take Sep. what he thinks of the poetry? put me very slowly, for she would sink any fact unless corroborated.
 I don't think she could be put to fall to fight. As we were obliged to give her so much whiskey, that it went to her head, and I some times we thought she was a fine just in the middle of that she had caught out five fishes out of the hole bricks. It was soon put out, & she so, and considers her out of danger. I don't blame the people for being afraid of yellow fever, for it is a terrible disease. There are still a good many cases in town. Poor Willie Waller's death was so sad. I can't realize that he has been taken from us for ever now. I find myself looking for him to come. Frank Woodruff died yesterday, after an illness of two weeks. Did you meet him while in Montgomery? It seems as if all of my friends & young men have been dying, and even have died within the last two months, right out of our circle of friends. It is hard to think about. Hence the vote has our election day, the people have become more depressed than ever. All the white people that were shot, were boys, (who were standing in the crowd, when the fire commenced) except one person, & that was "Uncle Cliff" Noble, who was shot very badly in the arm. You have heard the report of him. The young people here have all died down, and even no more depressed & sad as the old people. Have not heard of a single party that will be given
