Ala.
 (buried at Decatur City Cemetery)

John Henry Jones b. 8/8/11 d. 4/9/77
 m. Jeffie Beckham

Arthur Alvin Jones, II b. 12/25/25 d. 10/25/50
 m. Virginia Moseby Leland

Mary Lee Jones (Mimi)
 b. 27
 m. Walter Hickman Hall, March 1960

Anne Skeggs grew up in Decatur and remembers playing mainly with her brothers Will and Tom and being a tomboy who climbed trees and loved to play around new houses being built around her house on Ferry Street. She said her Mama (Sue Burkett Skeggs) would have one birthday party for all three of them when strawberries were in. Billy's birthday was in July, Anne's was in August and Tom's, in March. She doesn't remember anything about her ancestors and was not too interested in talking about them, except that she is sure that John Hunt is a direct descendant of the Rev. Robert Hunt who was rector of the Episcopal church at Jamestown Virginia in 1609. ~~xxxx~~ She makes this point over and over again and shows a postcard about the Rev. Hunt as proof of this lineage.

Her house on Ferry Street (where the Methodist retirement ~~xx~~ apartments are now on the southwest corner of Ferry and Walnut) was the furthest house out of town and their back yard extended to where Highway 31 intersects Walnut Street now. She remembers when "old Doctor Gill" built Gussie Deas house (now called Shadowlawn on Line Street.) Then a Holmes bought it who sold the Skeggs family milk. She remembers the Speake house being built and Bessie Speake moving there when "she was 6 and I was 7". She remembers the Williamson house being built, and the house behind her ~~xxxx~~ later home on Walnut Street, and that Judge Wert built Nella's house on Line Street. The Moseley house was the only "old" house in the ~~xx~~ neighborhood. They were "good" people (she was a Halsey) but sort of "played out". She remembers when Bill, ~~xx~~ Yink and Mattie had typhoid fever and the doctor told them not to eat any solid food because their bowels were perforated and it would all "run out". Sure enough, they did and died.

She remembers when they used to bring in the bales of cotton and sell it right on Bank Street and you'd have to ride a horse all around it.

Her fondest memories of Huntsville were of her best friend, Elizabeth Richardson. Papa was U.S. Marshall and a good friend of her father's. Elizabeth's birthday was in July and ~~xxx~~ "mine's in August" and they were twelve years old when Elizabeth's father ran for Congress. Ruby Richardson and Anna Hobbs of Greenbriar were also good friends. "They were all so pretty". "We'd go to Anna's House at Greenbriar, then to Athens, then to Huntsville for ~~xxxxxx~~ houseparties for a week at a time in the summer....every summer until Elizabeth married and went to Richmond to live. When I married Mary Lee was only nine and ~~xxxxxxx~~ Elizabeth was my only attendant."

Act. Rodah Horton 405 (P7)

When she went to Mary Baldwin College she spent two years at the "seminary" and two years in Richmond. She remembers taking English and history. Papa took her up to Virginia on the train and said "he never hated leaving me anywhere so bad in his life. Miss Mary Baldwin had started the school and she used to take the girls who misbehaved in to pray with them. Papa said Miss Wymer was so cold, ...Papa said, cold as deep cold stone...We couldn't bat an eyebrow at Mary Baldwin. You weren't supposed to even know a male member of the human race existed. They took us to concerts, with a chaperone, occasionally, and had affairs with boys invited. I saw Maud Adams in Peter Pan once...my roommate's name was Mary Crawford and she lived on a big farm near Charlottesville. Then there was Hilda, Clifton Ford's her father, who was resident physician. We weren't allowed to go to Charlottesville but we used to go stay with Mary's cousin Millie. Minor Lyle from Trinity was at Charlottesville and occupied the seat of law at the law school. He would meet me there at the train station because I had to change trains and he told me he almost was my father one time, and maybe if Mama had known he'd be a judge, she might have married him when he asked her one time."

The Skeggs went to the Episcopal church in Decatur and were staunch members of it. The prayer book that Ella Skeggs Crawford had is a "Methodist Episcopal" praybook and it belonged to ~~Max~~ Mary Hunt. Mary Lee Skeggs Kortrecht has a photograph of ~~Max~~ Mary Hunt and it shows a ~~xxxxxx~~ woman with large dark eyes and dark shiney hair. The Burketts were Methodists (Sue Burkett's father, Thaddeus, was a Methodist preacher) but after her marriage to Henry Skeggs, the family was Episcopalian.

Anne Skeggs married Arthur Jones on May 28, 1906. His obituary in the Decatur Daily reads as follows:

Arthur Alvin Jones died at 12:25 on July 10, 1956. He came to Decatur in 1901 following his graduation from Georgia Institute of Technology. He and Miss Ann Skeggs were married in 1906.

He was the president of Decatur Fertilizer Co and founder of Jones Coal Co.

In community life his principle activity was in the work of the First Presbyterian church ~~xxx~~ where he was first a deacon and was elected to the Board of Elders in 1926. For many years he ~~xxx~~ taught a Sunday School class through which ~~xxx~~ many of Decatur's young men have been instructed.

He was a charter member of the Decatur Kiwanis Club and president in 1926. He was a member of the Decatur City School Board from April 1934 until May, 1951. He was chairman of that board from May 1942 until he retired in 1951. He is responsible for many of Decatur's modern schools.

Anne and Arthur Jones sent their oldest child, Suzanne, to Ward Belmont in Nashville, because it had a Hunt connection. Rebecca Hunt had married an Acklin. Her son married the widow Franklin and their home in Nashville became Ward Belmont. "Sonny" Jones went to the University of Alabama, served in World War II. Al Jones went one year to his father's alma mater, Georgia Tech, then finished at the University of Alabama. He served in World War II also. Mimi went two years to Mary Baldwin, then graduated at the University of Alabama.
