From recd from by their father that he Robert S. Nevill, as principal, and Charles Cooke, as surety are both and jointly bound unto William O. Winston, administrator of P. Reavis, in the sum of twenty five dollars for the payment of certain debts and debts now here and assigne, with interest and scale this 15th day of May 1874.

The conditions of this obligation is as follows.
The said William O. Winston, as administrator of the estate of P. Reavis, has this day paid to the said R. S. Nevill, the said sum of $25.00 which sum is one half the principal of his claim for $50.00, against the estate of said P. Reavis, due July 15th 1872. And if the said Nevill, in the final settlement and distribution of said estate, should be found not entitled to said sum of $25.00, he is a bondman pro rata account, that if the said Nevill shall refuse and pay back to said Winston, whatever sum he has this day received over and above the true pro rata account, then funds due him on said claim, then this obligation is to be void, otherwise of full force and effect.

I will not trust you had in the way of a fee - say $5. If you had seen me looking through the papers in the Reavis estate & going through the Records you would have said: pretty well earned. It was however absolutely necessary to do so before I could give you the desired information, and upon this you can rely - all things in connection with the dower are regular & in order. Many thanks for your kind expressions - hope I will continue to merit your good will. Yours Truly

P. S. Since writing the above I have ascertained that Mrs. Reavis' lands were sold last May for the taxes of 1881, so if you purchase bear that in mind, as it will have to be redeemed. In reference to the fee I forgot to say, if you don't make the trade I charge nothing. Your friend of age.

Whereas, Maria A. Lanford, Executrix of the estate of John B. Lanford, deceased, has filed said application in said Court, praying that three disinterested persons be appointed Appraisers to set apart exemptions to said Maria A. Lanford, widow of said decedent, and to the following minor children of said decedent, to-wit: Mary V. Lanford, Mattie A. Lanford, Annie Lanford and John Alex Lanford personal property to the value of one thousand dollars, and allot and set off a homestead, not to exceed in value two thousand dollars.

And, whereas, it appears to the Court, that no exemptions have ever been set apart to the said widow and minor children out of the estate of said decedent; and it further appearing to the Court, that said widow and said

Mr B. L. Roberts - Gainesville, Ala.

Dear Sir:

I enclose herein an application for letters of administration to be issued to you on the estate of J. B. Lanford, dec'd, and also bond for you to execute as such. Read the application and where I have stated the property of the estate to consist of "goods, wares and merchandise, notes, mortgages, securities, and" add any other material property that belongs to the estate, and then fill up the blank left for the value of the estate. Sign the application on the dotted line just above the affidavit, which you will also sign and swear to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. ~~Fill~~ Fill the blank left for the amount of the bond with the amount of double the estimated value of the estate. You will notice that I have written in pencil what to insert. Put the names of your executors also in the body of the bond after your name. As soon as these papers are signed up return them to me. At the same time give me the names of three good men to act as appraisers of the estate, as soon as you return the application and bond I will have the papers signed by your attorney.
