Has there been many parties in At this Christmas?

Aunt Bet wrote me that your class had received "Bessie McElwille" & "The Little Episcopalian at the Christmas Tree", and that Sep's class received "Aunties Christmas Tree". I would like to read them when I come home, as they were written by Miss Mary Ann Cruse. I have read the first two, before.

I expect that Ma is very busy, I hope to be able to help her some next summer. The time flies very fast when I am studying, and summer will soon be here.

Give my love to Ma, Pa, Sep,
Fannie, Willie & Bud

Affectionately Yours
C. E. Cabaniss

Dear Ma.

You must not think that I am going to have bad health, for I am very comfortable, have a good overcoat, kind friends, and so down to church.

I have been unwell for two days during the past week, but I have recovered, and feel very well. I am glad to hear that Willie & Bud have been so smart.

You must be very busy indeed; I think that you are doing a great deal, to take Music and French besides your other studies.

I infer from your letter, that you keep help to keep house, one week, and Fannie, the next week.

Tell Fannie that I am very much interested in her becoming a good housekeeper.

It seems strange to hear that Sep's peas are ready to stick, when the ground is covered with snow here. I am glad to hear that the horses are in good order.

Tell Sep that he must take very good care of Sallie. How does Ma like her new saw?

I heard that Pa & you & Willie were at Aunt Sallie's, the latter part of last month. How did you go, on horseback or in the Spring-waggon?

Cousin Sep wrote me, that Miss Cornelia Collins was coming to spend the summer in North-Blatama. I saw her when I was at Gainsville, just before the Surrender.

If I mistake not, the 26th will be Sep's Birthday.

Please write whenever you have time; Give my love to Pa, Ma, Sep, Fannie, Willie, Bud, Grand-ma, Aunt Bet, Uncle Lev & Uncle Charles.

Affectionately your Brother

I am much obliged to you for your account of the wedding. In your next letter, tell me where they expect to live.

There is a new paper published in Mobile, called "The Cycle", edited by Maj. Walthall, an ex-Confederate, a Churchman, and the first literary man in the State. The Bishop advised me to take the paper. It contains a pleasant story entitled "Woman's Work", written by a Churchwoman, a Mrs Bellamy, who lives at Gainerville, or thereabouts. I am saving every number of the paper.

to send it to Ma, as soon as the story is finished. I think you will enjoy it.

The warm, spring-like weather continues. Mrs Beard's two boys have taken off their shoes and are barefooted today.

It is said that this winter is like that of 1822-3, which was very warm until the middle of February, when there <sup>came</sup> a very sudden and very severe spell of cold weather, by which many fishermen and negroes were frozen to death in their huts, and ice was formed in the Mississippi River almost down to its mouth. I hope that no one may be taken by sur-
