Tuscaloosa Branch
American Association of University Women
Tuscaloosa, Alabama
November 19, 1949

Miss Frances Roberts, President
Huntsville Branch, A.A.U.W.
602 Randolph Street
Huntsville, Alabama

Dear Miss Roberts:

Each year the Tuscaloosa Branch of A.A.U.W. selects some project as a means of replenishing its treasury. In recent years, we have brought to Tuscaloosa theatrical productions for children and for adults, noteworthy speakers, musical organizations, etc.

This year, our project is a cook book - we think a most attractive one - called DISHES WITH DASH. The recipes are in the handwriting of the donors and many pages carry clever illustrations. The red binding and the price make it an alluring buy for Christmas gifts.

We are sending a copy of this book to you hoping that you or some member would like to purchase it. Better still - that you will display it for us and place orders. We have the books in stock and can fill orders promptly. There has to be a fifteen cent mailing charge.

We will be most grateful for your interest and assistance in our project.

Sincerely,
Mable E. Adams
Mable E. Adams, President
Tuscaloosa Branch, A.A.U.W.
