The Huntsville Times SUNDAY, MAY 6, 1973

Antebellum and Later Homes Will Be Included in Tours

Roberts
AAUW
4 D 2
P 7

As a feature of Huntsville's part in National Historic Preservation Week, which begins today, two days of tours of historic homes are planned for May 12 and 13.

Sponsored by the American Association of University Women, the tours will feature three antebellum homes and one post-Civil War home each day, in addition to an antebellum building. Different homes will be on each tour and will be open from 2 to 5 p.m.

Proceeds from the tours will be turned over to the Twickenham Historical Preservation District Association for the purchase and restoration of the Howard Weeden home. Miss Weeden was a 19th century Alabama artist and poet who became nationally famous. Her birthplace, built in 1819, is located at 302 Gates Ave.

Tour plans also include a glimpse into the Weeden home each day, with restoration plans on display.

HEADQUARTERS FOR the Saturday tour will be the Chadwick House at 307 Randolph. Now housing Public Systems Inc., the house was started in the 1830's with later additions. Five original fireplaces have been repaired and restored.

Next on the tour will be the home of Mrs. William Spragins at 413 Randolph, which was built prior to 1851 as the president's home for the Huntsville Female College. A Georgian style structure, the home was designed by architect George Steele.

The residence of Mrs. Robert Lowe at 210 Williams was built between 1875 and 1880 in a Romanesque style.

The house was designed in New York and all the pieces were numbered and shipped to Huntsville, where the house was assembled.

Another George Steele home is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jac Countess at 528 Adams, which was constructed about 1825. The home originally contained five large rooms and two hallways with a later addition of eight more rooms.

The home of Col. and Mrs. Samuel Lowry at 702 Adams was originally built between 1838 and 1859 as an Episcopal rectory. A spacious home, the original house consisted of three 20 by 30-foot rooms each upstairs and downstairs.

SUNDAY'S HEADQUARTERS will be the historic First National Bank on the West Side of the Square. High on a limestone bluff above the Big Spring, the Greek Revival structure features six Ionic columns and 15-foot high doors.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gesman at 817 Franklin was built in the 1820's, with two later additions. The first stage consisted of four rooms and a hall, later a small one-story wing was added and in 1842 double parlors and a bedroom were built.

An early American house, the residence of the Rev. and Mrs. Harrison McMains at 527 Franklin is of brick and wood with solid cedar window sills. Indications are that a house was constructed on the site prior to 1818.

Built in 1832 or 1833, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooper at 511 Adams is one of the oldest smaller homes in Huntsville. The house sits high above the street as a type of raised cottage. The original kitchen fireplace and hand-hewn beams are still visible.

The home of Mrs. E. V. Caldwell at 604 Adams is a classic two-story structure built about 1867 by Robert Weeden, a relative of Miss Howard Weeden. The main floor includes double parlors, living room, dining room and kitchen, with six bedrooms upstairs.

TICKETS ARE available for $4 each prior to the tour days at The Arts Council, Andan's, Bookland, the Book Shop, the UAH Book Nook and all branches of the First National Bank. Tickets will be $5 each at the headquarters on the day of the tour.

Those wishing to donate to the Weeden House Restoration Fund may send their checks to Karl Woltersdorf, treasurer of the Twickenham Preservation District Association, at 400 Echols Ave.

Sophisticated Texture

Here's a seersucker suit for warm weather. The separates by Jack Winter come in a sophisticated textured polyester fabric by Stevens, take the wash-and-wear cycle in stride and are almost weightless. The pretty pantsuit is in tandem, but each piece functions fashionably on its own. The backless halter top is a bodysuit.
